

Miles Kwok

The revolutionary whistleblower

Dedicated to all who are striving for freedom and democracy of the Chinese people, as well as global supporters regardless of their backgrounds

Socialism is not the road to freedom. Socialism is the road to government control. And it grows in the soil of censorship.

And across the nation, the American people are growing in vigilance, with a newfound appreciation for our administration's actions and the President's leadership to reset America's economic and strategic relationship with China.

The American people want nothing more; and the Chinese people deserve nothing less.

There is an ancient Chinese proverb that reads, "Men see only the present, but heaven sees the future." As we go forward, let us pursue a future of peace and prosperity with resolve and faith.

Chapter 1

Who is Miles Kwok?

Miles Kwok, or Guo Wengui, was born in an ordinary family. Originally the family was from Shen County, Shandong province, in northern China.

On his Chinese identity card, Guo Wengui registered his residence in Zhongyuan District, Zhengzhou City, Henan Province, born on February 2, 1967.

He also has Hong Kong permanent residency with a number of English names. One of his Hong Kong identities was registered as Guo Haoyun, born on October 5, 1968.

According to Guo Wengui himself in one of his “Say Hello” videos on May 11, 2017, he was 48 years old in 2017 and his birthday is May 10.

Another source pointed out that Guo Wengui is a native of Xicaoying Village, an ancient town in Jixian County, Shandong Province.

Guo is one of the three surnames of Xicaoying Village. Guo Wengui is ranked seventh in the family. When his father was young, the family moved to Zhaojiagou village, Hongqiling Town, Liushi County, Jilin Province, to make a living. The family returned to their hometown in the late 1970s.

Guo said a couple of times that his mother is the backbone of the family. She is kind-hearted with good faith in Buddhism. The whole family was deeply influenced by his mother’s religious belief. Guo said his father had a weak personality. That was one of the reasons he often got bullied as a kid although he had seven brothers. He said his mother had to work very hard to feed the nine “men” including his father, but hard to find them enough food or keep her kids warm.

In the early 1980s, Guo Wengui entered the junior high school in the local Gucheng Town. He did not continue to high school after junior graduation. Instead, Guo Wengui took a girl from the ancient town, Yue Qingzhi, to settle in Zhengzhou City, Henan Province. Yue later became his wife and they have two children.

During their temporary migration to the northeastern part of China, his right-wing father under persecution was assigned to supervised labor at a state-owned factory, where early education was provided for the children.

Guo and his fiancée Yue Qingzhi both became employees of Heilongjiang Forest Medicine Cooperative; they served as sales representatives in the liaison office in Zhengzhou in 1989.

Guo said that he was arrested during the June 4th Movement in 1989. He sold his motorcycle and donated the earnings to the students in protest. He was detained in prison for eight months for his support of the democratic movement.

In the early 1990s, when he was about 25 years of age, Guo Wengui was arrested a second time because of disputes in business. At that time, he was with his younger brother when they were chased by police. His younger brother was denied treatment at the local hospital after he had been shot by a drunken policeman. He died in the hospital.

Later when Guo Wengui told about this incident, he said he had made up his mind at this moment that he would one day act against the evil Communist Party of China and must take it to hell. In one of his whistle blows in 2017, he said, "I have prepared for this moment for 28 years!"

Guo later told his audience that during his imprisonment, he met some democratic activists and religious believers in the cells and learned a lot from them on how to build a successful business and achieve a great mission.

After he was released from prison, with an idea to broaden his vision, Guo went abroad to travel. In Hong Kong, he was introduced to some financiers from the west by his Hong Kong friends. After returning to China, he hoped to make a living by doing business.

In 1992, Guo became the general manager of Henan Dalaoban Furniture Factory, which was a collectively owned enterprise under the Zhengzhou office for retired cadres of the Ministry of Nuclear Industry. According to the industrial and commercial registration data, the furniture factory was established on April 17, 1993. It was a collectively owned enterprise with a registered capital of 5.3 million yuan and the legal representative was Guo Wengui.

In the first half of the 1990s, Guo began to set foot in the real estate industry.

In September 1993, he participated in the founding of Zhengzhou Yuda Real Estate Co., Ltd. The company was a joint venture between his furniture factory and Hong Kong Aileen Co., Ltd, each holding 50% shares.

The venture had an initial registered capital of 15 million yuan. The chairman of the company was Xia Ping, a Hong Kong Aileen Representative. Guo was the vice chairman and general manager.

The first development by the venture was 18,000 square meters of land west of Yaozhai Village in the north of Dongming Road in Zhengzhou City. The project was supposed to be commercial and residential buildings mainly for middle and low-end income earners.

However, in September 1996, the furniture factory withdrew as a shareholder. And a new venture was established with Zhengzhou Weiren Trading Co. Ltd as the new shareholder, Guo Wengui as the chairman and legal representative. The registered capital rose to 246 million yuan, Zhengzhou Weiren and Hong Kong Aileen holding equal shares. Instead of building residential apartments for local residents, they changed to build the largest building in Zhengzhou.

In 1997, Henan Yuda Investment Co. Ltd. built Yuda International Trade Center in Zhongyuan Middle Road. This building maintained the highest building record in Zhengzhou for 15 years.

Because of its shape and style, the five-star Yuda International Trade Center was regarded as the Buddha's hand in the central land of China. As the owner of this magnificent hotel, Guo Wengui received many important guests from both the business and political circles. Li Keqiang, then governor of Henan province and Wu Yi, China's Vice premier, also became his frequent visitors.

In October 1998, Guo Wengui transferred all his shares with the mainland company into Hong Kong Aileen and the venture thus became 100% Hong Kong-owned enterprise. He obtained Hong Kong residency and changed his name to Guo Haoyun. Guo Haoyun served as the general manager of the company for a long time.

In June 1999, Yuda International Trade Center was put into use as a whole. But around that time in 1999, Guo Wengui was involved in more business disputes and he had to travel to the United States to evade police persecution.

Guo Wengui later admitted in his whistle blows that he had to collaborate with the corrupt CCP government to do lots of evil in order to protect his life and wealth. These collaborations inspired him to further his business adventures in the capital Beijing.

In June 1998, Guo Wengui and actor Zhu Shimao jointly established Beijing Wenmao Investment Consultant Co., Ltd. with a registered capital of 5 million yuan, of which Guo invested 3 million yuan and Zhu invested 2 million yuan.

In February 2001, Zhu Shimao withdrew and Guo Wengui also transferred the shares to others. The company was later renamed Beijing Morgan Investment Co., Ltd. and was renamed Beijing Pangu Investment Co., Ltd.

On January 8, 2002, Guo Wengui established another company in Beijing, Beijing Jinqun real Estate Co., Ltd. and finally changed its name to Beijing Zenith Holdings Co., Ltd.

In September 2002, Guo Wengui acquired two plots in Datun Township, Chaoyang District, Beijing, to build Morgan Center and Jinqun Square respectively.

In 2003, the Morgan Center project was suspended due to government planning and financial disputes. In 2004, the Ministry of Land and Resources of China issued the provisions on the "transfer agreement on the operation of land use rights". The following year, Guo Wengui again went overseas to seek financial support.

In October 2005, the Beijing Municipal Bureau of Land and Resources announced the withdrawal of state-owned land use rights for seven pieces of land including the Morgan Center. On January 5, 2006, Morgan Investment filed a lawsuit in the People's Court of Chaoyang District, requesting the revocation of the Notice on Dissolving the Contract for the Transfer of State-Owned Land Use Rights.

On May 22, 2006, Morgan Center re-entered the land market bidding. The winning bidder was a mistress of Liu Zhihua, deputy mayor of Beijing, who was in charge of urban construction and was mainly engaged in the construction of the Olympic project.

Guo Wengui directly charged Liu Zhihua of corruption and on June 9, 2006, the deputy mayor was detained and sentenced to imprisonment by the Central Commission for Discipline Inspection. Guo Wengui's Morgan Investment won back the rights to the Pangu project.

Guo said he had fought hard for 3 years to regain Pangu and succeeded in sending the vice mayor of Beijing to jail.

In the investigation of Liu's crimes, Guo offended a large number of CCP officials, especially Wang Qishan. Guo had kept lots of evidence about Wang's corruption.

In 2008, Tianjin Huanbohai Group had an internal dispute. Zheng Jieyu, Chairman of the Group reported the case to the Tianjin Public Security Bureau who arrested Zhao Yunan, the managing director of its subsidiary company Huatai. Requested by Zhao's family, Guo Wengui intervened in the case and obtained the ownership of Huatai. In the process, businessman Xie Jiansheng, who had suffered a loss of interest, brought about a lawsuit against Guo Wengui.

In August 2012, the case for contract fraud brought about by Xie Jiansheng was approved by the Ministry of Public Security. Zhao Yunan was arrested; Guo Wengui fled overseas for the third time. With the efforts of Ma Jian, deputy director of the Ministry of National Security, Zhao Yunan was released on bail pending trial. In July 2012, the Jiaozuo City Public Security Bureau received a letter from the Ministry of National Security, claiming that Zhao Yunan was a secret service officer and ordered the bureau to revoke the case.

In late 2012, Wang Qishan was elected a standing member of the CCP Politburo and served as secretary of the Central Discipline Inspection Commission. Later he ordered the investigation of Ma Jian, Meng Huiqing, who also learned about Wang's corruption during their participation in the case of Liu Zhihua.

From 2008 to 2012, Guo Wengui became well-known in Beijing's business and political circles. It was not difficult for him to arrange a meeting with then President Hu Jintao. Because of the success of the Pangu project and the Olympics Games, Guo and his Pangu became the gathering place for Beijing's business and political celebrities. The State Security Ministry and legal officials often had internal meetings within the hotel. And Guo Wengui also became a national security agent with the recommendation from Ma Jian and other officials. This has given him the chance to learn lots of techniques in information collection and international intelligence.

Through the construction of at least three monumental buildings in the country, Guo Wengui has worked with some of the world's best artists, designers, and architects. Those connections helped build up his style of humbleness, carefulness, and elegance in his professions. The process has been heroic, legendary and at the same time full of dangers.

In May 2013, Guo Wengui raised RMB 8 billion through the East Asia Trust under the Peking University Founder Group. East Asia Trust transferred 4.9 billion yuan on a two-year creditor's right to Shanghai Bank. A short time afterward Guo Wengui broke up with Li You, CEO of Founder Group.

In the second half of 2014, Guo Wengui, then overseas, took legal actions against Li You and his Founder Group. December 19, 2014, Li You fled but later was taken away by police for investigation. Li You brought about a lawsuit against Guo Wengui and Ma Jian. On January 16, 2015, Ma Jian was investigated and later sentenced to imprisonment.

Knowing that he would be the next target of Wang Qishan, Guo Wengui fled overseas at the end of 2012, first staying in Hong Kong, then the Middle East, then the United Kingdom. But on Jan 10, 2015, nearly all his family members and employees were arrested by armed police.

In March 2015, apparently as part of Wang Qishan's plan, Caixin Media publicized a report titled "Power Hunter Guo Wengui", announced that it had unveiled the political and business relationship of Guo Wengui, and accused him of involvement in the case of Ma Jian and.

On March 29, Pangu's Weibo account issued a statement: "The recent report by Hu Shuli of Caixin media has defamed Mr. Guo Wengui and our company, causing serious damage to their reputation. As a senior executive, Hu Shuli has used her power to maliciously manipulate false public opinion, regardless of basic professional ethics. Mr. Guo Wengui hereby publicly responds to the report, willing to face Ms. Hu Shuli in an open dialogue and tell the truth to the public."

Guo Wengui revealed that Hu Shuli and Li You have an illegitimate child, that Hu Shuli and Li You illegally obtained benefits from listed companies, illegally used state-owned assets for personal gain, and questioned Hu Shuli's political background and connections with Wang Qishan.

On January 26th and March 8th, 2017, Guo Wengui accepted live TV interviews with the overseas Chinese media Mingjing, claiming to disclose the corruption and sex scandals of CCP's dignitaries, especially Wang Qishan. Guo said he did this in order to "preserve life, save his money, and avenge".

The highly intense Chinese government 3 times sent Liu Yanping, secretary of State Security Ministry, first to London, then to New York, trying to get Guo Wengui back to China. In the United States, Liu was detained at the airport briefly by the US FBI for judicial enforcement in the US.

Guo Wengui claimed that Guan Jun, Liu Chengjie, and Sun Yao are illegitimate children of Wang Qishan and another CCP leader. To defame Guo Wengui and question the credibility of his revelations, the CCP government found some impersonates of Guan Juan, Liu Chengjie, and Sun

Yao and produced fake videos for broadcast on China Central Television (CCTV). They also fabricated a video to describe Guo Wengui as a rapist.

At the same time, the CCP government held court hearings of Guo's family members and employees and broadcast them on CCTV. They kidnapped Qu Guojiao, Guo's business partner in Hong Kong and made her disappear after asking her to confess her crimes on TV.

The CCP government has a strong force in the US to defame Guo Wengui, threatening his family, and doing everything they can to prevent him from whistle-blowing.

On April 19, 2017, the Chinese Ministry of Foreign Affairs confirmed that Interpol had been requested to issue a "red notice" for the arrest of Guo Wengui.

On April 19, 2017, Guo Wengui accepted a live interview with Voice of America and continued to accuse Wang Qishan of corruption. He claimed that in order to restore the freedom of his family and company employees, he accepted the order of Fu Zhenghua, Vice Minister of the Chinese Ministry of Public Security, to collect and investigate Hainan Airlines' capital flows.

The live broadcast expected to last for 3 hours was suddenly interrupted after about 80 minutes, triggering speculation that the Chinese government had inserted its pressure on the Voice of America. However, Amanda Bennett refused to acknowledge in the congressional investigation that it was subject to Chinese instructions.

In Guo's broadcast, Wang Qishan was accused to have a family member who was a shareholder of HNA Group, and that his family had many private properties in the US, including a luxury home worth more than $5 million in California. Latter the accusations were verified by several Chinese media. Wang Qishan has never made a public argument.

On May 29, 2017, Guo Wengui broadcasted live on YouTube that Wang Qishan controlled billions of financial resources, besides his overseas real estate assets and illegitimate children.

On June 16, 2017, Guo Wengui accepted the third live webcast interview of Mingjing's reporter Chen Xiaoping. The interview lasted more than four hours. Guo Wengui commented on the trial results of Pangu's so-called "fraudulent case", on the joint prosecution of nine Chinese companies in New York, the motives of the live broadcast, and his plan for a global press conference.

The most striking content of the interview was the disclosure of US citizenship and real estate assets of multiple relatives of Wang Qishan, the financial network, and affiliates of HNA Group, the identities of the main persons in charge of HNA and the bank account numbers and transaction records involved in the suspected corruption loans. Guo Wengui said that the total assets involved in the relevant people amounted to 20 trillion yuan.

On June 30, 2017, Guo Wengui revealed in a live-streaming video that many female movie stars including Fan Bingbing and Xu Qing were sexually connected with Wang Qishan. He said Wang Qishan also recorded a sex movie with 18 CD copies and he also saw part of it. This has sparked widespread attention.

On July 17, 2017, Guo Wengui was interviewed by Mingjing for the fourth time, and again he provided evidence of Wang Qishan's corruption and the involvement of his family. In addition to disclosure of the relationship between Chen Feng, Chairman of HNA Group, Chen Chao and Chen Xiaofeng, and their relatives Yao Qing and Wang Jian, he also disclosed their names, dates of birth, ID numbers and passport number. Disclosed also were their personal information, account balances of major banks at home and abroad, and direct or indirect holding company information. He further announced the addresses and ownership of the Wang Qishan family's many properties in the United States.

On October 4, 2017, a scheduled press briefing at Hudson Institute was canceled as a result of CCP interference. At about the same period, the Republican fundraiser Elliot Broidy was busy lobbying for the extradition of Guo to China. Elliot Broidy was later convicted.

On August 15, 2018, the Hong Kong judicial authorities released documents showing that the Hong Kong police had frozen the Guo Wengui family's assets of HK$32.9 billion, or US$4.2 billion, in the investigation of Guo Wengui's alleged money laundering case.

On October 12, 2018, the Intermediate People's Court of Dalian in Liaoning Province announced that Beijing Zenith Holdings Co., Ltd. was severely punished with a fine of RMB 60 billion for forced trading.

On November 20, 2018, Guo Wengui and former White House strategist Steve Bannon held a press conference on the death of Wang Jian and the truth behind HNA Group in New York. They announced the establishment of the rule of law fund with the first donation of 100 million US dollars from Guo Wengui, partly for rescuing entrepreneurs and officials who have been persecuted by the CCP.

The 11.20 Press Conference was a turning point in Guo's fight against the CCP. As Steve Bannon and Guo Wengui joined hands, US President Donald Trump and his Vice-president Mike Pence also started their decisive war against global communism, with targeted intelligence from Guo Wengui and his team. The Himalayas is just ahead of us.

"Whether I am rapist or criminal has nothing to do with the fact that Wang Qishan and other traitors have committed numerous crimes and brought about disasters to the Chinese people," Guo Wengui said, "Whether I have money or not has nothing to do with the fact that the CCP government is a vicious dictatorship and the most corrupt regime in the world".

We don't care whether Guo has done anything wrong in his past; we only care what he is doing right now for the well-being of the Chinese nation.

Chapter 2 The great mother who raised her son up as a dragon

Miles Kwok tells about his mother and his family stories

Do you know how my religious belief starts? -From my family, my mother, deep into my bones and blood.

I traveled overseas when I was quite young. I asked my father, "Daddy, I am traveling overseas. Do you have anything to tell me as a warning?"

My father looked at me for a little while and said slowly, "Who is your daddy?"

I said, "You are my daddy."

My father said, "Except me, who knows I am your father?" He continued, "When you are in a foreign country, people may ask where you are from. Tell them you are from China. China is your father. Your motherland is your daddy."

"Oh, sounds reasonable", said I, then still a kid less than 15 years old, "And who is my mother?"

"When overseas, no one knows who your mother is. They only guess what kind of people you are. Your skin color tells what kind of people you are. Yellow skin is your mother."

"My yellow skin?" At that time, I still could not tell the connection between my skin color and my country. But I truly remember the influence of these words in my life.

And I continued to ask my father what I should be careful with after leaving the country.

My father said, "After you leave the country, you must remember not to touch the government's money, not to touch the mafia's money. All the government's money belongs to the people, earned by sacrificing their lives; you shall never touch that. Mafia's money is earned by means of bleeding; never touch that dirty money! And remember! Never touch women with men, especially women of your friends, or women in your friend's family. A relationship with these women is the same as with your own mother." I have not been able to understand the reasons until many years later.

My mother had given birth to ten children, eight of us survived. We often went hungry: after breakfast, we didn't know whether we could have lunch. Still, my parents did not divorce each other. During the Cultural Revolution, my father was labeled a rightist and thus was persecuted. He was assigned to the northeast, to Zhaojiagou village of Hongqiling Town in Panshi County, Jilin province.

Most of the villagers were local migrants and deposed cadres. It was a remote village, but a very beautiful place. There was a mine site there, nickel, run by a company called Ji'en Nickel. My father was assigned as a laborer there.

Most employees in the company were from the army, or with a background in intelligence. There were foreigners as well. Because it was a nickel mine in a restricted military zone, and deep in the remote mountains, there were trains coming in from outside; there were excavators working underground, machines for transportation, all the most advanced equipment from the world over. That's why there were foreigners there, foreign technicians and experts, dressed in the most fashionable clothes and using the best tools.

That was the place where I was born and brought up, in the remotest mountain valleys, just as farmers, not doing any farming or plantation. My father and elder brothers were persecuted, their legs were broken when they were dragged through the streets for humiliating parades.

Under such circumstances, my mother brought up eight sons, fed our mouths and sent us to school. It was inconceivable. I hope one day, with permission from my family, I would play one piece of video recording how we once celebrated my parents' birthday, and how we talked in those days.

I can say that it was my mother who has made us what we are today. At least eighty percent of our accomplishments came from her hard work; my father takes only twenty percent.

My mother was a short lady, a bit over a meter and fifty. At Zhaojiagou village, we also raised goats and pigs. I remember sometimes she was out caring for the goats; it was a hard job for her to keep them under control. As a matter of fact, she was often dragged around by the goats. I hated to see her that way, but she insisted taking the job. At the end of the year, we would sell the goats to buy things for the Spring Festival: meat, salt, soy sauce, etc. She also raised chickens at home.

My mother had so many boys to take care of. She prepared three meals a day. We had a big wok to bake the big pies with everything mixing together. That was our best meals. Sometimes we had some vegetable soup. Without enough firewood, we went to pick up wet branches at the back mountains; even that was prohibited. That made lots of smoke; the whole kitchen was full of smoke when she cooked. That was really not easy.

That's my mother's image in my heart.

What are the relations among family members? In essence, a family is linked by a sexual relation. Because of the relation by the same blood, we have one generation after another. That relation is supernatural and tied up with trust and a spiritual power above religious beliefs.

At the core of a family is the mother, not the father. She is the creator of all kindness. She gives birth with kindness, raises her kids with a kindness and she is always ready to do more for them. After ten months of suffering, the mother is always ready to sacrifice all she has.

I set foot in society at the age of thirteen. One day, a friend invited me to meals at his home. At that time in Shandong, people were accustomed to taking orders from restaurants. We ate for a whole day, in the morning, at lunch, in the afternoon, and two times in the evening. A dish costs five or six yuan. We drank as we ate. I had no manners at the table.

Another time I was invited to dinner at a professor's home; he was the local schoolmaster. The head of the village had ordered the meal. I had no manners at the table.

At that time I lived with my uncle. He was serving the military. As he was single without marriage, my uncle adopted me as his son. The village master told him about my table manners.

When I was home, my uncle questioned me about the details. I told him how I had behaved. He picked up a hot dish of noodles and covered it onto my head. It was winter. The hot noodles burnt my neck with pain. To punish me, my uncle asked me to kneel on the floor, scolding me, "At the table, before the seniors move his chopsticks, never pick up your own! Aren't you educated as such? You are invited to the meal, ordered by others. Say hello to the seniors first! And ask them politely to enjoy the meal first. If they refuse, move the best food near them; leave the best seat for them. Say hello to all the elderly before you pick up your chopsticks!" I was then about ten. From that time on, I started to mind my manners.

My wife used to ask her parents: how should I get along with my husband? She was then very young and she wanted to know how to get along with my mother too. My mother-in-law was a beautiful lady with power; she served in the military. She told my young wife: "If you want to keep Wengui for life, never divorce, you need to do two things. First, never betray him; never let him lose face as all men want to have a face. Second and more important, be good to his parents. Is that simple?" My wife has kept these words all her life.

My wife has been with me in marriage for 32 years. She seldom walked outside, taking care of my parents daily with their two meals. My wife bought all the inner wear and socks for my parents, and made sure they took a comfortable bath. Most of the time, my parents have security guards, in addition to other servants. My wife won't come back home without sending my parents to bed comfortably. She was the best among all the women in my big family. And everyone learns after her. She not only cares for my parents but for my brothers as well. My parents have eight sons, no daughters; but she is their best daughter. Because of my wife, my family has lived always in harmony. I owe her a lot.

My son Guo Qiang and daughter Guo Mei have never said a dirty word since childhood. If someone tells me that my son and daughter have said a dirty word, I would let him whip on my face and accept all the punishment. My son and daughter have never been told a lie.

My son grew up in the UK at the age of thirteen and my daughter grew up in New York. When two children were in school, they had the Chinese flag hung on the wall of their dormitories. My patriotic education has caused them some trouble in school.

They never live with any kind of arrogance or lust. My son and daughter have many classmates as their friends. My son later wears a lot of famous brands and he is F1 driver license holder. My daughter never wears famous brands. She often wears clothes from discount stores.

I have a habit. When I travel to a new country, I would invite two to three locals who are dignitaries in culture, history, religion, and arts as my teachers. I pay them handsomely to let them teach me things because I did not have much education in China.

China's religion circles around the family. Through these connections with local dignitaries, I have met many high ranking officials in the western world. As a young man I have gained lots of support from these western politicians and successful businessmen. I met with those big families; many secret organizations want to join my circles.

All religions have come from the same source; the purpose is to let people have faith in them, to rely on them, and then to serve them. The nature of faith and service is the same in all religions. How they have convinced people to have faith in them and serve them? Spiritually, they claim to free you from fears. When we come to earth, what we fear most is death, then aging, then deteriorating health. The first purpose of religions is to free us spiritually from these fears. Through faith, you are given a future, to be reborn in paradise. Confucianism and Taoism emphasize more on our lifestyle and daily practice; spiritually they are not in too much detail as Christianity. But in nature, they are the same. All religions have three good points: to benefit others, to treat others well and to speak the truth. Apart from spiritual freedom, treating each other with kindness gives us a more peaceful life with less trouble.

I began to know the leadership of the United Arab Emirates more than a decade ago. There were two reasons for this. My son grew up in the UK. He had classmates from the UAE's royal family. Besides, I had known several leaders in the UAE National Sovereignty Fund. I met the UAE ambassador to China in 2002 or 2003. He is my friend and also a member of the royal family.

The royal families of three other countries in the Middle East also maintain a friendship with my family, and we have known each other for thirteen years or fifteen years.

There is also a China-Arab fund of US$3 billion. The Fund proposed by me was invested by the China Development Bank with 10 billion US dollars. I am only one of the investors in the China-Africa Fund.

When I meet with the VIPs, I use my language, my style, to speak my minds and let them understand my thoughts, let them feel that I am different.

It is sad that in today's China, most mothers are disappointed. It hurts me to know about a 28-year old mother called Yang Gailan. She committed suicide after killing all her four children. What a tragedy that was and what a decision she had made! And what courage she has! The incident of Luzhou, the tragedy of Lei Yang, the incident of Nie Shubin -- their mothers have suffered the most in all those tragedies. Look at those mothers and wives of the 709 lawyers -- they have left everything behind, for their men and children, fighting for justice and dignity under CCP brutality!

In today's society, entrepreneurs are moving their money out of the country; they have lost faith in the government; they live in fears. What I hope to achieve is to break through their liars. Everyone has their mouths shut because of fears, the intellectuals, the officials, the cultural celebrities, the businessmen. Because of your fears, the CCP villains have their hands into the lower part of the body of your wife and mother. Because my own mother and my own wife still live in fears, my heart feels the pain of needles.

Every minute or every second, I am facing life challenges. My faith and beliefs carry me along with these challenges. I must be firm with my determination to change China and bring peace of mind to Chinese mothers like mine.

Millions of Chinese mourn for the death of Miles Kwok's mother who passed away under CCP brutality

On Twitter, Youtube and other social media, millions of Chinese are sending condolences to Miles Kwok and his family, expressing their grief over the death of his great mother who passed away yesterday morning (7 March 2019) under communist brutality.

We are deeply sad when Chinese exiled billionaire Miles Kwok said in his tweets yesterday that his over-80-year-old mother had died of cerebral thrombosis in the hospital with grief after hearing of her son, the fifth brother of Miles Kwok, had been detained in prison and tortured by the Chinese Communist Party (CCP).

Miles Kwok announced that he would, according to tradition, mourn for her mother for three weeks during which he would not use a cell phone and stop his whistle blows on social media.

The great mother passed away at 7:17 am Friday morning at the emergency ward of the local hospital. Just hours after her death, Miles Kwok tweeted that his mother had lived under severe pressure as the evil Chinese police, parking a police car 24 hours daily outside her residence, harassing and threatening the whole family. The family had done their best to keep the old mother away from many tragic happenings as Miles brothers, brothers-in-law, and other family members were often arrested, released and arrested again by police with order from the state traitor Wang Qishan.

Miles said two days ago a little girl who was taking care of his mother carelessly made known to his mother about the detention of his fifth brother, which made the old mother cry for the whole day. She was often short of breath for lack of oxygen to the brain and suddenly collapsed with cerebral thrombosis.

Miles Kwok said a few times that the CCP had threatened to kill his whole family and tried many ways to cause them destruction. He said, "They not only killed my youngest brother...they still want to kill my elder brother, my mother, and all other family members. You have seen that they have used the power of the whole country to seize our assets, attempt to eliminate us, threaten us by phone calls many times...not just threatening, but taking actions!"

But Miles Kwok stressed that he would never surrender; he would never give up.

Steve Bannon, Mile's best warrior friend and former White House Strategist, dressed in black today, sent his condolences from Japan. He said the reason to be in black is to mourn for the death of Miles' mother. He once again accused Huawei of trying to control everyone's data and the CCP of its many cheats and crimes.

Sara wept with tears in her mourning while addressing the brothers and sisters on the internet, "Miles was so sad that he even made the dates wrong. We all grieve for Miles Kwok and his family. We are here to mourn for a great mother of the Chinese nation. She has raised for us such a courageous, upright and brave son with no fears! He is now fighting for the dignity and righteousness of the 1.4 billion Chinese people. He is fighting against the most vicious company of evils. He is leading us to victory. May our great mother rest in peace in heavens, have protection for Miles Kwok and his great mission! May we all, countless of warrior friends, be firm to follow Miles Kwok forward! We thank God to have sent us Miles Kwok. God bless Wengui! And God bless China!"

Lude tweeted in his Twitter account, "The great mother of Miles Kwok, shouldered with a mission from heavens, had come to earth to give birth to and raise a great man who is leading us to change the fate of 1.4 billion Chinese, and to bring freedom, peace, human dignity and democracy to the land of China, like Pangu creating the universe. Please join my mourning for the great mother of Miles Kwok!"

F. Isherwood tweeted, "This is another bloody debt Wang Qishan and other corrupt CCP officials own to the Chinese people".

Miles's Secretary Wang Yanping said, "I remember an early spring many years ago when I first accompanied Grand Auntie to Europe. I did not expect to say goodbye here to the dear old lady at such a time of early spring in 2019. All my colleagues have called the father and mother of Miles Kwok as Grand Uncle and Grand Auntie, and his brothers - eldest brother, second brother, fourth brother, fifth brother and sixth brother. The Grand Auntie in my memory was always clean and tidy with her clothes, favoring tiny shining ornaments like a little girl. She would call us by our names, smiling with her strong Shandong accent. Some of the names, she could not remember. But we have all become her children. Mr. Kwok said, since childhood, he had a feeling that without his mother, he would not be able to survive any longer. We all want to embrace him, this little child who just lost his mother. Mr, Kwok said, as a child, we must work even harder for all mothers in this world, for all mothers and their children so that they will never be forced to live in separation!"

Geng Yan tweeted, "Yesterday was the second day of February according to the lunar calendar, a day when the dragon lifts up its head. The old mother has fulfilled her mission; she has raised her son Miles Kwok up as a dragon!"

Lobsang Jinpa tweeted, "It was very sad news about it passes away Mr Guo Wenqui's mum. I am going to do prayers 3 times daily for her. I believe that God loves you forever and the majority Chinese people love you too great Guo mum. Peace- rest mum!"

Sheng Shijie commented: "The passing of Mother Kwok sent a giant wave of heartfelt sorrow throughout the world, although we don't even know her full name. No matter. Through her beloved son Miles, we get a glimpse of her beauty, her virtues, her strength, her love, and her faith... that our Chinese mothers symbolize. We only learned from the last less than two years from her beloved son that she gave birth to eight sons and she raised them with faith and kindness. We believe that Mr. Kwok embodies Mother Kwok's grace and spirit. We are all so grateful that she came in this critical moment in Chinese history. It is not a coincidence that I think of Ruth, that most beautiful and God-loving lady, whose journey of faith led to the blessing of God in her great great great grandson King David, through whom all the Israelites are blessed. Even in her last hours, Mother Kwok poured out her unceasing love for her sons in her tears... a mother's ultimate selfless act! Love is Mom. Mom is Love. And Love conquers all evil. May Mother Kwok rest in peace! May her memory give all of us solace and strengths in our journeys of faith, alongside her beloved son Mr. Miles Kwok! God bless!!"

Thank-you message from Miles Kwok to warrior friends mourning for his mother

Dear warrior friends,

We have collected daily the messages from warrior friends to mourn for the death of Mr. Kwok's mother or in her memory on Guo.media and other social media and arrange them well for Mr. Miles Kwok. Every time he heard about these messages, he shed tears of sadness.

Mr. Kwok and his family will continue to mourn for the old mother according to Chinese traditions for Three Seven Days, Four Seven Days, Five Seven Days, Seven Seven Days and One Hundred Days. Mr. Kwok has asked me to deliver his sincere thanks and gratitude to all warrior friends. The funeral of Mr. Kwok's mother has just ended in fullness. The old mother had chosen to leave her beloved family on February the second of the lunar calendar on which "the dragon lifts his head". It was also the March 8th International Women's Day. At 7:17 in the morning, she chose to leave behind the worries and memories and pass away in peace, in the most beautiful and perfect way, not to disturb others.

Although the old mother died of persecution of the Communist Party of China (CCP), she was lucky compared to Madam Yang Gailan. She was lucky compared to the mothers and fathers of millions of families who had been persecuted by the CCP in its political campaigns such as "anti-corruption with corruption, or anti-corruption by evil crimes". Mr. Kwok has always valued his mother's death in the same balance with the deaths of others, with a view to strengthening the efforts in his fights and his determination to take down the CCP. In the future, the only thing Mr. Kwok can report to his mother as a reward is the realization of the rule of law and religious freedom in China.

The past is the past, and the best memory of the old mother is how to face the present and the future. The old mother has won the wishes and prayers from millions of warrior friends, the gratitude and greatness are hard to be expressed in words. Mr. Kwok will fight to the end with his warrior friends until the realization of the Himalayas, the realization of an era in which no parents or families shall have fear, no parents shall pass away in worries or thinking of their children.

Dear warrior friends, we wouldn't live in a world in which only the parents of state traitors live with weird longevity by organ transplantation while sacrificing the lives of many ordinary people; a world in which our parents and family die young of fear, threats or worries and have their photos hung up on the walls. I hope that my family tragedy will bring about changes to all warrior friends so that they treat their parents with filial piety, with respect, with more accompany, so that each parent shall be healthy and happy in their old age. We don't want to see you weep, blame yourself or become helpless when looking at the hung-up photos of your dead parents.

Mr. Kwok would like to ask the favor of warrior friends to take good care of themselves and their parents, making sure that they are safe before taking part in the fight towards the Himalayas. In our fight against the CCP and to realize our mission, we must first protect our parents and family, unite in our efforts and be firm in our determination. From today on, please keep away from any discussion on the death of Mr. Kwok's mother on social media. The best memory and respect to the old mother is to continue fighting the CCP that had caused her to die of worries and fear. Mothers of all Chinese shall never again undergo such tragedy and fear.

Attention from the warrior friends has raised Mr. Kwok and his family with the honor of gratitude hard to explain in words. Dear warrior friends! To respect the privacy of the old mother and her long-cherished humble lifestyle as an ordinary person, and to satisfy the requests of her family, please stop all memorial activities of mourning from today on. And please accept the honorable respect from Mr. Kwok and his family by Three Kowtows and Nine Bows!

Message by Wang Yanping (Miles' secretary)

Chapter 3

Miles' whistle blows: From "preserve life, protect wealth, avenge" to Seven Principles

When Miles Kwok made his first appearance at an interview with Dr. Chen Xiaoping of Mingjing media on January 26 of 2017, he looked mature, handsome, and gentleman-like. His eloquence and excellence in reasoning instantly captivated the attention of thousands.

Dr. Chen asked his first question, "Many people think you are a mysterious billionaire; tell us about yourself?"

Miles Kwok said humbly, "I am not a mysterious person, nor am I a very rich man. I seldom made my appearance on media; I truly offended some reporters as I refused to be interviewed. Therefore there have been some negative reports about me; they even demonized me. In the past decade or so, I have lived with some sort of defamation and vilification. Actually, that helped me a lot too; I should thank them for doing those things against me."

Miles said most of the reports westerners read about him came from Ms. Hu Shuli of Caixin Global Media. Hu Shuli got some reporters from The Times. Without any face to face interview with Miles Kwok, they made up stories from the mouth of Ms. Hu, insulting Miles, his family members, and ancestors. They even have former UK Prime Minister Tony Blair involved in his relations.

"All the overseas media who met me said good things about Hu Shuli, saying that Ms. Hu Shuli wants the most to subvert the Communist Party. They said, Miles, you should be friendly with Hu Shuli. I want to ask the CCP Central Committee, what is the identity of Ms. Hu Shuli? What value does she have for the country to honor her as such? I saw all the silent power in overseas media have good relations with Ms. Hu Shuli. She is an anti-corruption hero domestically in China and an anti-communist hero overseas."

Miles said, "Hu Shuli was behind the reports of defamation. She was the evil doer. She is a criminal, a whore, and a liar. She has lots of collusion with corrupt CCP leaders. She has been ambitious and experienced in those kinds of dirty stuff. But I have tried not to get into disputes with her." Miles claimed she maintained an immoral relation with Li You, CEO of Founder Group of Peking University, and Wang Qishan, China's Vice President.

Miles said, "China has over a billion people and things are complicated there. I am only an ordinary person among them. In that society, it is better to live with a low key, as our ancient traditions have told us. But after I have sent Li You to jail, and Liu Zhihua, Deputy Mayor of Beijing, to jail, I can no longer say that I am not well-known. Some western friends say I am a very important figure in China politics. If I do not admit that, I would become more mysterious."

In this interview, Miles Kwok mainly accused Fu Zhenghua, Vice Minister of Public Security Ministry, of corruption and other crimes, in addition to the crimes of his former business partner

Liu You. He said in future he would expose the corruption and sex scandals of other high ranking CCP officials and he surely did.

On 15 May, Miles said, "No supervision on politics is the biggest corruption in China. China needs a systematic change. What I have exposed to the public is actually well-known, only not in so much detail. The Beijing Planning Commission and the Peking University, one representing the material part, one the spiritual part, are both rotten after taking pills made of dead human flesh. The whole city of Beijing is filled with evil and disgusting air!"

With his many years in property development in Beijing, Miles Kwok knows very well about the corruption in the real estate industry. He accused Huan Yan, head of Beijing City Planning Commission who holds the power of approving property projects, of bribery and sex scandals.

Miles said, "Why is Mr. Pan Shiyi's property in Beijing so profitable? Who gave him the land? He did so many projects. How was the land at the foot of the Great Wall approved? How was the floor area ratio taken? Why others can't get their projects approved, and only he can? Say the Jianwai SOHO project in the East Second Ring Road, what is the floor area ratio of the Galaxy SOHO? It's a dozen! For Jianwai SOHO, how many times did Huang Yan participate in the argumentation meetings? Have there been any secret deals behind these arguments? I have to tell people the truth."

Miles Kwok charged Mr. Pan Shiyi in his whistle blow, "As executive secretary of the Beijing City Planning Commission, Ms. Huang Yan, you have called her a naive girl, Mr. Pan. How dare you say that! She invited you for a meal, just one meal, and your floor ratio went up from 1 to 5. She has given you a great kiss on your face!"

Miles said Wang Qishan was the king behind all these secret deals. The meetings of Pan Shiyi and Huang Yan were mostly arranged by Zhou Liang, secretary of Wang Qishan. With instructions from Wang, Huang Yan approved those floor ratios. Miles said he could show evidence as proof of their crimes.

Miles added, "Ms. Huang Yan's husband is developing real estate in Beijing; the whole Beijing knows. Her husband's properties are in tens of millions of square meters, making 10,000 yuan a square meter. How much that in total? Ten billion yuan- I guess. Did you say that the naive Huang Yan's pure little hands touched your face during the meal and then your floor ratios are increased?"

As Miles Kwok brought up the case of Li You, he attacked the leadership of Peking University of their scandals.

"Peking University is corrupt. The purpose of its education is to raise its business connectors, not for the future benefits of the nation. Who can save the Chinese nation? I have documents of over 3000 pages about their corruption. The stocks of Founder Group and Peking University Pharmaceuticals were given to members of the CCP leadership as gifts, in huge numbers. One of the Politburo members brought his old mother to Li You's office, asking for ten million shares when Li You offered them only five million. When Peking University is doing such dirty things, do you think there is a way out for the ordinary Chinese?"

His revelations about corruption and scandals within China's legal system shocked many people. Miles said the purpose of his whistle blow is "to save his own life, to protect his own wealth and to avenge." This is the first time he made the famous statement "Everything is just beginning".

"One of the Politburo standing members told me: Wengui, you must have confidence. Chinese people are honest. History is a mirror; one day they will have revenge. This day must come!"

Miles Kwok talked about CCP's corruption in Hong Kong. He said, "Don't treat the people as fools, I am fed up. Look at the state traitors, immoral real estate developers, and those people in Hong Kong who take the people as pigs, to be fools."

Miles gave an example. "There are more than 60 mainland buyers in the Arch of Hong Kong, including the Deputy Minister Ma Jian's colleagues. Let us not forget that when Ma Jian was the deputy minister, he was in charge of Hong Kong, Macao, and Taiwan affairs. Every time he went to Hong Kong, local police provided security to his activities. For dozens of times we arranged transportation for his activities in Hong Kong, Macao, and Taiwan."

Miles said after Ma Jian was arrested, Chinese police searched his office apartment in the Arch for at least 20 times, opened the safe, and took away the gold and silver jewelry, the documents, including a lot of cash in the room.

He described, "From 2008 to May 2010, I witnessed law enforcement by Chinese police in Hong Kong, for over a thousand times. They went into the banks to seize customer information, or to local government departments to obtain property information. They brutally broke into private houses in Hong Kong, searching the rooms, taking away articles and documents, and transferring the ownership of thousands of properties into the so-called investigation team. "

"They took away truck-loads of antique calligraphy pieces, paintings, jewels, famous wines, diamonds, watches, etc. Does the Hong Kong government know about this? Does the Hong Kong Police know about this? Does this accord to the Basic Law of Hong Kong?"

Miles said CCP officials are reckless in Hong Kong. Once, a man of a wealthy Hong Kong family was caught for a serious crime. A CCP Politburo member made a phone call to the Hong Kong government for his release. That was a big case at that time. Another rich man was arrested in the mainland for storing several kilos of drugs; he was also released by one telephone call from a Politburo member. A Hong Kong billionaire kept a second wife in Shenzhen, and again he was one day out for a virgin. The little girl was almost beaten to death in a group fight. He was arrested together with dozens of his men. A Politburo member called again and he was released. I want to raise this question: what are the relations between those Hong Kong billionaires and high ranking CCP officials.

Miles Kwok said that for a whole decade, the CCP government had the policy for Hong Kong called “control by corruption, control by sex, control by money, and control by confusion”. They want to control Hong Kong’s rich businessmen and officials by documenting their crimes in corruption and their sex scandals as nearly all of them have business transactions and go for fun in the mainland. They confuse public opinions by spreading lots of rumors in Hong Kong.

“Hong Kong's property prices have risen year by year in the past decades. All Hong Kong's financial institutions have business transactions in the mainland. Businessmen in these areas have become the targets for kidnapping by the CCP government. This is well-known in media circles. “

“That was an early policy. The CCP exercises full control on all the bosses and Hong Kong’s economy. That policy is fully implemented in Hong Kong, sealing up your mouth, covering your eyes, and stuffing your ears. This is a policy that everyone knows. Whoever dares to stand up and tell the truth will be punished.”

Miles urged the 7 million people in Hong Kong to wake up. And he warned the present Hong Kong government and its officials, “You know what you have done for Hong Kong these years!”

Miles said before he made up his mind to stand up to reveal the corruption and other scandals of the CCP leadership, he had made preparations for a long time and he had professional teams working in different countries to collect evidence of related scandals.

He said on 6 May 2017 in his “Say Hello” webcast, “Our team in Australia has worked for a full year, collecting DNAs of dozens of people (illegitimate children of CCP officials), with medical verification of legal significance. The team made records of their addresses, financial transactions, social relations, phone call communications, voice records, mails, and DNA documents. Back to the US, his team makes effective legal verification of the evidence, together with detailed bank account records. The persons concerned can never deny facing these facts.”

Miles has revealed to the world audience that he is now an experienced secret agent. He said, “Many years ago, the State Security Ministry and the International Liaison Department have talked to me, asking me to work for them with intelligence. I refused. I only want to be a messenger in international relations. I want to promote the rule of law in China. I dream of traveling across the world with government permission, pure and clear of my body and soul at the time of departures. I don’t want to see China in turmoil”.

Miles Kwok also told about many Ponzi schemes in China, like Fanya scandal, Ezubao P2P scandal, Infant Formula scandal, the Vaccine scandal, etc that have brought about disasters to the Chinese people, and have given rise to social turmoil.

Miles defended his whistle blows, “I want to stress that I will never support anyone who wants to mess up things and drive the country into chaos. If the country is in chaos, the people will suffer and we are all finished. That will be the sorrow of the nation and the tragedy of the country. I reiterate once again that this is not my purpose.”

In a new or so, Miles has targeted over a hundred CCP officials and national celebrities. Tactically, Miles Kwok put forth his Seven Principles at the primary stage of his whistle blows: against governance by corruption, against governance by police, against anti-corruption by evil means, against anti-corruption by corruption; not against the Chinese nation, not against the Chinese people, and not against President Xi.

To stop Miles Kwok from continuous blows, the CCP leadership, in the name of the country, mobilized all forces home and abroad to make him shut his mouth.

They planned to make agreements with small countries that had issued passports to Miles Kwok to extradite him back to China by accusing him of fake crimes.

They used public relations companies, investigation companies, private detectives, hackers, and mafia organizations, trying to get Miles Kwok into trouble. Some of these people came near Miles' residence in New York, searching for information and trying to force Miles into passive violations. They offered a bounty in the US to get Miles into criminal cases or sex scandals so that the local police would interfere.

They made up documents, fabricated business transaction records, opened fake bank accounts in Miles' name, and transferred property ownership to his name so that Miles would be charged with economic violations.

They used the national media to defame Miles Kwok, directing public opinion and trying to label him an enemy of the nation.

They offered remarkable deals to foreign governments with huge financial interests in mineral and construction projects so that they could cooperate in helping to get Miles Kwok first to a third country outside the US, and finally get him back to China.

They also have assassination plans to kill Miles Kwok in the US by all means. Miles said, “I am prepared to die, but I have no fear. If my death could bring about a revolution in China, I would be happy to die for it.”

But Wang Qishan and other CCP dictators all failed in their attempts. Miles Kwok was getting tougher and tougher. He was winning more and more supporters daily. In less than three months, his videos received one billion views, nearly half a million views for a single video daily. Only in Hong Kong, over 1.7 million people watched his broadcast every day. In spite of the blockage of the Great Firewall, over 100 million people were watching those broadcast transferred underground from Hong Kong.

Everything that has happened or will happen to Miles Kwok is no longer a personal thing.

Tycoon Miles Kwok is stripping off the Emperor's New Clothes

Armed with his Twitter and YouTube accounts and a collection of corruption allegations against top Party, business, and media leaders in China, Chinese businessman Miles Kwok has for months been engaged in a heated publicity battle with communist Beijing.

On his "all is well" video yesterday, Miles highlighted his efforts with his global teams to break through the Great Wall blockage in China and progress made in recent weeks.

The latest whistle blow early this month was evidence revelation of more properties of Wang Qishan's relatives in the United States.

On June 16, Mingjing News streamed a new interview with Guo, in which he let loose more explosive (but largely unverified) accusations, most aimed at corruption czar Wang Qishan and his wife, Yao Mingshan (Bill Bishop summarized these in his June 19 Sinocism newsletter). Both the Mingjing website and YouTube were very difficult to access for part of the interview broadcast, leading to speculation that they had been hacked to prevent his allegations from being heard.

On April 19, Voice of America cut short a live interview with Miles — and subsequently, put five of its own journalists on administrative leave. "I suspect somebody caved into the Chinese government's demand because the timing itself was very suspicious," one of those journalists, Mandarin Service Chief Sasha Gong.

Over 4 months before, Miles Kwok, the self-made Chinese billionaire, has begun revealing extraordinary, sordid claims about sexual, political, monetary and asset corruption at high levels in his homeland. "Our team in Australia has already worked on this for about a year. We've got around several dozen people's DNA. And they're undergoing a valid, legally valid medical inspection. And we have obtained records of their addresses, the movement of their wealth, and their social connections." Miles said at an interview, asserting that he has stripped off the coverings of the Communist Party and its top officials so that people smell their stinking bindings.

New York Times has dubbed internet sensation Miles Kwok "the biggest political story in China this year."

It was this special background and experience, according to Liang Jing, and especially this special process of 'enlightenment', that allowed an insignificant member of the 'ant tribe' to become a 'world citizen', who today dares challenge the highest authorities of the CCP. Miles' elite patrons of that time couldn't have imagined such a result, because their 'enlightening' him stemmed from their own values and interests, without political designs.

A further important factor in Miles Kwok's ability to stir up the political situation in China in 2017 is that the regime seriously underestimated him: not only his political courage but his political intelligence as well.

Two radical female figures Miles repeatedly accused were Ms. Huang Yan, a former Beijing planning commission chief and now a deputy minister at the housing ministry, and Ms. Hu Shuli, the prominent Chinese journalist and founder of Caixin Media.

Miles has accused Huang of corruption and sex scandals with her superior officials. Miles and Caixin's chief editor Hu Shuli have a history as adversaries. Miles has accused Hu of extortion, saying on his Facebook account that he would reveal details of a conspiracy involving Hu's wealth and cooperation between Caixin and China's National Security Department. Hu denies these allegations, as well as Miles' other claims against her. Miles has said he has documents and recordings of conversations that support his accusations against Hu. Both women have responded with lawsuits in New York.

Another major target, HNA Group, the Chinese conglomerate that has conducted an international deal spree, sued wealthy Chinese businessman Miles Kwok for defamation. Among his allegations, Miles has made claims that Chinese political officials and their families have undisclosed ownership in HNA Group, which has become a global force and the biggest shareholder of Deutsche Bank and Hilton Worldwide Holdings.

The 19th National Congress of the CCP will be held in Beijing in the autumn of 2017 and there are speculations that 69-year-old Wang Qishan would remain a key figure in the standing committee of the party's politburo. It's been a headache for him to try to distract the attention of national viewers.

News and information about Miles Kwok are strictly censored in China, though official media outlets have published stories accusing Miles of bribery, fraud, and rape. However, the comment sections on these news websites have been disabled.

Seen as a linked incident, more Chinese finance big-dealers were scrutinized last week. Anbang Insurance Group announced that its chairman Wu Xiaohui has temporarily stepped down due to "personal reasons." The announcement came following domestic media reports that Wu was detained by authorities on Friday in Beijing and taken in for questioning. Wu's detention comes amid a broader crackdown on corruption and an effort by central authorities to discipline the financial industry.

Early, another well-connected business tycoon, Xiao Jianhua, was abducted from his hotel room in Hong Kong and is believed to be currently undergoing questioning by investigators in China.

Repeatedly, Miles is holding back promised evidence in order to "let the bullets fly for a while." He said he has a three-year plan, and "everything is just beginning."

The supportive responses to Miles show that while Zhongnanhai regards the man as a villain, his followers outside of the Great Firewall are seeing him as more and more of a hero capable of taking on the CCP and appear to have faith that he can back up his allegations against top Party leaders.

John Lee says in his Twitter: Mr. Kwok, from Day One of your leaks you and the CCP no longer had an “internal problem,” and there’s no “internal” plan to solve this. The CCP sees you as a malignant “cancer” growing inside the system, and they have to eliminate you, and fast.

Mingjing News Director He Pin said the Communist Party has no future, and Mr. Guo is only one of the fighters to dig a tomb for it. Yuan Hongbing, exiled former Beijing University law professor and classmate of Chinese Premier Li Keqiang, defended Miles, saying that he “sees injustice on the road and draws his sword to help the victim”.

Will Guo’s phenomenon take the Chinese Communist Party to the verge of collapse?

It’s no surprise that those revelations of wrongdoing among politburo and law enforcement elite have captured the attention of tens of millions of Chinese citizens. Millions of his followers on Chinese social media apps have been forced to resort to covert retweets, avoiding detection by constantly creating new word variations.

Miles says, “Who has bought the most land in Xiongan New Area? Is the plan of Xiongan really that confidential? Why China’s properties are becoming so expensive? Why it becomes harder and harder for people to buy property? I have mentioned that China’s corruptions are mainly in the financial field, the stock market and real estate”.

Miles’ case offers a glimpse of the troubling future to come. The Great Firewall will get ever smarter as Beijing adds artificial intelligence (AI) to its political toolbox, something experts say is imminent. At present, the application of AI can only be done with troves of big data, but in China, such information is already entirely in the hands of those in power.

According to Hong Kong Next Weekly’s Interview remarks, “Guo Wengui is a legend. He is also an exceedingly difficult person. Only Guo Wengui is able to cause a headache for the entire CCP Politburo Standing Committee; prompt Interpol to issue a “Red Arrest Notice”; and furthermore impel the Foreign Ministry to pressure U.S. congress, cut off his exposé program on Voice of America, and turn all of the state’s power on him alone.”

His stories tell that the Emperor’s new clothes are fake.

Chapter 4

Miles Kwok talks about the corruption and sex scandals of CCDI Secretary Wang Qishan

In recent days, never before, some giant financiers from the west – you must have known by their names- made secret appointments with me, not in my house, but outside. They all asked me one big question.

Let me count, five or six of them, all supermen, including a former head of state. This former head of state came for a meal in my house and asked the same question.

What is it? “How Mr. Wang Qishan has offended you? When did you become an enemy of him?”

Yesterday when I came home, I sorted things out and made this conclusion: there is no hatred between me and Secretary Wang Qishan; he was not my enemy.

“But why you expose his affairs as such?” They questioned me.

I explained, “There has been a misunderstanding here. It started from Mr. Liu Zhihua, Deputy Mayor of Beijing. In the investigation of his case, Ma Jian, Deputy Minister of State Security Ministry, Meng Huiqing, Ma Wen, Minister of Supervisory Ministry, and department chiefs Gao Hui and Man Yongping – these officials were all participators. When they looked into the case of Liu Zhihua, they found corruption evidence of Wang Qishan, then mayor of Beijing. After Liu Zhihua was convicted, Wang Qishan thought I had also participated in the investigations”.

I said, “I really did not take part in the investigations”. There was a misunderstanding there.

After Wang Qishan was promoted to General Secretary of the Central Discipline Inspection Commission (CCDI), he ordered the arrest of all the above participators. Wang found that many of these officials had kept devastating evidence about his corruption and scandals. It was said that Meng Huiqing kept 18 videos and 21 USBs, and Ma Jian also kept many videos about Wang’s scandals. Before Gao Hui was executed, he told me about the information he had obtained. This is why I was involved in his case. As a result, Wang Qishan arrested all my family members and froze all my assets in China. In the name of the country, Wang Qishan attacked my whole family. Thus he became my enemy now.

These people have all come for my favor, saying “Miles, could you reconcile with Mr. Wang Qishan? Do you need our help in this regard?”

One of these people, a foreign government leader who just arrived in Beijing yesterday asked me before his departure, “Miles, I can bring a message for Wang Qishan if you want”.

I instantly refused their help. I have learned too much about Wang Qishan, his personalities. All his promises are just delaying tactics.

In August 2015, Hu Shuli wrote a negative news report about me. After that, Boxun Media wrote a follow-up report telling “According to Miles Kwok, Wang Qishan and Hu Shuli had an illegitimate child.” I had said they have an immoral relation; I never said they have an illegitimate child.

After this report was out, Wang Qishan contacted Zhang Mao, Director of State Industrial and Commercial Administration and an old friend of Wang’s family.

Zhang Mao sent out a message, “Wang contacted me. He said Miles Kwok is the son of a bitch, spreading rumors about his sexual relationship with Hu Shuli. I have talked to Police Minister Guo Shengkun, asking him to get that son of a bitch back. Tell him to shut up and never tell about Wang again!”

When I heard of this, I fought back with these words, “I have never said that Mr. Wang Qishan and Ms. Hu Shuli have an illegitimate child. He told Minister Guo Shengkun to get me back. Do come! Wang Qishan has never stopped his evils!”

I am going to tell that the relation between Wang and Hu is “use and being used”. Ms. Hu Shuli has an evil heart, worse than any woman in the world. With many years of experience, I have found that although China is a great country, all its leaders are fighting each other daily. Many may have thought of the state administration to be great, powerful, and capable with some sort of holiness. But when you come closer, you will find within that system endless internal strife, wrangling, mutual suspicion, and contradiction. This is also one of the reasons for political struggle within the communist party. They shall never achieve any great mission.

Take the example of Hu Shuli. Because she is a good friend of Wang Qishan, no one dares to speak loud in front of her. There are too many lackeys in China, especially in the political circle. Most of CCP officials are lackeys. No one dares to tell the truth. That also brings disasters to Secretary Wang Qishan.

Wang Qishan is a person with great ambitions. He is not just working for money; he has political ambitions. Because of him, the country is in great danger.

Because Wang Qishan and other state traitors are kidnapping the nation, they need stronger firewalls; they need more policemen. China is ruled by evil police; it is ruled by a dictatorship. With the eunuchs and traitors running the administration, the future of the younger generations of ordinary Chinese has been tied up to a battle vehicle driven into an era of darkness. For grass root Chinese, there is no future; tomorrow’s sun will not rise for them.

When we look back – since I started my first whistle blow, who was the first to defame me? They were Hu Shuli, Pan Shiyi, Huangyan, Yue Wenhai, and the police. Chinese hackers attacked the US. They hacked my networks, my cell phones, my Twitter accounts, etc. They did everything they could to defame me. They have used state powers to attack a single individual. Who is the boss behind these attacks?

Days ago Reuters publicized another report about my relation with Tony Blair, citing the words of Hu Shuli. I want to ask all Chinese: in the past five years, many people have scolded President Xi Jinping in the dirtiest words; have you ever heard of anyone scolding Secretary Wang Qishan? Never!

Is Mr. Wang Qishan really a great man? Isn't he a corrupt official? Is he a sage without any dust? Does he have any sex scandals? Is he the only pure clean man while others are all rapists? Is he a virgin? The whole nation knows he is childless; does that mean he lost his productive ability since youth? Do you think he is not corrupt because he is childless?

Just think, why no person has scolded Wang Qishan? Why the scolds all go to President Xi? Even in the United States of America, the country on earth with the most freedom, no one has ever scolded Wang Qishan. In 2015, Wang Qishan said publicly, "I Wang Qishan has never put any official into jail. None! What the hell has anything to do with me?"

Who did that, please? It was President Xi or Secretary Meng Jianzhu. The whole nation, the whole world, the universe, even China's satellites in space – know that Wang Qishan is a sage, dustless, purified. He is the Buddha reborn. He has no sons, no daughters, and no women. He is a great firefighter.

If we look back five years, or ten, we shall see who have directed the drama to make Wang Qishan into a God and thus have deceived the whole world.

Wang's media network is global, 7/24. Many Americans asked me, many British asked me, how could he be so resourceful to make the world's mainstream media speak in his favor? That never happens in human history. Anyone in his position would be accused a hundred times of scandals or at least 50% of the population. He has none, no scandals at all. How he has built such a reputation!

All reporters I met have asked me the same question, "Why Wang Qishan is recognized by the global media as the cleanest official in China?" I said that's simple. He has Ms. Hu Shuli, numerous interests groups in the world, and western politicians as his close friends. They have secret deals under the table. The only securities company in Hainan province is named Goldman Sachs Gaohua, its president being Wang Qishan's family member. When he was in charge of the financial sector, Wang gave the financial license to those western financiers. Wang made secret deals with them and maintains a complicated relationship with the west.

I want to charge Secretary Wang Qishan, "How many illegitimate children have you got? Dare you stand out in a face to face talk with me? Dare you have a DNA test in front of the Chinese people?"

In one of my tweets, I said these words, "Wang Qishan, if I was not able to check down your corruption of no less than two trillion yuan, I Guo Wengui would jump off the building here!"

Because of this, Wang Qishan and his people are doing all they can to get me and arrest people who have a relationship with me.

Wang has people in the American government lobbying for my extradition by way of United Arab Emirates. They have planned how to tie me to a cargo ship and then transport me to China. They have planned to get some woman to run into me in New York Streets so that she could charge me of sexual harassment. They even have colluded with local police in order to shut me up. They have planned to place drugs in my house so that I could be charged of a similar offense.

In diplomacy, they want to make a deal with the Trump Administration. Before the Trump-Xi summit, six work teams from China have visited the US for trade negotiation and other cooperation. The teams all raised the question of my extradition during their visits to Washington. Some US officials also tried to fool them around with conditions. The CCP offered a huge price for my extradition; they would sell the whole country to get me back.

Many US officials have told me the secret deals the CCP officials wanted to make with Washington. I would disclose some of the details in the future.

China's financial assets amount to 180 trillion yuan, mostly under the control of Wang Qishan. I am not telling that he owns those assets. He has the power to control and influence the use of those assets. How much is actually owned by Wang Qishan and his family besides the two trillion under HNA Group? I can help you to check that out. The two trillion yuan of loan for HNA Group will finally become non-performing assets that go into JIC Group under Wang's absolute control. JIC will then transfer the assets to HNA and thus take the cash away. In the past twenty years, JIC has managed 50 trillion yuan of non-performing assets. The country's non-performing assets are all managed by a black-box operation, following instructions from Wang Qishan. Two years ago, Wang Qishan changed JIC into a privately owned enterprise, naming his family member Yao Qing as the shareholder. The company was registered in May 2016.

Why Wang Qishan needs so much money? As far as I know, the illegitimate children of Wang Qishan are all very young and outstanding in their professions. Wang's family has over one hundred properties in western countries. Compared to Bo Xilai, Wang Qishan should have been sentenced to life imprisonment a hundred times. Wang needs this wealth as all his illegitimate children are so young and well-educated.

Not only does Wang Qishan want to control that much wealth, but he wants to control the world's media too. He has the world-class political elites behind him, including the Freemasonry in the US and the Skull and Bones at Yale University. He has a media network out of the CCP leadership's control, a world-class network.

So he has a strong political network, a strong media network, a strong economic alliance, and strong mafia-like secret forces. They have formed into a group of mutual interests with assets of trillions of dollars. And he has that many illegitimate children to manage that in the future. Why is he so ambitious? What are their goals?

The 1.4 billion Chinese people have been forced to shut their mouths, close their eyes, and stuff their ears while waiting for your raping and kidnapping. They won't always be like this. Chinese Ministry of Foreign Affairs and the Ministry of Education have changed our young children into stupid people and into flunkies fed by your meatballs made of human flesh. China's Foreign Ministry has become a treasonous department only good at deceiving ordinary people. China's police, procuratorate, and people's courts are all holding their guns, forcing the ordinary to kneel down. Can this situation go on forever?

As the key leader in the anti-corruption campaign, Mr. Wang Qishan makes it a criminal offense if a party member is invited for a meal. He makes it an offense for an ordinary farmer to sell his small amount of noodles on the streets. Tens of thousands of party members were punished with discipline inspection. Over 9.6 million people were persecuted by Wang Qishan, leaving behind their broken families. But what is the nationality of Wang Qishan's wife? Wang has made his wife Yao Mingshan an American citizen. Mr. Wang Qishan, dare you to say that your wife is not an American citizen? If you say NO, I will stop my whistle blows right from here today!

Only because of the fact that Wang's wife is an American citizen, he should not have been promoted as General Secretary of the Central Commission of Discipline Inspection or he should not be a member of the central leadership. Wang's family holds assets of nearly one trillion yuan. For this reason, he should have been sentenced to imprisonment. He has deceived the CCP by having several illegitimate children. He has engaged in financial frauds by transferring trillions of state-owned non-performing assets into private accounts. He has made profits for his family by making use of his official positions. For these reasons, he should have been jailed.

Wang Qishan must face jail terms. Otherwise, 1.4 billion Chinese people and even the Chinese Communist Party would one day bring him to justice.

I want to reveal another scandal of Wang Qishan.

Do you know the Boeing 787 airplane owned by HNA Group? HNA bought that for Wang Qishan's family alone. After I exposed this last time, they said it was a commercial flight for lease. They have once again fooled the whole people around. That airplane costs 300-400 million US dollars, the travel cost per hour is 60 thousand US dollars. Who could afford that? Who dares to lease that airplane? After one flight, he might be put into jail instantly by Wang Qishan.

They said that is a charter flight for private hire. That might be an idea by some leader in Beijing. Or it may be just Wang Qishan's own idea. 60 thousand US dollars for private hire from Hong Kong to Sanya, with a hotel voucher for three nights. I have checked their flight records – those records can never be changed. They are insulting our IQ, twitter friends, you know? They said it is for private hire. But who are the customers? What are their advertisements? Do you have a contact telephone number or a website for public bookings?

Let me tell you. That Boeing 787 is the only one of its type in the world. The purchase of this Boeing 787 coincided with the promotion of Wang Qishan to the post of General Secretary of CCDI, inconsistent with the period when HNA's assets increased by 20 trillion times. And I am showing you the documents here as evidence.

Information about this Boeing 787 can be checked on the internet. A US company has provided me all the technical information and related evidence that Boeing had built this airplane for HNA. Internal decoration was completed by this company which I have a business contact for 18 years. The company also furnished my private jets. I have followed the whole process of furnishing of this Boeing 787 since it was taken out from Boeing's production factory.

The interior design of this aircraft is unique. One of the very special features is a place particularly designed for Yao Mingshan's smoking. It has a special exhaust system because Ms. Yao Mingshan is a heavy smoker, same as her husband Wang Qishan. There are super-class bedrooms respectively for Yao Qing, Yao Mingshan, and Wang Qishan, first-class bedrooms for Chen Feng and other HNA executives, and then other bedrooms for flight attendants. A private toilet was designed for Wang Qishan and Yao Mingshan, together with private sofa seats and a huge TV. Even the beddings and kitchen utensils were selected by Ms. Yao Mingshan. With these special designs and features, it makes no sense to say that the aircraft is for commercial hire.

And do you know that lots of scandalous things happened onboard the Boeing 787? I am telling you one example. Several men slept with a girl model here. The girl model was hospitalized for months with obstructive shock during the sexual intercourse with these men. Another time, a girl was raped in the aircraft. They gave her one million yuan, but the middle man took away 400 thousand.

Of Wang's scandals, we have a focus on his relationship with HNA Group. Who factually owns HNA Group? Why during Wang's administration HNA's wealth has grown from 10 million yuan to one billion, and then to 20 trillion? Could you tell your relation with the Boeing 787? Who is the shareholder Guan Jun? And who is Yao Qing, Liu Chengjie, and Sun Yao?

Judged by John Locke's theory, the Chinese people should stand up for revolution as their government has a corrupt official like Wang Qishan. The cowardice, persistence, and gratitude of the Chinese people have been used by the traitors as their weapons.

Inside the CCP leadership, how many corrupt officials are there like Wang Qishan? How many in each provincial government? How many in every city, every town? Chinese people have hated the "chengguan" (City administration officers) a lot, but these minor officers could never take bribery in such huge amounts. Who have bought all the luxurious properties in the US, Canada, Australia, Japan, Singapore, or Hong Kong? Are they ordinary Chinese? Are they Chinese taxi drivers or construction workers? They are the state traitors and corrupt CCP officials. In China, they have pushed the property prices sky-high, like in the case of city planning official Ms. Huang Yan and real estate developer Mr. Pan Shiyi. They steal people's money and take the money out of the country. If you are private entrepreneurs with some money, they would try to catch you and take your money by all kinds of charges. How can the ordinary Chinese people live under their corrupt governance?

Ordinary Chinese people are not safe overseas either. The CCP dictatorship would grab you home with the Interpol “red notice”. If you are in Hong Kong, they would kidnap you and take your assets, like in my case. They not only deal with you; they would deal with your whole family, in the name of the people, in the name of the law. CCP is a terrorist organization, worse than ISIS. And Wang Qishan is the leader.

Mr. Wang Qishan, with your so-called bureaucratic arrogance and arrogance with power, you have looked down upon the ordinary Chinese people as pigs. You have claimed, “Even in another hundred years, the ordinary Chinese people won’t be enlightened. They must be ruled with propaganda and whips. Are these your original words, Mr. Wang?”

Yesterday I watched the video again about Wang Qishan caring about poverty alleviation. That was ridiculous. Mr. Wang Qishan, with the money paid for the petrol use in your Boeing 787 for one single hour, you can save half of China from poverty. China has about 20 million people living under the poverty line; 50 billion is enough to help them out of poverty. That is only a small amount of HNA’s assets, or Great Wall Capital, or JIC Investment, or Xinhua Insurance. Your family member Yao Qing has dozens of cash accounts in the Bank of China. A small portion of his cash is enough to save the whole China out of poverty.

With your discipline inspection, none of the other CCP members dares to eat outside or send gifts to friends, but you have taken away all the cash in Chinese banks. You have prohibited all Party members and Chinese nationals from travelling freely overseas, but all your family members hold foreign passports. You have restricted car purchase for all CCP departments, but you have bought a Boeing 787 for yourself.

And about your sex life, Mr. Wang Qishan – in the past decades, you have slept other people’s wives, wives of many of your friends, movie stars, and women of all ages. Putting aside your sex scandals, you have charged all members of the CCP party of prostitution and whoring.

A former top military advisor said, “Wang Qishan was sent by God to punish the CCP!” I completely changed my negative view about him after hearing these words. This military advisor was right. But I want to add that “Wang Qishan was sent by demons to suck the people’s blood”.

Chapter 5

Press Conference on the Death of Wang Jian and the Truth Behind HNA Group

Opening remarks by Miles Kwok at the Press Conference

First of all, let me extend my gratitude to Steven Bannon for his arrival on this special day. He is a man of great courage; he is facing great risks, for China's freedom and democracy, the rule of law, and the peace of humanity. I hereby express my sincere thanks. (Applaud)

I would also like to thank the attendance of all journalists and my fellow warrior friends from around the world. (Applaud)

Today is a very special day. This is not just an ordinary press conference or press briefing, because all attendants here are facing threats today for their participation. This threat may exist against any single one in the world, including every individual sitting here today.

Years or dozens of years ago, no one would imagine that he might be killed by holding a press conference in New York of the United States, his hotel reservation would be canceled. No one would imagine that these journalists will be threatened by phone calls from the Chinese Embassy, refused a visa or have their visas canceled so that they will not be able to attend this press conference.

Tens of Millions of netizens on social media are worried about their own lives, murdered or have their computers broken down by hackers. What is the difference from the time of Hitler 1927-1932? This is the core reason why we are holding his press conference here today.

Today, when we look at this screen, with these words printed out here, you may not have imagined that this is the result of many times of re-write and dozens of improvement by my legal team and the legal team of Steven Bannon.

Why? The US is a society with the rule of law. The US is a society for telling the truth. The US is a society of equal rights. But every single word on this screen would not be allowed to make its appearance in the world's second-biggest economy-China.

Why? Because there is a totalitarian party there- the Communist Party of China (CCP). It has kidnapped the 1.4 billion people; it has put one million Xinjiang Muslims into re-education camps. Every time, every moment, even at this time of my speech, some people there have just lost his freedom, or disappeared, or lost contact with their families. This is another more important reason why I am standing here.

Let's start now. My speech is here today, to show you on this screen, every single person who makes his appearance here: they are China's elites, either high ranking officials or entrepreneurs, including the most noted actress Ms Fan Bingbing, Chairman of the largest petrol company Ye Jianming, the world's largest NGO Interpol President Meng Hongwei who had issued a "Red Notice" for my arrest, head of the largest Chinese company listed in the US Jack Ma of (Alibaba), one of the internet giants JD.com chairman (Liu Qiangdong), former internet tsar Lu Wei, several high-ranking officials of China's Central Military Commission Zhang Yang, Xu Caihou, and Guo Boxiong, Wu Xiaohui -chairman of Anbang, and tycoon Xiao Jianhua.

These persons above have either been made disappeared or lost contacts with their families, caught in custody or put into prison, or committed suicide. And most of the deaths have the same way of expression – death from fall.

In the past six years, those caught during the government's so-called anti-corruption campaign amounted to a million. These people we have listed here are only a small portion of those under persecution, a tip of the iceberg.

Today, I am standing here, I can stand here ...I thank the Heavens, and I thank the US (government). I should have become one of these victims listed on this wall. And I must have become one of those who had died of falling.

Many of the Chinese attendees here today, my fellow Chinese friends, many of them might also have been listed on this wall, or have died of fall, or just disappeared, or died of mysteries, or died of "shooting the fighter jet down"- a term by the CCP referring to sex scandals. I do not have the time to tell all their stories one by one today.

But I want to tell you that so many world famous and successful people in the movie industry, or entrepreneurs or cultural figures in the industry, so many officials or military personnel who have made their reputation on the international arena, why in a short time of only six years, they have disappeared, been forced to commit suicide, or died from falling from height. I want to tell you that the number of Chinese with abnormal death, arrested by police or just made disappeared in the past six years is greater than the total number of similar cases in 70 years since the founding of the Republic.

This is also the biggest number of its kind in the whole world. Is this normal? Does this tell the facts? You can see all the people listed here, and (their stories), like the disappearance of Mr. Meng Hongwei who has issued a "Red Notice" for my arrest.

On April 19, 2017, on my whistle-blow, I mentioned Mr. Wang Jian, former co-founder of HNA Group. Today I am not going to tell all their stories, I only want to share with you this most important case of (one of) the world's largest conglomerates HNA who have carried out some of the most important acquisitions in the world in the past four years, and its boss Wang Jian, who has led one of the fast-growing companies in the world in the past five years.

In the last 1000 days (before his death), he expanded HNA Group with US$100 million acquisition every single day, making it (one of) the greatest miracles in business. In these 1000 days, his acquisitions were all over the world, making history of his time. But he finally died of the

Was that the truth? Now I want to present to you the truth behind HNA Group.

If you want to learn about the truth of HNA, you need to look into its history of developments. You see, in 1993, the company was valued at US$ 1.5 million; by 2017, it was valued at US$180 billion. The main changes happened from 2005-2014. From 2014-2017, about 1000 days, as you can see, they had an increase of more than US$100 billion, after acquiring 10% shares of (one of) the world’s largest companies Deutsche Bank, the biggest chip-making company in the US and the biggest hotel-Hilton Hotel and CIT.

You know what the biggest chipmaker and Hilton Hotel mean to the US. When we see all these, do you think the expansion of HNA has followed a reasonable course? I’d like to tell you that HNA Group is just one of many or millions of enterprises in China. Why only this company of HNA, in the past 1000 days, has its value increased by over US$100 billion?

Every single acquisition by HNA violated the law of the People’s Republic of China. Every decision made for these acquisitions lacked legitimate support from Chinese law. The transfer of every single dollar from China to overseas countries lacked the basis of support from Chinese law. So what is the basis of HNA’s rapid expansion? From 1993-2017, as we can see on April 19 of 2017 when I started to reveal the truth behind HNA in my whistle blow, this lady in front of us, Ms. Gong Xiaoxia from the Voice of America (VOA) had an interview with me. I told her that HNA has a strong government background by corruption, an influential intelligence background, and its Chairman Wang Jian must be murdered by them (corrupt CCP officials), in a humiliating death. During the interview with Xiaoxia planned for three hours, the live streaming was interrupted. As a result, Ms. Gong Xiaoxia and her team have all lost their employment with VOA, and I am truly sorry for that.

From the date of April 19, what happened within 20 hours after the interview, you have seen, I was issued a “Red Notice” by the Interpol. And I was charged for rape. Ms. Gong Xiaoxia lost her job. The Foreign Ministry of China and all Chinese media depicted Miles Kwok as a wanted criminal and a rapist, the most wanted-runaway, in addition to the interview interruption with VOA.

After April 19, we have seen, HNA wasted no time to announce that Miles Kwok was a liar, a wanted criminal on an international scale. They brought about a lawsuit against me in New York. What follows is that HNA has been widely questioned by the world media; many of the journalists are sitting here today.

Bank of America, with doubts that HNA shareholders have not supplied their true personal information, stopped its cooperation with HNA. Goldman Sachs stopped HNA’s IPO application in the US. Other financiers in the US also stopped their cooperation and funding to HNA. China Securities Regulatory Commission started to investigate the backgrounds of its shareholders and information of its factual beneficiaries submitted to the authorities.

Again, Chen Feng, co-founder of HNA, stood out to tell that Miles Kwok was a wanted criminal. Then interesting enough, we see Chen Feng told the media that 1000% of what Miles Kwok has said are lies. But after a series of measures either by the world media or financiers, in 2017, to counter its lawsuit, we have requested HNA to supply related documents. HNA failed to provide any documents. If HNA had cooperated with us in providing related documents, Wang Jian would not have died of “fall while taking photos”.

On July 3rd, 2018, Wang Jian died in a fall from a wall in the Provence region. Afterwards, as we have learned – one of the investigative journalists is also sitting here today – the Financial Times reported on the true shareholders of HNA Group and its business structure, an evidence proving that what I have revealed at the interrupted interview with Ms. Gong Xiaoxia on April 19 was correct: that the biggest shareholder of HNA is the 38-year-old Guan Jun. He is 100% the true controller of Hainan Cihang Foundation in New York, together with Liu Chengjie, another Hainan Cihang Foundation controller in Hainan province, a 30-year old young man. The co-founders Mr. Chen Feng and Mr. Wang Jian each held 14.8% of the shares. There are other shareholders too, taking about 2% or 3%.

The Financial Times report has confirmed the correctness of my revelations, and also raised the question why these two young men have the capacity to hold the major shares of this huge investment group valued close to US$200 billion. This report tells I was right with my whistle blows.

Later we found in New York, the Hainan Cihang Foundation filed with the Chinese authorities was registered in December 2016 in New York. By April 17, 2017, after my whistle blow, on May 15th, Hainan Cihang activated this foundation. And on the same day, 52% share of the Hainan Group held by Guan Jun and Liu Chengjie was transferred or donated to the foundation in New York. That was quick, like taking a flight.

From this action and the timing, Miles Kwok’s revelation was the reason for their transfer of HNA assets, an act of money laundering. From our documents that have been submitted to the US government, the process and speed of this 52% share transfer are closely related to our whistle blows. Next, we will see whom HNA Group is serving?

Investigating Wang Jian’s death in France – Press Conference Part 3-1 by Miles Kwok

In the northeast of Provence, a small village called Bonnieux, standing on its highest ground, there is a church. At the backyard of this church, a murder has happened. It is this murder that turned this place into a world-famous centre of attention.

2018, July 3rd, morning, the former chairman of the board of HNA, Wang Jian, ended his life of 57 years here.

This piece of news caused great sensation domestically in China and abroad. Every media fought to report on the death of Wang Jian. It was first reported by the French Media, on which written that before 11 am, a Chinese tourist visiting the village of Bonnieux fell and struck the stairs nearby the church while taking photographs. He died ultimately after rescue effort failed.

Later, domestic news in China showed that HNA Group released the news of the unfortunate death of Wang Jian on the 4th of July. It was reported that Wang Jian accidentally fell and seriously injured during his official visit to France. Afterward, he died in the hospital. The specific cause of death was not mentioned.

An article in a financial magazine described some details of the incident. It was written that Wang Jian lost consciousness on the spot and was taken to the hospital to be rescued. During the course of rescue, after Wang Jian uttered the only words to the doctor "leg hurts", he died.

In an article by Reuters, it was also mentioned that, according to the source from the police, Wang Jian attempted to climb up a low wall, looking at the scenery and taking photographs. When he was not successful in the first attempt of climbing up the wall, he also made a run-up for it.

These several media were the first to report after the death of Wang Jian with those details described here previously.

But, were they the truth?

After the incident happened, I sent teams of personnel to France for further investigation, seeking truth and hoping to learn the truth.

During the course of the investigation, more and more evidence came to light showing that Wang Jian did not fall into his death because of taking photographs.

By the investigation team who was conducting an interview, we have a simple sighting of the condition of the place where the incident happened. From the video, we can clearly see that the low wall was about a meter high with a cliff over the other side.

Anyone with common sense would not have stood there taking photographs, not to mention that was a 57 years old billionaire. Furthermore, the low wall, according to the investigation team, had shown signs of being loose, extremely unstable. No one would climb up there voluntarily.

On the other hand, even if Chairman Wang Jian wanted to take photographs, first, the scenery of this place was not so great; second, the low wall did not block any of his views. So there was no need to climb up in order to take photographs.

Suffice to say that anyone who has seen the site would have arrived at the same conclusion. In that case, why would Chairman Wang Jian come here? Had he met with anyone? Right after Wang Jian fell, who called the police? Did Wang Jian tell the doctor about "leg hurts"?

The media consistently claimed that Wang Jian died from a fall. But, could murder be a possibility? To the series of puzzles, all would be gradually revealed.

In the subsequent investigation conducted by our investigation team, first, our investigation team found the hotel where Wang Jian stayed and got hold of his reservation record. It showed in the record that the room reservation was made by a person named Daniel Vial.

Daniel Vial had led the creation of a medical magazine. He knew the French medical history like the back of his hand. He had long been working in the consultation of the pharmaceutical industry in France. He and the rich and powerful in China had frequent contacts.

In the early years, he was the lead organizer in establishing an organization called The Association of the Great Wall Rescue. It was to help French businesses entering the market in China.

After the death of Wang Jian, Vial accepted an interview of the French media, in which he admitted he personally organized this trip to the south of France for Wang Jian. He also intimated that Wang Jian had planned to purchase a Chateau in France.

Moreover, looking at his other correspondence, after Daniel Vial made the hotel reservation, he then contacted someone called Houa Gerard discussing matters concerning the relevant payment. Houa Gerard is Chinese French. He is the president of Foundation France Chine. HNA is the major member of this foundation. At that time, Houa Gerard is also the frequent passenger in the same private jet together with Wang Qishan's family and HNA senior officers.

Apart from this information, it is clear from this list for the reservation of this visit it was for a suite as well as two double rooms. Occupants showed a Mr. Houa and two others named Sun Jinghao and Tain Ding respectively.

Although Wang Jian's name was not seen, based on this list, it can be surmised from details such as a number of requests was made for Mr. Hous's room, as well as the requirement of close proximity, between Tain Ding's room and his boss's room. Wang Jian was staying in the suite that the reservation was made under the name of Houa Gerard. Others would be staying in the other two double rooms.

Only knowing such a limited amount of information is a far cry from reconstructing the original picture of what actually happened here. It could not tell us whom Wang Jian met or what things he had done prior to his death either.

Our team, after obtaining permission from the hotel, observed and filmed portions of the hotel CCTVs, from which we found some significant information.

First, we take a look at the layout of the hotel. The area circled in the picture was properties belonged to the hotel. With the circle on top, those several buildings were used as guest rooms and restaurants. There were a swimming pool and an area used for wedding events.

Across the street, the bottom area circled with blue line contains the guest rooms where Wang Jian and entourage stayed. It also contains a restaurant used in the morning for breakfast and a parking area for guests.

Let us verify again where the CCTV cameras were located. There were 4 camera locations here. They were No.1 camera pointed squarely at the rear of the parking area. Its field of vision is approximately the blue highlighted area. No. 2 camera served storage vicinity. No. 3 camera served the entering vicinity of the hotel entrance. It is the connecting area of the guest rooms and restaurant, a necessary passage for going in and out of the hotel. No.4 camera pointed squarely at the parking area of the hotel entrance. All vehicles arriving or leaving the hotel are in plain view.

The field of vision would be approximately the red fan shape area. Wang Jian and entourage only appeared in cameras 3 and 4. So we only need to pay attention to the images captured by these two cameras.

One clarification to note, according to the staff working in the hotel, the monitor's time setup has a 7-minutes error. The time shown is 7 minutes in advance of the actual time.

Now let us take a look at when did Wang Jian arrive at the hotel. On July 2nd, around 19.52, from the road on the right side of the hotel, two Mercedes Benz Multi-purpose vehicles were driven in. Three people alighted from the first vehicle. Four people alighted from the other vehicle. HNA chairman Wang Jian was this person who wore the blue sleeveless jacket. The person next to him wearing a suit was Houa Gerard. The lady who wore a straw hat and a one-piece black dress was the female interpreter for Wang Jian in this visit. Her name is Zhou Tiantian.

Another person is wearing a blue top and this person wearing a grey top. They were inseparable from Wang Jian. They ought to be the assistants to Wang Jian, Tian Ding, and Sun Jinghao.

The others were the staff of the Chinese tourist agency, which was in charge of taking care of Wang Jian on this trip.

Later we can see from the close-up view in the indoor monitor, that at 19.55, the female interpreter and serving staff were chatting about something. Then right afterward, Houa Gerard entered the guest room. Wang Jian also appeared in the field of vision. Then, they returned to their rooms to change clothes and have a simple tidy up.

At 20.14, we can see Houa Gerard appearing from the left side of camera 1. Now he has changed into a red T-shirt. Wang Jian also removed the blue sleeveless jacket and changed into a light color shirt.

Meanwhile, at 20.22, Wang Jian's entourage passed through in front of the camera and their images were also captured by the camera.

At 20.28, Wang Jian, Houa Gerard and the rest of the party came to the parking area. They were met with another two people. The first person shook hands with Wang Jian. The one who wore a white top with black stripes was Daniel Vial, who designed this trip for Wang Jian. That was Vial wearing that top on that day, it can be verified by the photos we can see which were taken on that same day and posted onto the social media by another lady who dined with them together.

After a brief exchange of greetings, they walked together towards the hotel restaurant and prepared to have lunch. At the end one hour later Wang Jian appeared again around 21.30. The lady appearing ahead of Wang Jian was the woman, who took the picture with Vial just now. She was the CEO of Allianz Worldwide Partners Asia Pacific Region. Not only has she a connection with Vial, but she also took pictures with Houa Gerard. All was up posted to the woman's social media page.

That concluded the images captured on July 2nd.

Investigating Wang Jian's death in France – Press Conference Part 3-2 by Miles Kwok

On 3rd July, the day Wang Jian died, what time did they leave the hotel? From the image captured by camera 4, we can see at 10.35, Wang Jian and his party got onto the vehicle hurriedly.

The two same black Mercedes Benz MPV as yesterday's, at 10.36, were driven out of the main entrance turning right. Due to the approximate 7 minutes time difference, so the time they drove away from the main entrance would be 10.29am. Their destination was La Vielle Eglise the church located on top of the hills, 787 meters away from the hotel.

Their vehicles turned right after exiting from the hotel. After driving in a circle, they arrived at the nearby parking area of the church. This journey would take around 5 minutes if there were no traffic on the road.

After getting off the vehicle, for going to the church, they walk back passing along a corner bar. They arrive at a place with an arched entranceway, go through the arch entrance, walk along the narrow length of incline and up the steep set of steps, then arrive at the hilltop church.

This walk would take at least around 15 minutes. That is to say, it would take Wang Jian at least around 20 minutes to get to the church on top of the hill after departing from the hotel. Therefore the arrival time would be around 10.49.

For this point, it is basically consistent with what was written in the French local news which reported the case of Wang Jian had happened before 11 am. Yet, after the Wang Jian incident happened, it was by whom at where made the call to the police?

We interviewed a worker from the bar near the church. Wang Jian passed by the bar where he worked when he (Wang Jian) was still alive. He also assisted in calling the police.

Let us take a look at what he said.

Investigator: "So, on that day, a woman came to your bar. Who was she? Tell us."

Worker: "The Lady? So I was at the restaurant, where I was working. The lady came running down. The same lady that I had passed a few minutes beforehand, she came running down, yelling: 'call the fire department, he jumped!' So I didn't think about it, I just ran up there, and waited for the fire department."

40 minutes after the female interpreter calling the police, the fire department. The rescue team and police hurriedly arrived at the scene one after the other. We interviewed the rescue team working at the scene that day. They briefly explained the situation of that day.

Fireman: "What happens when we have a death, is that there is a death certificate that is done by a doctor."

Investigator: "So, on-site?"

Fireman: "One site. There is a doctor who comes and verifies death. And after the [inaudible] make the [inaudible]. So nobody is [inaudible]? We only work [inaudible]. The person has died. We put them on the stretcher and transport them, and then we no longer have the right to touch them, because it's the forensic team's job. And that's why there are soldiers at the location. When forensic agents attest to the death, and then the body was taken away by services responsible for that. And it's no longer [inaudible]. We only determine up until the point of death. The person is in [inaudible]."

Investigator: Ok. Very well. Thanks.

As it is, when they arrived at the scene, Wang Jian was already dead. And in between the time after the female interpreter calling the police, before the arrival of the rescue team, what did happen at the scene?

The bar worker, a witness, was also the first person arriving at the scene. Let us hear his description of what he had seen.

Investigator: "So what did you see when you arrived at the place?"

Worker: "The person was lying down. (And in what position was he?) He was laid out on his back. His head was elevated and pushed against the wall. (Ok) [inaudible]. (Can you show me the exact position, you found him in a bit later?) I noted it, I still know. (How many people were around him when you arrived?) Two. Two people."

Investigator: So the place we're talking about is located below this wall by about 12 meters. So, according to you, who were the people surrounding Mr. Wang?

Worker: "According to me, they were Chinese people. They spoke to him in Chinese. While they were pinching his cheeks and trying to keep him awake. I really felt that these were people in his inner circle. They didn't let me touch him, they wouldn't let...I tried to grasp his neck. I tried to put him in the PLS [recovery] position. But they were especially against it. I felt like these people were protecting him."

Investigator: So, who were the people around him when you arrived? Instead of answering, I'd like you to specify again.

Worker: "Two people - Two Chinese people. They were speaking in Chinese. I didn't understand. (And were they men or women?). Men. "

Investigator: How was Mr. Wang dressed at the time when you found him on the ground?

Worker: "He had a red T-shirt on, or pink or fuchsia, in his [inaudible]. (The same T-shirt that you saw?) yes, the same that he was wearing before. Quality outfits. (Ok. What was he like? Was he moving? Was he breathing? Were his eyes open?) He was breathing. His lips were moving. In fact, his lips were moving and he was making little sounds. You could see the whites of his eyes rolled back in his head. And he wasn't speaking. He didn't really say a single word. Not a one."

Investigator: And you tried to lend him aid, I mean by touching him?

Worker: "I tried, yes. I wanted to put him in the PLS position. The people forbid me from doing it. They were pinching his cheeks ... his head, too. That struck me as well. They were pinching his cheeks. And his head fell over like this, [inaudible], as if it was no longer attached to his body. There we go. (Ok). I received this info from my boss, and at that time I was no longer there...They were trying to...They were doing some sort of acupuncture on him. They were putting little needles in his face and lips. There we go. And then the fire department arrived (Ok)."

Investigator: Mr. Gaetan [name], would you please show us the position? In which Mr. Wang's body was found when you arrived at the location?

Worker: "A few centimeters [inaudible], maybe [inaudible] or maybe like that, but that was it. (As far as his hands go, what positions were they in?) No, not on his body. I don't remember his hands exactly. I know that there was a person here and here. They were pinching his cheeks. At one point, his head went like this and fell back again. [inaudible] all by itself. The people were here and here. There was one here and one there. Two people hunched over."

When you hear this, not sure if you believe the people around Wang Jian were trying to save and keep him alive?

After the police were made aware that Wang Jian was staying at a hotel nearby, two policemen and Wang Jian's entourage went back to the hotel together. This act was recorded by hotel CCTV. The monitor showed that at the time of 12.09, just the time when a convertible was about to leave, a black minivan and a police motorbike were driving into the hotel parking area.

This black MPV was one of the vehicles used by Wang Jian. Then Houa Gerard wearing a red shirt can be seen alight from the vehicle and talked a bit with Vial, who got out from the convertible.

The next, the image switched to the ones shown from Indoor Camera 3. Two policemen entered into the hotel one after the other. The female interpreter also appeared here. After two minutes, the police again appeared on the screen. They seemed to have got hold of the hotel manager to learn more about the situation.

Then as shown from the video of the time of 12.34, Houa and Vial were getting into the convertible. At this time, the police motorbike has already left. That is to say that the police work of investigation in the hotel lasted around 20 minutes at the most. Prior to the departure of Houa Ferard and Vial, we can see that they were conversing about something with the two entourage of Wang Jian. Then at around 12.36, they left the hotel. The black Mercedes Benz minivan also followed suit right away.

As it is, what had happened to Wang Jian at the church? Why would he suddenly die? Is it really an accident? Is it true that he was careless so he fell to his death while he was taking photographs?

With this query, our investigation team interviewed some of the residents in the village of Bonnieux, hoping to find out more information from it.

However, we discovered another shocking piece of information. The following video showed the occasion when we made inquiries from a tourist centre.

Travel center: "Yes, we don't have to...We can't give you any information about this. You have to... in fact, the police says to us that the Consulate of China does not allow us to..'don't say anything'...so we don't say any...(information?) any information. "

Investigator: I just want to know if you have one other tour from here with people who are [inaudible] tour group, free here.

Travel center: "No...You know...No.. "

At the time, when we heard that, we were absolutely shocked. The French police and the Consulate of China would issue such a succinct order that 'not allow to say anything about this matter.' Not only that, we also interviewed the provost guard who also arrived at the scene at the time.

French Police: "I will explain to you, [inaudible] so there is an open investigation for finding out [inaudible] in France. The Chinese asked us for a copy of the procedure report by making an international request. I was involved. But we have a hierarchy here in France. But the prosecutor has asked us to not communicate about this procedure at the moment. You need an official request for us to communicate. The Chinese already made an official request. The Chinese government already made the request. So there's a document called the [inaudible]. A request for international cooperation was made. You also need to make an international cooperation request. We cannot give any information at all. We couldn't [inaudible] , it's not that we don't want to. We aren't allowed. As an investigator, we can make an agreement. There needs to be an agreement between the US embassy and the public prosecutor in Avignon. I can give you the name of the prosecutor [inaudible] if you want."

From what they said, we learned that Chinese officials immediately did interfere with this case as soon as the incident happened. They also took away all the relevant documents. It is because our investigation team did not assume official credential for this investigation, we were able to get very few information. When we wanted to, through videos we obtained from the hotel and from any videos in which the relevant people may have appearances, attempt in reconstructing the truth of what originally happened, this material physical evidence were sabotaged.

These videos were deliberately wiped out and so vandalized that this critical evidence cannot be recovered.

Please think, if there is nothing to be covered up, who would wipe out the critical evidence? If Wang Jian merely died from an accident, why would Chinese government officials want to stop the people who know about the information of this case from talking? As a result, the case of Wang Jian was covered with even more doubts.

It is not only members of our investigation team believed this case to be suspicious; in fact, the owner of the hotel where Wang Jian stayed also shared with us some of his own discoveries when we were making inquiries in the hope of finding out more details. The hotel owner intimated that he never knew such a thing happened. Also, he did not believe a 57-year-old man would climb up that wall merely for taking a photograph.

The hotel owner therefore particularly made a visit to the site of the accident. At the site, he found a syringe needle. After we have seen so many the witnesses and the statement made by the relevant people of this case, I believe you have a more insightful understanding of this case.

In the meantime, you ought to believe firmly that the death of Wang Jian is not just a simple case of an accident. A CEO of an international conglomerate died in a foreign country under such dubious circumstances.

There were still people attempting to cover up their criminal activities and control public opinion. Who would have such tremendous power?

In recent time, we witnessed the sudden disappearance of Interpol President Meng Hongwei. Only after his wife making her voice heard in a high profile press conference, the Chinese government then hastily admitted Meng Hongwei had been detained for investigation. Have you ever thought that how many wives there were who did not have the opportunities nor the courage to stand out making the fact known?

Nowadays, there are 90 million communist party members. There is no guarantee who is the next one “to be disappeared” one day? All the entrepreneurs in China, who can be assured not to become the next Wang Jian –to die in a foreign land?

Investigating Wang Jian’s death in France – Press Conference Part 3-3 actions by Miles Kwok

Next, we are going to see: the mystery of this story (truth behind the death of Wang Jian), the interests of different parties involved in this case, the governments, the intelligence, they are closely related to each other.

We see the relation of Wang Jian with the United States, his social relationships here. This is a photo in an investigation report by the New York Times. In all the 67 acquisitions we have just mentioned, they relate largely to assets of the US, investments in the US, interests of the US, interests of Europe and interests of other countries in the world.

Wang Jian’s family lives in Seattle, the properties listed here only part of his residences in the US. The body of Wang Jian was also buried in Seattle; we have a picture of his graveyard here. Wang Jian’s wife and children are all US citizens, he himself holding a US green card. All that has happened to Wang Jian has something to do with the US or Europe. They relate to the interests of the US.

After consulting our legal team and other parties, we think that the US government should take part in related investigations, as those investigations are supported by US law. We have officially launched our application to the FBI for their interference into related investigations.

Next, we are going to see legal actions taken against those individuals related to the death of Wang Jian. This will provide a good and important answer to our question: what on earth is the truth behind Wang Jian’s death?

The truth behind his death is important to all of us; without alert to this, any one of us could become the next “Wang Jian”. We would see tragedies like the one with HNA happening in the US one after another.

I am going to tell you what steps we are going to take, and why I am standing here today.

Dear friends! Wang Jian of HNA Group is not an isolated case. Wu Xiaohui of Anbang Group, (the petrol tycoon)Ye Jianming, Jack Ma, (Xiao Jianhua) of Tomorrow Holding, thousands of Chinese entrepreneurs may become the next Wang Jian, or their businesses next HNA.

Our question is: all that has happened in the US about Wang Jian, are they legally questionable? Have they caused losses to US interests? Has HNA represented the interests of CCP in US land? Has its intelligence network here caused any threats to US homeland security?

If we are not awakened to the truth behind the death of Wang Jian, any one of us could become the next Wang Jian. This is why I am making an appeal here today for thousands if not millions of victims in China who have been caught, put into prison, or persecuted by the CCP.

I want to reveal the truth so that they can be treated with equal rights by the rule of law. I am making this call here in the US, striving for their justice in front of the law, to protect the safety of their families and their properties.

I have already provided evidence to prove that HNA Group, representing the CCP in China, is an intelligence platform in the west working for CCP, a platform for their money laundering, and also a platform for ideological dissemination by way of BGY (Blue-Gold-Yellow).

Next, we are going to bring about lawsuits against HNA, and take all necessary legal actions against it. If we don't do this, similar tragedies will happen in the west. This is why I am standing here today: to fight for their rights, for our rights, for the rights and interests of the children and grandchildren of 1.4 billion Chinese, and for the safety of every one of us present here today. This is also the reason for my anger.

Next, you will see: what we can learn from the HNA case? And what actions we are going to take in the near future?

Immediately we are setting up a US$ 100 million fund, called China Foundation of Legal Affairs. I hope Mr. Steven Bannon will be the chairman of this foundation, aiming at helping and saving all the Chinese who are undergoing CCP persecution, unfair treatment by its legal system or the so-called anti-corruption campaign, or cruel governance by police. They deserve no less of the equal rights, fairness, and freedom.

HNA Group has called for compromises with me regarding their lawsuits and false accusations against me but was refused. Instead, to counter their false accusations, I shall take immediate actions to bring them to courts in the US.

In addition, we will bring about legal actions against those US companies that have illegal transactions with HNA Group, and those individuals including Wang Qishan and other Chinese officials, with the court issuance of Subpoenas to bring them to justice.

We shall waste no time to submit applications to the FBI for their participation in related investigations.

From today on, we will let the whole world know about the dissemination and threats of CCP in the west. Our foundation will be ready to offer assistance to those who were made disappeared, persecuted, arrested, or forced into mysterious deaths like Mr. Wang Jian, to reveal the truth of all these tragedies.

These are the major actions we are going to take very soon.

You can see, after the interrupted interview on April 19, 2017, HNA Group took the lawsuit or false accusations against me. As a measure to counter their accusations, I put up 17 pages of documents for their review. HNA Group did not provide any feedback. If Wang Jian had given me feedback, he would not have died in France, allegedly from fall while taking photos.

Next, you will see that, we will issue our subpoenas to the following US companies (referring to the PPT) connected to HNA and their beneficiaries including Wang Qishan. This will make history. In the past week, Mr. Bannon and I, together with our legal team, had lots of discussions to give a proper name to this campaign against the evils, whose names have been pondered over and over again in our minds.

After countless correctness and alterations, we have the final list of names up here.

This is the first time in Chinese history since the founding of the Republic by the CCP that we stand at a stage in the US to counter the CCP. This is the first time there is a Chinese man standing here to fight for the freedom, democracy, and the rule of law for the Chinese people. I am that first Chinese openly to use legal actions, to make good use of US system of freedom and rule of law, to fight the CCP totalitarian regime. I am the first man on this stage of freedom in New York where I stand up to fight for safety, religious beliefs, and a future with the rule of law for the Chinese.

To these people listed here, we will issue court notices for investigations. The names we have listed here today are all very sensitive names. What follows with HNA Group would be frightening, worthy of your attention.

After all these, I must also add, my dear friends and attendees, the reason why I can stand here today is that the US have wise people like Mr. Steven Bannon, because there are journalists and media like you, and my warrior friends who have given me support.

Please think, me, Miles Kwok, if I was in another country, I must be doomed by now. I would either be cut into pieces or made into sausages, labeled with my surname Kwok. And the Chinese friends here, you shall never have an opportunity to take part in today's press conference.

Because the CCP of China has been successful for all the 70 years, its threats, its BGY and its recklessness have forced us to lose our safety and dignity, and lose our freedom to speak out.

We have been thankful to the US and US government, thankful to western media, who have joined us to seek the truth behind facts, who have stood up for justice.

The threats by China CCP are far beyond my description here today. We will prove to the world with our actions that CCP is the biggest tumor in the world. CCP is the greatest threat to all humanity as long as it survives in China, even a single day.

Your participation has given me courage, which encourages me to continue fighting.

In my hometown, there is an old saying, "one thing is closely linked to another". I will prove to the world with actions.

Thank you for coming. Thank you!

Pandora Box: the way to the Himalayas

Pandora Box: who are the fathers of Guan Jun and Liu Chengjie?

The mystery has become very interesting. And it has become part of our strategy.

I can assure you that the fathers of Guan Jun and Liu Chengjie are not good people. The father of Liu Chengjie must not be a wise person. The father of Liu Chengjie must be an evil person who has exploited the ordinary Chinese people.

We are not going to tell you now whether he is Xi Jinping, Wang Qishan or Zhu Rongji. The parents of Liu Chengjie and the parents of Guan Jun shall be verified at least by two facts. First, it must be a standard method recognized in legal terms by both Chinese and western systems, like DNA, family history, or signs of evidence in lifestyle. Second, the revelation of the truth is a small gift to the audience during our whistle blows before opening the Pandora Box. And responsibly I am telling you right now that we have 100% firm evidence that can be testified and trusted by legal departments of any western country.

In the past two or three weeks, traitors like Jiang Zemin's family, Wang Qishan, Meng Jianzhu, Sun Lijun and others have taken crueler actions in persecuting our supporters within China, arresting, questioning or intimidating them by so-called "inviting them to tea". At the same time, on social media, they spread rumors like "Miles Kwok has called for the whole nation to act against Xi Jinping".

I am telling you here, friends, I have not a single social media account within China, or I have never been allowed to open an account on any social media in the country, either WeChat or Weibo. Recently they have made many videos in my name; but if you listen carefully, those voices have not come out of my mouth.

In the past two years, the traitors have never stopped their evil doings. They have become even crazier and reckless. Their only improvement is in making false videos or audios in the name of Miles Kwok, making them better and better in their imitations. They have used the highest technology in this fabrication, employing a person who must have known me well.

They have hoped that President Xi Jinping would use the strength of the whole nation to act against my revolutionary whistle blows. They have tried to start a war between me and President Xi.

I am telling you, friends, either Wang Qishan, Meng Jianzhu, Jiang's family or Xi Jinping is my ultimate target; my ultimate target is the CCP. The Chinese people might be more miserable if CCP continues in power even with the elimination of the above traitors. Only by eliminating CCP and its system and establishing a new system with the rule of law, a system trusted by the world community to have peaceful co-existence, a system in which the Chinese people would live in peace with freedom of beliefs and materialized safety, could our objective be achieved.

Dear friends, when the truth on “who are the parents of Guan Jun and Liu Chengjie” is finally revealed, you will be astonished by the ridiculous absurd of the CCP. The facts will tell that China is in reality surely governed by mafia-like criminals, by evil police, by an unlawful government, and by corrupt officials.

Miles’s Seven Principles makes up part of our strategy; they are tactics in our fight against the CCP. Even though I am telling you the truth today, it won’t change much in China. The revelation of the fact at the present time won’t be of best help to our ultimate goal. We shall all equip ourselves with wisdom, not be misled by any eye-catching incident.

For decades since the June Fourth Movement in 1989, overseas Chinese democratic activists have achieved nothing practically good for the people with their social media propaganda campaigns. And the ordinary Chinese are even more ridiculously absurd that they have allowed the land of China to become the darkest in the world. Chinese people have lost the ability to judge what is right or what is wrong. Every single Chinese has a responsibility there.

In the case of Ma Jian, they have me involved in his corruption. But you can see from the indictment that it was Li You of Founder Group who had lent out the 109 million yuan to Ma Jian’s sister, not Miles Kwok. I have nothing to do with the so-called bribes or insider trading. None of the overseas democratic activists has stood up, to tell the truth on their social media accounts.

Behind me, I have a picture of the Buddha surrounded by his eighteen disciples- the 18 arhats. Even the Buddha needs the support of his disciples. In our revolutionary whistle blows, we also need companions or warrior friends to support us. Only with the joint efforts of my companions can we eliminate those evils of traitors and their overseas supporters, and achieve our goal of the Himalayas.

With this in mind, the truth of the fathers of Guan Jun and Liu Chengjie is a gift sent by God or the Buddha to us.

Many American friends have asked “why so many overseas Chinese have defamed you in their Youtube or Twitter accounts? And they do that every day. How can they make a living?”

Personally, I do not have private scores or hatred with these people. They don’t owe me money and I don’t owe them either. Being morally corrupt, they are employed by those traitors to defame me. The traitors gave them money so that they can do bad things against me every day.

The 18 disciples of the Buddha are like my supporters. They stand by my side and we fight for justice and righteousness together. They have nothing to ask from me. They have hated CCP and wanted to do something for the Chinese people. Or they have only desires to go back safely to their motherland one day. Whether we can achieve our goal of the Himalayas depends on the joint efforts of our “18 arhats” or companions.

Our goal is the shining sun in the sky. We shall look into that with attention. We do not have to care too much about the poisonous ants, snakes, worms or devil animals on earth. We shall not waste our time on them or be misled by them. Our goal is up in the Himalayas.

Most of the things happening in China in 2018 were within my expectations, But some of the things were out of my expectations. I have not expected that the living environment for ordinary Chinese has deteriorated at such a speed: economy going down, people’s life becoming increasingly difficult, religions persecuted all have happened in a matter of only 200 days. But my judgment about the CCP and its ability to rule the country has been correct. They have come up with no good solutions.

In 2018, we have opened a battlefield in the western world, and we are going to strengthen our base here in the west. We have our plans for 2019, but details will not be made public until after the Chinese Spring Festival.

I am going to tell only briefly here today.

Pandora Box: hope for the Chinese towards the goal of the Himalayas

Looking back into the nearly one hundred years of Chinese Communist Party (CCP) and 70 years of its governance in China, we can see countless and severe destruction to the Chinese nation. It is the first time in Chinese history that a whole nation of 1.4 billion people has been looked down upon by the world community as one of the ugliest, loathliest and most dangerous peoples on earth. It was the vile nature of the CCP and its system, together with the cowardice, ignorance, and selfishness of the Chinese people that have caused such disasters to a once great nation.

The solution is to overthrow the CCP regime and return the rule of law and freedom of beliefs to the land of China. The rule of law ensures the safety of people’s life and wealth; freedom of beliefs paves the way for peace in mind and happiness in life.

Traditionally Chinese has been a nation of great wisdom. When a great number of people with intelligence, normal thinking, a caring mind, openness to international values, respect to the rule of law, religious beliefs, hard-working but without evil ambitions, come together to form a new leadership trusted by the people, the Chinese will have a great future and live in harmony with the world community.

After overthrowing the CCP regime with our revolutionary whistle blows and establishing a new government of democracy in China, I, Miles Kwok, will retreat to live a simple life in the forests.

The Chinese nation is not yet doomed. That’s why we have been sent by heavens and gifted with the Pandora Box to eliminate the CCP and lead the nation to the Himalayas. God, the Buddha, and spirits are watching from above now, giving us a helping hand and showing us the directions.

We must break the curse that “without the CCP, China will be in chaos”. For thousands of years in Chinese history, dynasties come and go, but never before have we seen any periods of lasting chaos in the country. After the collapse of Qing Dynasty, the Communist Party once claimed that it would bring about democracy in China, but a whole nation has been deceived after the establishment of the People’s Republic. Those CCP officials have all the privileges and the People’s Liberation Army takes the ordinary Chinese people as enemies.

For thousands of years, Chinese people have been much obedient under feudal imperial rule. While hunger breeds discontentment, Chinese people only stood up for revolts when they could not feed themselves. And historically, the Han Chinese has not been a warlike nation. Therefore I say China will not be in chaos with the elimination of the CCP.

Apart from that, the United States has kept the strongest military force in Asia-Pacific; China is closely linked to the world economically and culturally in the information age with 50 to 60 million overseas Chinese; domestically, the majority of the PLA forces are not willing to start a war and 90% of CCP members are ordinary good-hearted people who have their own families, with parents and children to take care of. They all hate the CCP. The strength for peace is overwhelming.

Our target is clear. We only have to eliminate those top corrupt CCP officials, less than 10 individuals as I count the number. When this was done, the whole nation shall be liberated. The PLA will become the armed forces of a democratic nation. Independent justice shall ensure the safety of the people and their wealth. Freedom of beliefs shall nurture the growth of morality and people shall be much at ease to pursue a happy life.

With the attention and support from the world, China shall be successful in eliminating poverty, and resourceful in dealing with natural disasters. With no military confrontation or an environment for separation by warlords, China will change for the good, to share prosperity with the world community and win their respect. This will not take long to accomplish.

Our enemies are just a few, some in Zhongnanhai (the CCP official residence in Beijing) and some in Shanghai. After their elimination, their wealth of hundreds of billions in US dollars hidden overseas shall be recovered and returned to the Chinese nation. With this, Chinese citizens shall no longer have to pay for their mortgages or for their vehicle’s monthly payments. Land shall be privatized, and ordinary people shall have ownership.

Why I have said Chinese do not have to pay for their mortgages or car loans? In the past three decades, the CCP government has collected about 50 trillion US dollars in taxes. The most part of it should not have been levied on ordinary people. The wealth belongs to the people, not the CCP. They can afford to feed an army with new taxes. The huge amount of cash used for social security and censorship can be saved for building a legal system with the rule of law. Chinese shall have a much brighter future.

The so-called rejuvenation by technology advancement, China Dream, Three Represents, Crossing the river by feeling the stones, and Great Leap Forward, etc are truly low graded, ridiculously downgraded. For most Chinese people, food and housing is no longer a problem, owning a car is a common thing, a good education is accessible. Next, we need to have religious schools in China; we need to have universities for international students; we need to see a world welcoming Chinese students and scholars as well. Religions from across the world can send their missionaries to China freely. China shall encourage religious and cultural exchanges harmoniously with the world.

China shall build a strong economy. Chinese private entrepreneurs shall have good relations with foreign counterparts, like husbands and wives. The relationship between China and the United States or other western nations shall be like husbands and wives too. I personally have felt the friendship with the Americans, like brothers and sisters.

In my opinion, unity for all human beings is possible. The world can work together against global warming or diseases. At the 5G or 6G era, space exploration, space entertainment, and space economy shall become the norm in reality. The earth will become a global village, with people respecting and loving each other. That is our future.

Whether you live in the Middle East, Africa or Asia, Russia or America, the distance will no longer be our obstacles. With auto-translation, cultural exchanges will no longer be a problem. When we have our space travels to the moon, the Mars, or other planets, the earth looks small under our feet. People do not have to work every day. Wisdom helps them to live a much meaningful and wealthy life. Communism or terrorism shall be all gone dead. Justice and righteousness shall prevail. I have full confidence in our future.

By then we shall release all prisoners from Chinese prisons.

Dear friends, you can never imagine the great forces behind our whistle blows. With the establishment of our Rule of Law, two many people across the world have contacted us for donations. Too many Overseas Chinese in Malaysia, Singapore, Hong Kong, Taiwan, Macau, and other western countries want to give their donations to the Fund; some elderly have even changed their wills to make donations in the millions and billions. They have only one wish: help us overthrow the CCP!

After the arrest of Huawei CFO Meng Wanzhou, overseas Chinese have witnessed CCP's retaliation afterward, properties or assets of many people sealed up or confiscated by CCP in Hong Kong and Macau, threats in Taiwan by the CCP to control its economy and media. Private entrepreneurs in Taiwan and Hong Kong, and wealthy Chinese in South East Asia all feel the pain and fear of CCP's recklessness and cruelty.

Many lawyers, accountants, bankers, and other professionals have also expressed their willingness to help.

Dear friends, no one can stop the increasing strength accumulated across the globe to stand up against the CCP in China. That strength is extraordinary, immensely huge, and out of everyone's imagination! That's why I have said to have absolute confidence to take down CCP.

Detention of Canadian citizens and threats to the Canadian government, refusal to grant travel visas to UK and US journalists, conflicts in the South China Sea, threats to Taiwan's freedom and democracy ... these are all gifts to us in the name of God; their fear becomes our weapon; the recklessness of the CCP is evidence of their crimes.

One and a half years ago when we first started our whistle blows, we were alone and mostly helpless. Our voice was weak and unworthy. In just 300 days, we have created history. For 70 years, Chinese voices have been weak in the world and few people would pay attention. But today, with our miracles and legends one after another, we have captured the world's attention. We have more and more companions standing up for justice. Our courage mounts as the battle progresses.

More Chinese are now opening their eyes for the truth; their wisdom returns. Too many people are inspired by hope. And they feel their lives so much different and meaningful.

We have opened a new chapter in Chinese history. We have created history. We are the sunshine. We are the hope of China. Everyone is proud to be part of it.

Miles Kwok has promised to donate one billion US dollars more to the Rule of Law Fund

Miles Kwok said yesterday (30 March 2019) in his whistle blow that he is committed to donating another one billion US dollars to the Rule of Law Fund, adding that without sufficient financial support, the Fund will not be strong enough in its cooperation with organizations like the Committee on the Present Danger to fight the Chinese Communist Party (CCP).

Miles said, "I take legal responsibilities on what I have said here. I am only a donor to the Fund. My first donation of 100 million dollars has been transferred to the Fund. By today, two-thirds of the cash deposits in the official accounts of the Fund has come from Miles Kwok. I am coordinating with my family funds now, to donate another one billion dollars. Without enough cash there, we will not be able to influence the decision-making process of the future Executives Commission. This is a reality."

Miles compared the fight against the CCP as a giant movie. "We need to play the key roles in the movie, in all the performances. We must be the directors, the heroes and heroines, not the amateur actors or extras." He added.

In the past two years, in order to defame Miles Kwok, many overseas democratic activists were spreading rumors that Miles is short of money, penniless, that he is going to be "a mouse running across the streets". And they brought about many lawsuits against Miles Kwok. After two years, these people mostly keep silent facing justice in the US, while Miles Kwok is standing up higher and higher, becoming tougher and tougher, and winning more and more supporters globally.

Miles Kwok revealed that he is building a Himalayas Headquarters in New York City, housing his Guo.media and the Rule of Law Society. "We have rented an independent 7-story building here in Manhattan, 5 million dollars for five years, with an offer to purchase in the near future. This will be one of the best equipped and most secured modern offices in the area. This will also be a media center, broadcasting 24 hours to the world audience. We have lots of money."

One year ago, as part of his strategy, Miles Kwok tactically claimed that he would not act against the CCP or President Xi Jinping. It is now time to change the Seven Principles in a global fight against communism and all its dictators.

"The CCP is the only liar," Miles said, "They first denied putting one million Uyghurs in re-education camps in Xinjiang, claiming it a fabrication of anti-China forces in the west. Later, during the CCP Two Sessions, they admitted detaining one million Muslims, but calling the re-education camps 'boarding schools'".

Last week, during President Xi's visit to Europe, China signed 21 MOUs with Italy with purchase or investment of 20 billion dollars and another 30 MOUs with France of 30 billion dollars. Those were only memos of understanding, not agreements for factual cooperation. The CCP government is only playing in another movie, fooling the Europeans around with big spending. Those MOUs will all be fake documents.

"All major EU nations, including Italy, France and Germany, will set up a new committee, similar to the Committee on the Present Danger, to re-consider their relation with communist China, and to work with the US and Japan to share intelligence in confronting the economic, military and cultural threats from the Communist Regime." Miles Kwok revealed, adding that Europe will work with the US to bring to justice those CCP supporters in the west implementing CCP's 3F or BGY schemes, including those in Taiwan and Hong Kong.

Recently we learned about the tragic chemical plant explosion in Yancheng City of Jiangsu province causing over 600 deaths or injuries, and we saw the food scandal in the primary school in Sichuan province. But the CCP government has been working hard to cover up the facts and their crimes in these tragedies. This is why the CCP has always refused to open up the internet and Great Firewall and maintains strict control over the media.

Miles Kwok said at present we must first be calm and vigilant. CCP and its overseas supporters are now living in fears and anxiety, but they never stop their online and offline attacks. "The impact of our whistle blows has been unprecedented," he said.

Secondly, we must carefully study the present situations. The CCP has not only kidnapped the whole nation; it has controlled all the major social, financial, marketing and military resources, and the media. It has built up many connections overseas through different transactions.

Third, we shall not underestimate the seriousness that the eyes of the whole nation have been covered up by CCP propaganda and censorship. Too many Chinese live with ignorance, without the ability to think rationally.

Fourth, we shall not underestimate CCP's overseas influence with their supporters in other socialist countries, in Wall Street, and other financial sectors.

Fifth, the state traitors have also joined hands to support each other in order to protect their power and wealth.

Sixth, most western countries have the rule of law in their democracies, but compared to CCP, they act at a much slower pace and are not as efficient when it comes to taking actions.

Seventh, the CCP has strict control over the internet. And at the same time with the popularization of the internet and social media in China, the CCP can easily and quickly spread their messages to a wide audience.

Ninth, the strength of our overseas warrior friends is comparatively weak at the present time.

Tenth, the CCP has done its utmost to encircle and suppress our warrior friends. We shall never underestimate their brutality and cruelty.

But we have much good news, too, Miles said. More and more CCP members have become resentful against the dictatorship; many CCP officials under persecution with the anti-corruption campaign are not happy with the central leadership, same as officials from the military. Most private entrepreneurs have taken their side of saying NO to the CCP regime by migrating or moving their wealth overseas. Besides, fighting within the CCP leadership is always tense.

At the same time, many countries have become cautious against CCP's belt and road initiative; they have woken up to communist threats from China; CCP's military expansion overseas, its arrogance in diplomacy and stealing intellectual property are met with the confrontation of many nations.

Above all, the rise of Miles Kwok with his revolutionary whistle blows has become the greatest threat to the CCP regime. The united forces surrounding Miles Kwok are getting stronger day by day. They are the sharpest weapons shooting at the state traitors.

Miles said, "We have full confidence that we will take down the CCP. CCP must be eliminated by 2020. Our Pandora Box will soon be open. The CCP traitors shall never easily surrender unless I open the Pandora Box. I know full well about the nature of the CCP officials."

The CCP has raised the communist banner high in the sky; it regards America as its biggest enemy. But at the same time, the CCP loves America the most. Ninety-nine percent of high ranking CCP officials sent their lovers and children to the United States; they have also kept their wealth in US banks. They are not that self-confident. And they are not that strong!

Miles said if the Chinese people shut off their lights for a week, the CCP regime shall collapse. If the majority of Chinese only stay at home for seven days, resting and refusing to go for work, the CCP regime shall collapse; if a million drivers in Beijing stop their vehicles on the streets, pulling off the keys and letting the petrol drop, the CCP shall collapse for a week.

“We are weighing the possible loss to the Chinese people. We don’t want to see long-lasting suffering for the Chinese like what is happening in Venezuela. We want to see the CCP regime collapse instantly, to break off by a single blow, without causing much damage to the ordinary people. CCP’s China Dream is the dream of Wang Qishan and other traitors, a dream of causing destruction to the Chinese people. That is not our dream”.

“My mother has died under CCP persecution. My other family members, brothers and relatives, and colleagues are still suffering under CCP suppression. I must revenge. I must let Wang Qishan and other traitors taste the pain 100 times stronger.”

Miles reminds us of one important thing to add, that we must educate our young people. We must help to bring up a large group of young students overseas for our democratic drive. We must support their healthy development. We must have a new and young generation into our blood of freedom and democracy.

After 21 days of silence mourning for his dear mother and deep thoughts in his planning, Miles Kwok pledges that he will soon take tougher actions against Wang Qishan, Jiang Zemin and other traitors. He said he must let them pay the price.

To strive for the Himalayas in China with minimum loss of lives

“To eliminate just 5-6 individuals or state traitors for the realization of freedom and democracy in China, that victory is worth the price,” says Miles Kwok in his whistle blow.

Miles was answering questions earlier from warrior friends related to developments after the 11.20 Press Briefing and the power struggle within the Chinese Communist Party (CCP).

Miles says Mao Zedong started the Cultural Revolution in 1967 in order to eliminate those CCP officials that challenged his dictatorship. He also caused the death of tens of millions of innocent Chinese.

Deng Xiaoping did the same during the June Fourth Movement in 1989 to eliminate other CCP leaders who had challenged his power supremacy. He was responsible for the Tiananmen Massacre.

The assassination of Ling Gu in 2012 by former president Jiang Zemin was an indication that Jiang saw his power under threat from his opponents and thus acted to warn them with this deadly traffic accident. It signified Jiang's intention for extension of his supreme power in politics.

From the 18th to 19th CCP Congress, Jiang had planned to eliminate all his political opponents by the so-called anti-corruption campaign, but his efforts were compromised by the betrayal of Xi Jinping and Wang Qishan who, refusing to act as puppets, made the false thing true.

When Xi and Wang each takes things seriously and both want the supreme power, things thus become very dramatic as we have seen today.

The contradictions and struggles within the CCP are now open and apparent. And the conditions in China are really bad.

With the revelation of the death of former HNA Chairman Wang Jian and the arrest of Huawei CFO Meng Wanzhou, questions have added to the heat of struggle within the CCP and things in China are getting worse.

The truth behind HNA Group and the death of Wang Jian of whether he had died of murder or fall off a wall while taking photos will have severe consequences to both Wang Qishan and Xi Jinping. None of them can get away from the judgment by justice. The time for the judgment shall be 2020.

Miles said that, at a recent meeting with officials from the US military, a question was raised what China would react if the US arrested Jiang Zhizheng, grandson of Jiang Zemin, or Jack Ma, Ma Huateng, Wang Jianlin, or the director of the People's Bank of China, or Ren Zhengfei of Huawei and his daughter Meng Wanzhou? The discussion finally focused on Meng Wanzhou.

With the arrest of Meng and the retaliated detention of two Canadian citizens, the CCP has once again demonstrated to the world its recklessness with its "rule of the law".

Miles says if the US detained Jiang Zhicheng, State Councilor Yang Jiechi must be the first to stand out in protest. Then there will be action from China's military. Miles told these US military officials that if the heir of President Jiang Zemin was detained, that means war has started between the two countries.

Miles says, "The US and China may go into war in the case of Jiang Zhicheng, but the US is sure to win. And it's worth a try". The US officials all smiled.

Miles says, compared to the bad and cold-hearted Meng Jianzhu, Fu Zhenghua and Sun Lijun and those officials in the Central Discipline Inspection Commission, Jiang Zhicheng is a young man of good manners. He talks reasons with others.

"But he is doomed as he is the heir of president Jiang and the biggest earner within the system", Miles says, "When his grandfather is dead, which is soon to come, it is hard for him to hold the conditions.”

Miles said yesterday that he is fully confident of the realization of the Himalayas of freedom and democracy in China in the coming years.

Miles remarks that, in the past hundred years or so, any nation in the world who has acted against or challenged the United States ended in disasters, like Japan that bombed the Pearl Harbour, Hitler’s Germany that started the world war, Communist Cuba, Iraq under Saddam Hussein, Libya under Muammar Gaddafi, Syria, Iran, North Korea, and others.

When Germany and Japan became US alliances after the war, they were on the road to great achievements. Britain, France, Canada, Saudi Arabia, Israel, and Egypt are also good examples.

In the 70 years of Chinese history under CCP rule, China suffered when it acted against the US, but benefited from a friendly relation. When Chairman Mao welcomed President Nixon to Beijing, China started to become better. When it entered the WTO with US help, it created today’s prosperity.

Miles Kwok outlines four reasons that would push ahead the achievement of the Himalayas in China:

First, at the CCP’s 18th Congress, Wang Qishan and Xi Jinping were elected into the standing committee of the Politburo. These two were supposed to be puppets chosen by former president Jiang Zemin. After the 19th Congress, these two are no longer content to act as puppets; they want to be real leaders. Making changes to the Constitution was symbolic of their intentions. And this is the greatest gift for us from God.

Second, Jiang Zemin and his son Jiang Mianheng, the true owners of the nation and Party, were both in bad health. When they are about to lose the strength to fight, China is to become a unipolar regime with only Xi Jinping and Wang Qishan in power. The balance in politics is broken.

Third, the autocracy by Xi and Wang is against the public opinion of the Chinese people.

Fourth, Xi and Wang is challenging the United States with the Belt and Road Initiative and other ambitions.

And importantly, both Xi and Wang are corrupt officials. When the truth of their corruption and sex scandals are fully exposed to the world, we will see the results. Whatever happens in the country, they must be cleared.

Miles says firmly, “Our Himalayas must be realized, and China needs the rule of law”.

Without CCP, China will not be in chaos, because ordinary Chinese won’t want the chaos, the military won’t want a war, the 90 million CCP members don’t want to be buried with the evil few.

With the elimination of those 5-6 vicious individuals in the leadership, the rule of law will be achieved in China.

With the rule of law, China's military must be nationalized, power must come from people's votes, and China must join the western civilizations with strategic and peaceful cooperation on equal footing. Then the Chinese will devote all efforts for economic and cultural development.

Miles says, "We refuse to change or reform the CCP. We need an evolution in China, not just revolution. China must be totally changed. CCP must be eliminated. This is not decided by me; it is decided by the timing, the circumstances and the will of the people".

Chinese are good people; they have many fine characters besides a long history of civilization. The 1.3 billion Chinese deserve the right to freedom and democracy; the Chinese deserve a bright future.

Rule of the Law: New Year message from Miles Kwok

Dear warrior friends, Happy New Year!

We have experienced a lot in the past year, the most meaningful and valuable 2018; we have created history. At this time of a new year, I would like to say three words of wishes to all my friends: I wish you and all your family healthy; I wish you and all your family in peace, and I wish you not be a loser in 2019. I myself expect no more than these three in the coming year, also my hope and wishes to you all.

Only with the rule of law could the ordinary Chinese people as well as China's politicians have a life of safety. Only with the rule of law could the country ensure its long term stability; and only with the rule of law could the people live and work in peace.

Only with the freedom in beliefs and religious worships under the rule of law could the Chinese people live a happy life. It is the only solution to the widespread moral deterioration and healing the impetuous souls of China.

Thirdly we must ensure the Chinese population becomes a force for peace in the world community; we must show the world a peaceful China. Only by returning onto the road of righteousness and justice could the Chinese nation win the applaud of the world and avoid their hatred as a result of moral deterioration.

The land of China has suffered great destruction, not fit for human inhabitation, as more and more people are doing evil. The ordinary people don't feel safe; the government officials don't feel safe either. When nobody feels safe in the country, there are severe conflicts and problems are hard to solve. Only with the rule of law and freedom in religious beliefs could China have a future of peace, so that the world would want to do business with us so that the 1.4 billion Chinese would breathe the same air with the world.

In China's history, great changes happened usually after huge disasters. China is now at its worst time; things couldn't be worse. I think, after our whistle blows and six years of inconceivable flips and flops, we have no more room for making more troubles. Only with China coming onto the road of justice and righteousness with the rule of law and religious freedom, and living with the world in harmonious co-existence, could every one of us live in safety, could every one of us feel safe with our wealth, and could every one of us live and work in peace.

There is no possibility that the so-called overseas democratic force would become leaders of a new government after the realization of democracy in China and act as representatives of the traitors. Please do not overestimate the strength of those fake democratic leaders active now in overseas countries; they have neither the abilities nor the ambitions to lead a democratic China. They might have been eliminated close to the entrance of a new government. Besides, they are looked down upon by the traitors who actually take them as rubbish.

But these people are also gifted by God to us. Why? These people have grown up in the CCP system; they have lost themselves in human dignity. These people, the same as those CCP officials, are very clear about the system with each trying to cheat or outwit the other. Within the system, the nation is under the rule of fake governance, corrupt officials and evil police. They have lost the respect to heavens in the cruelty and darkness within the system.

For decades of so-called reform and opening up, an evil ideology and corrupt communist culture have poisoned the living environment nurtured by Chinese ancestors for thousands of years. People under CCP rule have lost confidence in humanity; no one has a sense of personal safety; they fear death, sickness, and more.

The CCP officials in Zhongnanhai (official residence in Beijing) are so reckless in thinking that they can prolong their lives by organ transplantation. Therefore they willingly kill for organ harvesting. They even think their children can do the same for longevity and rule the country for thousands of generations.

These CCP officials are so deplorable that they have totally lost their nature of humanity and have kept away from the rule of the universe. Thus they have lost the ability for a normal and correct judgment of our living environment.

Those so-called overseas democratic leaders have responded accordingly to the traitors. They have built up their own social media accounts for donations, doing whatever the same as the CCP officials do in China, and hoping to establish a similar government overseas. They want to enslave some Chinese while trying to win their trust. They are not better than the CCP officials with immorality and loss of humanity after hailing 70 years rule in China. The western world, as well as most overseas Chinese, has become aware of their evil minds after seeing through their real faces.

The evil doings of those CCP officials and their overseas supporters actually have helped us with our whistle blows. They have helped strengthen our faith in justice and righteousness. They deserve their own fate. As a warning and a mirror to look into our own shortcomings, they also deserve our honor.

No CCP official within Zhongnanhai has the mindset, the outlook or guts to be noble people. Nobles or great politicians would first put the interests of the people ahead of their own. Noble people have the courage and sense of justice, but none of us has ever witnessed any courage and qualities of benefiting others in the life of CCP officials. What they have is greed, anger, ignorance, arrogance and loss of mind, apart from selfish desires.

Therefore I have said the year 2020 will be their doom. The heavens and earth shall cry if they were not eliminated. Demons shall dance across the world if they were not eliminated. The world would see no signs of peace if they were not eliminated.

Everything is just beginning.

Chapter 7

CCP's intelligence network and Grand Overseas Propaganda Campaign

Miles Kwok tells about Communist China's intelligence and its overseas networks

After Liu Zhihua, Deputy Mayor of Beijing, was jailed for corruption, a high-ranking CCP leader arranged a private meeting with me. I was told to change several cars in order to see him.

When he saw me, the leader asked, "Are you scared?" I said no. He asked, "Were you nervous?" I admitted I was nervous at the time of his arrest, worrying about the safety of my family.

The leader said to me, "Don't worry. When the tree falls, the monkeys will scatter. These evil people deserve a bad ending". I asked him, "If you happen to be in trouble, will the monkeys below you scatter as well?" He made no answer.

I accepted reality. When Liu collapsed, his followers were like the monkeys, but not all of them.

As you have seen, Liu's team, including his family, attacked me over and over. I had full confidence that they must end in disasters.

After the case, the Central government made a decision to take my personal security an official affair. Ling Jihua, Secretary of the Central CPC committee, Wu Guanzheng, Secretary of the Central Commission of Discipline Inspection (CCDI), and Ma Jian, Deputy Minister of the State Security Ministry, were responsible for my security. Nearly one hundred armed policemen with guns and a dozen vehicles were assigned to protect me 24 hours daily.

Once I was out on a business trip to Guangzhou and stayed at the White Swan Hotel. The security guards sealed the whole first floor for my security. Local Guangzhou city police were also at service, treating me like a standing member of the Politburo. I had asked them to release the protection because I took it the same as sending me to prison.

General Xiong Guangkai was Deputy Director and later Director of the PLA's General Staff Intelligence Department. I did not know him personally but I kept a close relationship with his department and the 3rd courtyard of his residence.

Ji Shengde was my leader in the intelligence department. He was an easy going person. One day in 1998, I saw him arguing with Xiong Guangkai at the State Guest House. He charged the general, "If you are that able, you can arrest me!" In the end, Ji Shengde was truly arrested.

Ji Shengde was a man of tastes, but he was executed for a case of only US$ 300 thousand. Before his arrest, China's president had sent out a message in Malaysia. I received a phone call in Beijing and immediately left the country from the airport. Two hours later, an order for tightening border security was issued.

They are no match for me in respect of intelligence.

Intelligence, information, and assassination shall not be the force in a civilized society. The real soft power that can win respect is economic development and happiness of the people.

Years ago, the State Security Ministry and International Liaison Ministry contacted me for talks. They asked me to engage in their intelligence but were refused. I only want to be a messenger in international relations.

The precious stones kept by Xiong Guangkai were valued at 30 billion yuan. He used warships to carry his wood carvings, precious stones and ivory carvings home. Army officials at lower levels liked to send precious stones to Xiong as gifts. His corruption was ten times more serious than Xu Caihou, Vice Chairman of the Central Military Commission.

I have been grateful to Deputy Minister Ma Jian. At that time an official from the CCDI said to Ma Jian, "Please do not use Guo Wengui, and do not trust him. He has international contacts, background in intelligence." Ma Jian defended me, arguing, "If CCDI has said Guo is an information agent, this would be my fault instead of his. I am in charge of anti-espionage and I am fully aware of his background. I know your sources. Guo Wengui looks a clever guy, but in fact, he is kind of naive." Ma Jian was right that I was naive. I was truly an amateur intelligence agent; my information has nothing to do with politics.

I want to mention Mr. Ling Qiang, an employee of my company.

Mr. Ling Qiang used to be the first department chief of the State Police Ministry. He was closest to its minister Tao Siju. Today, Sun Lijun took his place. The First Department is responsible for international intelligence and investigations, including the work in Hong Kong, Taiwan, and Macau. These agents have great power.

His elder brother Ling Di was also an intelligence officer, chief of the fifth department of the State Security Ministry. Their parents were both from the intelligence network of the Red Army. His father killed himself in prison with his own belt; that was a heroic story.

Premier Zhou Enlai assigned the brothers to work in the intelligence departments respectively of the Police Ministry and Security Ministry. After Ling Qiang retired, a Politburo member recommended him to me twenty years ago. That's why he became my employee.

Mr. Ling Qiang offended a present standing member of the Politburo because he kept evidence of his corruption and illegitimate children. He kept records of his crime in buying prostitution and taking bribery. In March 2015, Mr. Ling was taken away by armed forces at the gate of my Pangu Plaza.

I have kept a video for his arrest and how he was beaten at Pangu Plaza. I have watched this video over and over many times. Mr. Ling was a high ranking intelligence official and his family has done a lot for the country. But they ended in disasters.

In recent days, a US senator has summoned 72 other senators for a hearing and asked me to give a testament for things mentioned in my whistle blows, including the interrupted interview with VOA. I want to propose a "Thank-you America Day" because America has provided many Chinese people security.

I have told Hong Kong people repeatedly that I love Hong Kong, I love America. I first went overseas at a fairly young age; Japan was my first destination, then Hong Kong, then America. America has provided me protection for several times.

Beijing sent many officials to work in Hong Kong. There was a team of special agents under the leadership of Deputy Minister Ma Jian to follow these officials along, respectively for three to four years. Hong Kong officials have fears in taking bribes but they are greedy for sex. These special agents recorded their sex scandals -how they went for prostitution-and used these video to threaten the officials in traps. Still, the Central government arranged these scandalous officials to higher positions. These corrupt Hong Kong officials thus had no choice but to cooperate with the Central government to commit more crimes in Hong Kong. The CCP leadership forced them to obtain personal information and their transactions in local banks.

Regardless of the basic law in Hong Kong, police from mainland China recklessly kidnapped Hong Kong residents and took them to the mainland. This is a devastating blow to Hong Kong's legal system.

I have told you in my last whistle blow that a public relation company in Malaysia tried to lobby American officials for my extradition to China. The Chinese government also colluded with Abu Dhabi, Iran, and other Middle East countries, trying to get me back. They have tried for three to four years without any legal procedure or concrete evidence. Chinese state traitors promised that these foreign countries be exempted from their debts for helping with my extradition.

You must have learned about Jho Low and 1YMD of the corrupt Malaysia government. Jho Low was on the wanted list in America while the Chinese government did its best for his protection.

The overseas intelligence network is the core asset of Wang Qishan and other state traitors. Besides South East Asia, they have bought the best properties in Europe and America. Now CIA and FBI have known about their intelligence networks in Europe and America, but they have not been able to find out who is who over there.

Their scandals in Hong Kong have not been revealed yet. Are there any black houses in Hong Kong? How many policemen and secret agents were sent from the mainland to Hong Kong permanently? Did the Hong Kong police cooperate with these Chinese policemen? Are Hong Kong governmental officials under threats from the Central government? Do CCP officials launder money in Hong Kong? Does the Hong Kong government know about the crimes of CCP officials in the territory? According to my intelligence, huge amount of money is laundered into Australia and other countries through Hong Kong. CCP officials have cooperated with local criminal organizations in these transactions.

Of all CCP officials, only Wang Qishan and two to three other officials in the Political and Legal Commission know about the channels for laundering huge amount of money out of the country and the receivers in foreign countries. China won't allow the registration of these entities. The transactions were made person to person. So only these key officials learn about the individual dealers. These individuals pose a great threat to western civilizations, worse than nuclear weapons.

That is why the Chinese government has never taken any action to check the bank accounts of Wang Jian, Sun Yao, Guan Jun, Liu Chengjie and Yao Mingshan. With their intelligence network, all financial institutions in the west are under their control. They won't leave any records that can be traced with their transactions. Nobody would find that out; not even the US CIA. Although those are criminal acts, they are done in the name of a sovereign nation. Only countries like China and North Korea in the world have committed such violations.

At the same time, we have seen such traitors as Wang Qishan and Meng Jianzhu use state powers to implement censorship on the Party's 90 million members. They have the media control, the Grand Overseas Propaganda Campaign, the BGY schemes and 3F Plan against the United States. They have done all these to protect their unlawful assets and illegitimate children. They have violated the Party's disciplines with respect to the fact that their family members hold foreign citizenship, foreign passports, and shares in foreign companies. CCP's 3F Plan and BGY schemes will cause disasters to security to countries beyond the United States.

With its BGY schemes, CCP has set up a strong intelligence network in the US. In our communication, Bruno Wu has clearly told me that Li Dong from Beijing Security bureau is his brother brought up by his training. They have worked together in intelligence for many years. I will soon provide my intelligence about Bruno Wu to the US FBI. Bruno Wu has made all the arrangements of lawsuits against me in the US. They have trained the silent forces in the US, including Zhang Jing working for the Voice of America. A CCP leader from Beijing has made it clear to me that Zhang Jing is their agent.

And Bruno Wu's wife Yang Lan is also an agent in his plan. They work together to defame Miles Kwok, to interfere with my live interview with VOA besides other scandals. They also organized hackers to attack our computers. They have caused serious damage to the base of freedom in the US.

Everybody has known about the sex scandals of Yang Lan with Meng Jianzhu and Sun Lijun. You can check the Phoenix TV for the relation of its chairman Liu Changle and the two CCP officials. The TV station was always the most active in broadcasting the news about the Police Ministry and Meng Jianzhu's overseas visits. When Liu Changle was diagnosed with cancer, Meng Jianzhu was the first to see him in the hospital. There are thousands of enterprises under the administration of the State Security Ministry. Not only is Phoenix TV an enterprise under its administration and the director a secret agent, but Meng Jianzhu has a beautiful lover in the TV station who is a host. Meng Jianzhu spent millions to buy her a big house and a luxurious yacht in Hong Kong and whoever dares to offend her there would be arrested by Meng.

In 2007, Wang Chen from Xinhua News Agency wrote a report about Phoenix TV for Vice President Xi Jinping. According to his report, the State Security Ministry holds 80% shares of the television station, leaving the other 20% for Liu Changle and others. Ma Jian was then in charge. He had warned Liu Changle of his corruption. Liu Changle was so scared of persecution with his messy accounts of countless cash that he fell onto the floor with the warning.

The CCP intelligence network in the US used “black” military technology to control my yacht in New York and almost caused a disaster. They set a nearby vessel in a fire! When I shared the evidence to US officials, they said that was unbelievable. They were able to control my Lady May in New York Harbor. Do you think they could not control the Malaysia Airlines MH370?

These are the same words I am going to tell at the hearings. Years ago I asked a PLA leader, “At what level is China’s black technology used in the military?” His answer was simple and direct, “We can control the space docking of satellites. We are now able to control the launch of missiles from an enemy’s base and change their directions.” Now they have targeted my yacht at Hudson River. Do you think they are not able to start an internet war with the US?

That’s the work with Jack Ma’s help, besides others. Jack Ma of Alibaba has spent a lot of money to bribe the overseas Chinese media and thus joined the CCP’s overseas Grand Propaganda Campaign. He organized hackers to attack our computers and cell phones. Jack Ma has collaborated with the state traitors with his big data and huge amounts of cash. On October 4, I was invited to give a speech to US politicians in Washington about the financial threats from these CCP supporters.

For over 28 years, Chinese overseas democratic activists or Chinese media were threatened, suppressed, or bought in part by these financiers. Many of these activists have become CCP supporters in the west. There is now an interesting phenomenon overseas that Chinese spies are everywhere. They have covered up many scandals of CCP officials and their illegitimate children overseas. In Los Angeles, New Zealand, and Australia, there are suburbs called “Lovers Villages” or “Illegitimate Children Villages” of corrupt CCP officials. Most of these people have millions or even billions of cash in their bank accounts by corruption. These suburbs have widespread crimes of deception and money laundering. They are doing harm to the local rule of law and also a threat to modern democracy.

When Secretary Liu Yanping visited my apartment on the 21-23st of May in 2017, he was with three other information agents from the State Security Ministry. Many people thought I have recorded our conversation. Actually not! It was not done by me. When a hearing is held at New York Eastern Court, you will know who has done the job. CIA or FBI?

Why do Chinese state traitors like to store their money in Europe or the US? That way, they can easily satisfy their needs, murder their enemies, keep their power, and obtain the information they need.

They even have a plan to control President Xi Jinping. President Xi, please go and ask your wife Peng Liyuan and check with the Beijing Traffic Authorities. Or ask her younger brother Peng Lei to check the electric maps of his car with the monitoring equipment at the traffic control center of Beijing City under the Police Ministry. They won't destroy all the evidence of how they control every movement of your family in Beijing.

Or go to Peking Union Medical College Hospital and check your medical records, President Xi. Let your secretaries Li Zhanshu or Ding Xuexiang go and check things out. See how your medical information is 100% sent to Jiang Mianheng in Shanghai for the first moment. That was the job of Meng Jianzhu and Sun Lijun.

And President Xi, all your decisions on key issues, how you think or plan, who you want to arrest - all information is sent to Jiang Mianheng in Shanghai who later communicates with Wang Qishan before taking actions. Copies of all your important documents are kept in Shanghai.

I have intelligence from the mainland that recently the police departments in all provinces check the backgrounds of Twitter accounts of overseas Chinese. They have listed about 60 thousand names as their targets. The United Front of the State Security Ministry has sent secret agents to countries like New Zealand, Australia, and the US. Each team has several hundred members for intelligence purpose.

These people are sent overseas also to implement their BGY schemes.

Once I had a meal with the military officials from the Liaison Department of the Central Military Commission at the West Mountain in Beijing. That was the time when Chen Shuibian and Lian Zhan were competing for the presidency in Taiwan.

I asked them, "Who will win?" They said, "Lian Zhan." I asked why? In spite of their many reasons, Chen Shuibian won.

After the election, we met again for another meal. Very disappointed, they said, "Chen Shuibian is playing tricks, dirty tricks."

I asked what dirty tricks. One of the leaders said to me privately, "We also play tricks. But this time we lose." Years later Ma Ying-jeou came to the front to run and won over Chen Shuibian.

The same leader said to me, "This time we are in control. Ma Ying-jeou has no problem. He would listen to us 100 percent." I asked what he would do next.

The leader said while his colleagues were laughing, "Ma Ying-jeou will define the 1992 consensus as we have told him. Economic ties across the Taiwan Strait will become closer and he will put Chen Shuibian to jail! Our big carrot policy will work.”

I asked why. This leader told me privately, “Miles, we have controlled Ma’s private life for many years. All his movements are within our eyesight. The movements of his two daughters are also within our eyesight.” When he told me the details, I was totally convinced that Ma Ying-jeou has no escape!

I shall talk about Hong Kong too. Years ago I had a meal with a CCP leader in Shenzhen. During meal time, he dragged me away from the table to the courtyard and warned me, “Don’t contact Donald Tsang when you go to Hong Kong.” I asked why. He said that Donald Tsang must resign in a few months and he would be in trouble.

I asked why they were going to do harm to Tsang? This leader said, “Tsang is still a British in his blood. He does not listen to us. He acts against us with his soft policies. Our policies cannot be implemented in Hong Kong”.

The CCP leader said they want 100% agreement from Donald Tsang, not 95% or 90%. Later we truly saw lawsuits against him. Tsang was taken down, humiliated and charged of violations.

Mr. Tung Chee-hwa once said, "The most stupid thing at the time was to ask the British intelligence agencies to leave. There is no intelligence agency in Hong Kong." Today, no intelligence agent like Snowden could be found in Hong Kong.

Later, President Jiang Zemin, President Hu Jintao, Minister of Security Ministry Yan Huichang, Deputy Minister Xu Yongyue, Deputy Minister Ma Jian, and General Yang from the military met together and said, "We no longer have that because General Secretary Jiang Zemin had asked the British to withdraw all the intelligence agencies."

At the meeting, there was a decision to dispatch 3,000 intelligence agents to Hong Kong immediately. Later, they sent another 6,000 and the total number went up to 9,000. So from that day on, Hong Kong had 9,000 law enforcement forces and intelligence agents from the mainland. From that day on, there has not been any “one country two systems” in Hong Kong. First, it was a government policy; later it became the ambition of the state traitors. After deploying their own people in Hong Kong, they manipulate with their power in secret business and financial deals, control the rich people in Hong Kong and conduct money laundering.

They control Hong Kong's best assets, including Hong Kong people's insurances and futures, banking, pension funds, and securities. All the core assets of Hong Kong are now under the control of these traitors from the mainland. Article 23 legislation is to deprive the local people of their security and basic human rights. They have fully controlled Hong Kong people's livelihood, their future, and amenities for survival. Their future policy is to use Hong Kong people to control the Hong Kong people and let Hong Kong people fight Hong Kong people. We must not forget that the greatest strategy of communism is to provoke infighting, hatred among people, to use the contradictions of ethnic groups for stirring up troubles and turmoil, so as to achieve their goal of control.

From taking videos of Ma Ying-jeou's private sex life to punishing Donald Tsang of his alleged violations, the radical CCP group has safeguarded their interests in Taiwan and Hong Kong. They are not working for the interests of the nation or for reunification. They are working for their group interests in the name of the country.

The world should look to Malaysia and ask why Mahathir just bans foreigners from buying Forest City apartments there Malaysia will not allow foreigners to buy residential units in the US$100-billion Forest City project in its southern state of Johor bordering Singapore, Prime Minister Mahathir Mohamad said on Monday (26 August 2018).

Last week, on his official visit to China, Mahathir made it clear he canceled the China-financed $20 billion East Coast Rail Link and two gas pipeline projects in Malacca and Sabah because Malaysia could not afford them.

"We do not want a situation where there is a new version of colonialism happening because poor countries are unable to compete with rich countries," Mr. Mahathir said last week at the Great Hall of the People in Beijing after meeting with Premier Li Keqiang.

"I believe that China will look sympathetically towards the problems that we have to resolve and perhaps helping us to resolve some of our internal fiscal problems." He added.

Mr. Mahathir had vowed repeatedly before his China visit to discuss what he called "unfair" Chinese infrastructure deals authorised by former Prime Minister Najib Razak.

Mr. Najib courted Chinese investment and was a cheerleader for President Xi Jinping's Belt and Road Initiative in South-East Asia during his decade-long rule. On 3 July 2018, Najib was arrested by the Malaysian Anti-Corruption Commission (MACC).

The US Department of Justice has accused Mr. Najib and his family of plundering billions of dollars from that fund, 1Malaysia Development Berhad, or 1MDB.

On 21 September 2015, the New York Times reported that US investigators were investigating allegations of corruption involving Najib as well as people close to him. The US Treasury Department considers that associate, Jho Low, an exiled financier who has an arrest warrant out on him, to be the prime agent in the 1MDB scandal.

The US Department of Justice (DOJ) claimed in its suits that the businessperson was involved in multiple instances where 1MDB funds were allegedly misused, over US$4.5 billion alleged to have been misappropriated.

Jho Low is also accused of having used 1MDB funds to purchase the super-yacht Equanimity; jewelery for model Miranda Kerr and also a US$27.3 million pink diamond necklace for the wife of Najib Razak.

The Wall Street Journal reported last Friday that Malaysia believed Mr. Low was being harbored in China and that a request to extradite him would be high on Mr. Mahathir's agenda during his five-day trip.

The Wall Street Journal reports that Malaysian authorities believe Low is being given refuge in China where he is living as a free man.

"Mr. Low then began moving between hotel suites and luxury apartments in Chinese cities, including Hong Kong and Shanghai with his wife, two young children and close associates," the report said.

The WSJ previously claimed Low had a central role in the two Suria Strategic Energy Resources Sdn Bhd (SSER) gas pipeline projects which are believed to have been used to launder funds to bailout 1MDB.

Chinese exiled billionaire Miles Kwok (or Guo Wengui) has used Twitter and YouTube to expose the corruption of high-level Chinese officials of the Chinese Communist Party (CCP), including their illegitimate children. He believes that Jho Low is a son of Meng Jianshu, the former CCP Politics and Law Committee Secretary.

Miles Kwok mentioned that Meng Jianshu had been helping Jiang Mianheng, son of former General Secretary of the CCP Jiang Zemin, to undergo kidney transplant procedures several times and that the organs were all obtained from murdering people.

On September 6, 2017, Miles Kwok revealed information that the disappearance of Malaysia Airlines aircraft MH370 was a case of "political murder," and that aboard the flight were officials of the CCP involved in the live kidney transplants for Jiang Mianheng.

On March 8, 2014, Malaysia Airlines flight MH370 from Kuala Lumpur to Beijing suddenly disappeared in Vietnam airspace one hour after taking off. All the 239 people onboard were presumably killed.

This crime, if probed deeper, involved high-level infighting between CCP officials, and at the same time, proved that the insider information provided by Miles, who had once worked for the CCP National Security, can be substantiated and is valid.

"When Mr. Jiang Mianheng underwent his handful of kidney transplants from 2004 to 2008 in a hospital in Nanjing, it was all organized behind-the-scenes, a secret selection of people and kidneys, it was all undertaken by Meng Jianzhu and Shanghai Politics and Law Committee leaders and a few military leaders working together,” said Miles Kwok in the video that was made in his Manhattan apartment.

According to Miles Kwok, CCP and its top leaders have a secret plan “Ship Sinking” to make them survive a regime collapse, and Malaysia is one of their overseas bases for refuge. That’s why they are building the Forest City and other huge infrastructure projects there.

“These Chinese players build by the thousands at one go, and they scare the hell out of everybody,” said Siva Shanker, head of investments at Axis-REIT Managers Bhd. and a former president of the Malaysian Institute of Estate Agents. “God only knows who is going to buy all these units, and when it’s completed, the bigger question is who is going to stay in them?” A Bloomberg report stated.

Miles said these apartments are mostly for a million Chinese to be migrated to Malaysia, including many secret agents and even armed forces.

No wonder that the $100-billion Forest City project by the developer Country Garden Holdings Co has been planned to be home to 700,000 people. Now Country Garden has developed just a fraction of the planned reclamation of 20 sq km (8 sq miles), where Chinese nationals accounted for about 70 percent of apartment buyers last year.

This makes people to better understand the following statement in the New York Times:

“When the indebted fund began a fire sale of assets, two Chinese state-owned giants, the China General Nuclear Power Corporation and the China Railway Engineering Corporation, moved in, prompting speculation that Beijing was happy to keep Mr. Najib’s cash-strapped government afloat.”

Miles Kwok said these Chinese owned companies, under the pressure of the Jiang family, are helping Jho Low to keep the money safe.

According to Reuters, more than any other project, Forest City helped turn local sentiment against Chinese cash, amid suspicions that a private Chinese property developer was somehow secretly plotting to reshape Malaysia’s delicate ethnic balance.

Forest City is not a strategic play by the Chinese People’s Liberation Army to station warships in Malaysia. Nor is it viewed as a way for Beijing to finance the excesses of a corrupt leader. Instead, it represents something even more alarming to the average Malaysian — four man-made islands on which Chinese can live as they like and, in the process, dilute the Malaysian national identity.

“This is not Chinese investment but a settlement,” Mr. Mahathir said during the election campaign, using Forest City as a frequent punching bag.

Miles Kwok revealed that the CCP had planted its agents in major government departments of Malaysia by way of corruption and Secretary Meng Jianzhu pledged that “we have 100% control of Malaysia”. Miles said after Mahathir’s visit to China and his decision to cancel other projects, the CCP already has a plan to assassinate Mahathir, only letting the world know that he dies of old age.

Now we can understand better why Mahathir has taken the above actions to save his country and his own life.

Miles Kwok on movement updates of Jho Low

Yesterday (22 December 2018) Shanghai TV Station broadcasts the so-called disappearance of the scandalous Jho Low in Shanghai, raising concerns that Jiang Zemin’s family is openly at war with President Xi Jinping.

Miles Kwok has a different view.

“Shanghai TV Station is under the control of Meng Jianzhu. The so-called disappearance of Jho Low is his work, surely with consent from Jiang’s family. Please think, if Jho Low was murdered, Shanghai TV shall not be the first to speak out. It must be social media, especially the overseas Boxun, Dwnews or Mingjingnews, who would be the first to tell the news. And if President Xi and Jiang family are at war, there shall be no place for Shanghai TV to have the honor for related story.”

“But from their tricks, we can be sure that Meng Jianzhu is out again on stage. Through Shanghai TV, Meng is sending a message that Jho Low is no longer in Shanghai. He has left. Where about then? He might have gone to Abu Dhabi in the Middle East who can give him the second-best protection.”

“Jho Low has no other choices. Surely not Malaysia. If he goes to Japan, Europe, or other South East Asian countries, he would face arrests. He has only two places to go: Abu Dhabi and Russia. Russia might help give him some shelter. But he won’t choose to go for Russia, as too many people from both the mafia of gangsters and the legal force there would take him to hell. So, Abu Dhabi might be the only place for him to hide.”

“In the past 5-6 years, the bodies of the Police, the Procuratorate, the People’s Court, and the Discipline Inspection Commission were controlled by Wang Qishan, Meng Jianzhu, Fu Zhenghua, and Sun Lijun who had their cruelty of crimes. They have made the whole country their privately owned company, these bodies as different departments of the company.”

“I have met many American officials, who know Jho Low has committed many crimes in the US. We want to see the person if he is alive, and see his body if he is dead, they said. Jho Low not only offered bribes to US businessmen for the deportation of Miles Kwok, but he also gave bribes to officials of the US government, including the Justice Department.”

“In American history, we have seen corruption in the House or Senate, in the FBI and the White House, we have never seen any officials from the Justice Department accused of corruption. This is the first time, and it is done by Jho Low. And this Justice official has admitted his crime.”

“It is a disgrace that Jho Low is honored by the Chinese government a national hero, a contributor to Chinese state security, as his bribes have helped with CCP’s espionage expansion and the possible arrest of Miles Kwok.”

“Dear friends, do you know that the Chinese government would pay any price for Jho Low’s protection, the same price for the deportation of Miles Kwok? They want to make a deal with the US government that they would release as many US intelligence agents detained in China as the US government would wish in exchange for the freedom of Jho Low. This is a humiliation to US people. The CCP government is no better than a mafia of organized crimes.”

“CCP actually has detained many US citizens. In one case, the US has requested many times for the release of one American detained in Tianjin for a year. The US Embassy in Beijing has tried to coordinate many times, but they refused with all sorts of reasons. This time they agree, with the condition that the case of Jho Low shall be settled peacefully.”

“This is even more humiliating to the Americans. The communist state has assisted Jho Low to bring corruption into the US, and Jho Low was reckless with his sex and financial scandals in the US and across the world. He deserves execution by the judgment of justice. Why the Chinese government has done its utmost for the protection of such a criminal? Who has paid the price? The Chinese people! Chinese state-owned banks have paid for the finance of Jho Low by corruption in billions”.

“Jho Low was made a national hero by CCP as he has contributed to bring down the Najib government, taking control of the Malaysian legal departments, besides winning the Malaysia High-train project, the Forest City and other projects.”

“When the US government was hunting for Jho Low, the former Malaysian government under Najib did their best to protect him, together with the Chinese government. Jho Low has moved about in Shanghai, Hong Kong, and Macau. Most of the times, he would stay in the local government house or official residence of the CCP representative offices under strict protection of the police. That’s why the US intelligence agents have failed to track him down.”

“When we hear of the news of his whereabouts by Shanghai TV station, I am fully aware that it is an arrangement by Meng Jianzhu and Jiang Zemin’s family. Sometimes, Jho Low has leisure with girls from Shanghai TV station but most of the times he has other hobbies. The reason they have sent out the message of his disappearance from Shanghai is to deceive the Americans. To many Americans, Meng looks quite like a mysterious figure, but now they have come to realize the real face of his with my whistle blows. He has done a lot of crimes to the Americans with his international spy network”.

“The desperate CCP is giving dying kicks. The case of Jho Low is a drama. He will soon end up in disasters”.

Miles Kwok on China-US relationship

Two days ago (22 December 2018), US Department of Defense, FBI and office of Attorney General for National Security jointly charged two Chinese citizens of internet crimes. Chinese Foreign Ministry spokeswoman Hua Chunying said the US was fabricating facts, adding “the Chinese government has never participated in or supported anyone in stealing trade secrets in any way”.

That is only a case of minor importance in Sino-US relations. Sun Lijun and Meng Jianzhu have an army of over one million on the internet to target US interests.

If you have read the book Unrestricted War, you can see that the CCP has applied its BGY scheme in many forms in the western world, one of the key missions being hacking US companies and government departments.

The US government cares for the life of every single soldier at war while the Chinese CCP regime would sacrifice the life of any soldier for victory. When this war is fought on the internet, the Chinese government is making good use of high-tech like quantum computing and 5G as their weapons. That’s why we see the story of Zhang Shoucheng, Meng Wanzhou, and others. GPS is also a weapon in their hands, and they are building related facilities in Argentina. Besides, spies are sent to the west, to its colleges or universities, to set up Confucius Institutes, like Ms. Zhou Tiantian in the case of Wang Jian. She was a secretary from the local Chinese Consulate, used to work in a Confucius Institute, and maintains a good relationship with the French organization for corpse identification.

The Americans have woken up now. Deputy Attorney General Rod J. Rosenstein, U.S. Attorney Geoffrey S. Berman for the Southern District of New York, Director Christopher A. Wray of the FBI, Director Dermot F. O’Reilly of the Defense Criminal Investigative Service (DCIS) of the U.S. Department of Defense, and Assistant Attorney General for National Security John C. Demers, they are all professionals in the justice system. Their counterparts in China, like Sun Lijun and Meng Jianzhu, only act in recklessness with their so-called rule of law.

Yesterday we see the US’s regulatory investigation into the 213 Chinese companies listed on Wall Street. None of them, including Jack Ma of Alibaba, will prove their innocence in these investigations. Under CCP’s system, no company is expected to report on their true activities. Ask Jack Ma. Did he confess to the US securities regulatory commission of his CCP membership at the time of IPO? Was he honest about the true controller of Alibaba? Who are the fathers of Guan Jun and Liu Chengjie? Why the Chinese state banks were happy to lend them 100 billion yuan?

Those US and European officials were curious why the CCP had levied a fine of about US$ 10 billion on my company and confiscated my assets worth that amount in Dalian and Hong Kong. How can a government be so reckless with their legal system? These US or European officials were shocked when I showed them video evidence of communications with Wu Zheng, Sun Lijun, Liu Yanping and other CCP leaders telling about the reasoning behind their recklessness.

Most Americans have not been aware of the espionage network the CCP has applied in the US land. The story of Huawei and mysterious suicide of Zhang Shoucheng are only two minor examples. The real tigers are hidden within the US government departments. Secrets behind China's military build-up in the South China Sea, Argentina, Djibouti, and Panama are yet to be revealed.

Chinese vice-president Wang Yang has compared the Sino-US relationship to that of husband and wife when he talked about the WTO. When Wang Qishan last visited the US, he initiated the Sino-US economic dialogues. Every time the CCP makes an empty promise, the US trade deficit increases. Wang Qishan is good at telling lies.

Culturally China and the west have outstanding differences in sex relations. In the west, men or women have lots of sex friends before marriage; after marriage, they tend to be loyal to each other. In China, the love affair is just the opposite. Many men or women are still virgins at marriage; but after marriage, both men and women tend to have many lovers; therefore, they have to cover up things from each other.

In politics, things are similar. In western society, parties take turns to run the government in terms of 4 or 8 years. Leaders come and go, but the system does not change. In Chinese society, only one party dictates; it runs the government for life. Leaders will always be leaders. In the west, there is the division of power and responsibilities. In China, under the autocracy, the leaders hold the keys to everything.

China and the west have completely different ideologies, different ways of life. How can they get along in a marriage, as husband and wife?

The Americans have been deceived for 70 years in marriage but have not been aware of the deceptions. Do you see any reasoning in the metaphor?

Last month some US officials have labeled overseas Chinese students as spies, almost falling into traps of the CCP. I have told them not to think that way. Among these innocent kids, there might be the second Sun Yat-sen or China's George Washington. Chinese are good people, kind-hearted, with a long history and fine traditions. Chinese people are not your threats. CCP cannot represent the Chinese people.

The west shall only be "anti-CCP", not "anti-Chinese or anti-China". The west should be more open to ordinary Chinese, and be friendly with them. Chinese are inclusive with great patience. Sino-US friendship will be a great gift to the whole world.

With the arrest of Huawei CFO and revelation of Jho Low's crimes, the Americans seem to understand the truth behind those dramas.

Now the Americans are not happy with the recklessness of the CCP and they are taking the trade war seriously. It will be more than a trade war or economic war. It can also be an unrestricted war.

The Americans and their alliances in the west have no choice but to act against the CCP regime as CCP has started a deadly war.

And this is the best opportunity gifted from God, for us and for our 1.4 billion ordinary Chinese.

The Complete Success of China's Propaganda Work is an Absolute Nightmare of the Chinese and World Communities

President Xi Jinping says China's propaganda work has been "absolutely correct" as he addresses a national conference on publicity and ideological work held in Beijing on Tuesday and Wednesday.

Xi's remarks can be summarized as "raise the red flag high, win the people's hearts, bring up a new generation, uphold traditional culture, and improve global image".

Xi underlined holding high the banner of Marxism and socialism with Chinese characteristics. He says, "unity of thinking and gathering strength is the central part of the publicity and ideological work," stressing the importance of taking a firm hold on maintaining the right tone in public communication to boost morale and raise people's spirits in the Party and across the country.

CCP has been a master in extreme propaganda. During the Cultural Revolution, propaganda was crucial to the formation and promotion of the cult of personality centered around Chairman Mao Zedong, as well as mobilizing popular participation in national campaigns that caused the lives of millions of innocent citizens.

Instead of using the negative term "propaganda", Chinese government uses "publicity" with a more neutral connotation, despite the fact that its propaganda system is most of the time politically damaging, humanely violent and culturally destructive.

President Xi praises the national ideological work saying, "Practice has proved that policy-making of the party centre on propaganda and ideological work is completely correct, and the broad masses of officials on the propaganda and ideological front are completely trustworthy."

The Chinese government has used its evaluations of historical, public figures as a means of communicating to the public, labeling public figures either as villains or heroes, leaving little room for interpretation. Anyone with ideas away from this should go into “ideological remolding” or “thought reform”.

Since it came to power in 1949, CCP has caused complete devastation to colorful Chinese traditions. While ostensibly aspiring to a “Communist utopia,” it advocates so-called “keeping the essence and discarding the dregs”.

Xi added, “Superior traditional culture has been widely promoted, mainstream public opinion has been continuously consolidated and expanded, cultural self-confidence has been highlighted, national cultural soft power and Chinese cultural influence have been greatly enhanced.”

Since 2005, President Hu Jintao has promoted a “soft power initiative”, aimed at increasing China’s influence overseas through cultural and language programs. The “Grand External Propaganda Strategy” initiated in 2009 is a government project budgeted at 45 billion Yuan. That follows the setting up of hundreds of Confucius Institutes globally, “an important channel to glorify Chinese culture, to help Chinese culture spread to the world”.

China has approved the creation of one of the world’s largest propaganda machines as it looks to improve its global image and the new broadcaster will be called “Voice of China.”

The People’s Daily, the official newspaper of the Communist Party, explained in an article published in March that Voice of China “is the combination of China Central Television (including China Global Television Network), China National Radio, and China Radio International, and it will serve as an institution directly under the State Council.”

“We will improve our ability to engage in international communication so as to tell China’s stories well, make the voice of China heard, and present a true, multi-dimensional, and panoramic view of China to the world,” President Xi said yesterday.

China’s censorship has been notorious. CCP has a long history of fooling the public around with fake news, covering up the truth. The Chinese government regularly uses fake social media accounts and posts to attempt to shape online dialogues and steer discussions away from sensitive topics.

China shut as many as 128,000 websites that contained obscene and other “harmful” information in 2017, Xinhua reported in January, citing government data.

“Despite strict censorship, China has a fairly lively online community of bloggers, who frequently respond to the news with humorous – and sometimes risqué – sketches and short videos, although they often see their posts being taken down,” according to Reuters.

As always at the conference, Xi emphasized enhancing the overall Party leadership in publicity and ideological work.

With the most powerful propaganda mechanics like the sophisticated Nazi propaganda machine 100 years ago, the Chinese regime has successfully made use of modern mass propaganda techniques, adapting them to the needs of a country which had a largely rural and illiterate population. It has done it “beautifully” in China, and now it wants to do that again across the globe, poisoning more people.

Those arrogant Communist leaders have under-estimated the power of truth and righteousness. Besides we live in a different world now. This is a time of “We Media” for free speech. This is no longer a time of “cover-ups”, obscenity or “masturbation”.

As a matter of fact, if you tested the hearts of all the CCP Politburo members, none of them would truly believe in Communism or Marxism, including Xi himself.

The Chinese “absolutely correct” propaganda will soon be the joke of a century.

Know Miles Kwok, know China, and know the world

Key words: CCP corruption, Jho Low & Malaysia, Wall Street & G20 Summit, Chinese traditions

Dear friends,

I am going to tell you that few people really understand what's happening in China, especially about the political life of CCP officials.

Only some film directors learn something about that, like Feng Xiaogang. Why? Because around them are many beautiful girls or actresses who often tell about their stories with these officials.

In China, there is the Chinese Communist Party – CCP, the vicious CCP. Those CCP officials are capable of nothing but hard with their tongues and mouths, good at telling lies, like Foreign Ministry spokesman Lu Kang yesterday at the G20 press conference in Argentina.

Yesterday at the press conference in Buenos Aires, Lu Kang was supposed to invite his Foreign Minister Wang Yi to the stage for remarks, but he wrongly said, "Now we'd like to invite Miles Kwok to the stage". Isn't that funny? He was asking me to the stage! Does he have any problem with his tongue or mind?

So with CCP, there have been too many jokes. If someone really has a deep understanding of the CCP, he can make as many movies as he likes.

Let's talk a little more about G20. I have to hide something from you now, as I can't talk too much.

As you can see from my videos about Jho Low, what has happened proves what I have revealed about him was true. No one knew about Jho Low one year ago, but I have told that he is an illegitimate child of Meng Jianzhu, now under protection in Shanghai, and things about Parkland Hotel, Abu Dhabi, 1MDB, how he was involved in financial deception and was under US investigation. No one believed in what I said.

No one knew about his relationship with Najib or about those numbers. We have seen a Wall Street Journal report yesterday about 1MDB. In the following weeks, there will be more reports coming out about this.

The author of the popular book published recently about Jho Low came to me for an interview. I asked him three questions.

First, when Jho Low made his first appearance in business, he was only a young man of twenty years old. Why did Najib, as prime minister of Malaysia, trust Jho Low?... because of his fat, his height or his family wealth? I think, in Malaysia, 90% of people are taller and bigger, and many are wealthier. Why he has trusted Jho Low, and entrusted his wife, children and the whole family's fate on this young man, to create 1MDB with him, and join this cooperation with full resources of the whole country? What is their relationship?

Second, why Goldman Sachs, Wall Street, Hollywood, and the supermodel from Australia have all trusted Jho Low? —including several nations in the Middle East that are involved in his deceptions.

Third, why even the United States has not been able to catch him after he was convicted. After the collapse of Najib, Mahathir, with his strength of a whole nation, failed to get him back from China. His request for Jho Low's deportation was rejected. Why?

Jho Low is under protection in Shanghai, his treatment the same as state leaders.

I told this friend, "Your book is the most popular this year, a best seller, but you have failed to tell about the key points". This friend was astonished.

I can tell you the answers. The reason why Jho Low won Najib's trust is his background with Meng Jianzhu, China's intelligence agency and the Ministry of State Security, the first department of the Ministry of Public Security, as well as heads of Hong Kong and Macau. He also has the endorsement from Jiang Zemin's family.

Najib has believed in Jho Low, as he has betted on Meng Jianzhu, Jiang Zemin, and CCP's overseas intelligence network. He was willing to be trapped in their BGY scheme.

Jho Low has a trump card in his state of residence. No one knows he was born in Shanghai, and no one knows who his father is. He lived in Malaysia with Najib's endorsement. Wherever he went, he and his family were escorted by police, treated as a state leader. Even when he was out for sex play with girls, he was escorted by police.

Jho Low did whatever he wanted in Malaysia; he could take Chinese into Malaysia and hold them in custody. He was involved with many foreign investments in Malaysia. He could take part in any funds in Malaysia. These investors cooperated with Jho Low because they had trusted the Malaysian government.

People saw that Najib acted as his secretary. Besides, they saw his connections with Chinese officials like Meng Jianzhu, Wang Qishan and the intelligence body in Shanghai. They also saw his relationship with Wall Street bankers. With the endorsement of government powers in China and Malaysia and these banking individuals, he has won his investors.

A Crown Prince of Saudi Arabia, a friend of mine, used to be a world-class billionaire. Once at a meeting with me in Paris, he told about Jho Low who, in front of him, made a phone call to Meng Jianzhu, then head of China's police force.

He took out a picture of Meng from his phone and said to me, "That was the man. He was telling me: come to China! I will treat you as a state leader. I shall impose martial law for you at Chang'an Boulevard. Tell me what you want to do in China. Build a Hotel? Tell me which city? I shall have the mayor or party secretary to accompany you for an investigation tour. Jho Low, a member of my family ... Please take good care of him for my sake! You will make money here. In case you lose money, I shall pay you back."

Can you imagine? The general secretary of CCP's Political and Legal Committee talks things this way! And imagine! If he calls Najib in Malaysia, Najib would rush to his call even though he was busy in the toilet, with relies like "Come! Please Come! Malaysia is your second home!"

The Crown Prince asked for my advice, "Shall I go to China?" I said, "Please go!" He asked again, "Do you know Jho Low? Who is he?"

I told him, "He is the killer of officials and billionaires. He is the disease – AIDS of money and power. Whoever has a connection with him shall die instantly."

He did not believe me. This Crown Prince ended in disaster because he had not taken my advice. He ended in disaster because of greed.

The Hollywood film director Michael who directed Transformers also came to me with his friend, another director, for advice when they planned a film called "Wolf of Wall Street" in cooperation with Jho Low. I told them to keep a distance from him. My friend thus gave up his cooperation.

He now lives next to me, in another building here in New York. He has extended his sincere thanks to me for my advice, saying "Miles, if it had not been your advice to stop me, I would be in disaster too."

Another female model also took my advice to cancel her commercials cooperation with Jho Low; she has also extended her gratitude for taking my advice.

Friends!

Now back to the topic, let's talk about G20.

Dear friends, I want to ask you a few questions - simple questions. From some of China's important events in the past decades, say the Shanghai Communique, visits of Deng Xiaoping and Jiang Zemin to the United States, China's admittance to the WTO and Beijing winning the Olympics votes in 2001, we can say this year of 2001 was a golden time for China's being welcomed into the democracy of western civilizations. These were the gifts from the United States and the west.

2001 and 2008, these are the important years. The demon Wang Qishan won his reputation in 2008. Hell or paradise, he was selected to be a vice-premier. Then we saw the development of HNA Group.

During the same period, Xi Jinping made his name known onto the international arena. From 2008 to 2012 and from 2012 to 2018, these two periods, very important events happened like the WTO entrance and the Olympics Games. The U.S. now regards these events as shameful, when they felt deceived by China.

As a result of WTO and Beijing Olympics, China has made historical achievements. And at the same time, it has created some of the worst disasters in history, environmentally, humanely and politically. Because they have the money, they become more reckless.

To a great extent, the United States has its stupidity. The Americans have spent 17 years to help them out. But what have they got in return? Deception; environmental, humane and political disasters, as well as recklessness in the rule of law; fears in Taiwan and Hong Kong; stricter control on media.

Things like the disappearance of photographer Lu Guang in Xinjiang, which has attracted widespread attention in the west, the one million Muslims in concentration camps, and the names of so many who we have mentioned at the 11.20 Press Briefing.

Do you think CCP can solve all these problems in three months? This is my first question.

Secondly, can all the problems accumulated in the past 17 years within the CCP be solved by just one contracted agreement?

Thirdly, the so-called trade deal this time – even the tariffs were all canceled, or returning to what they were months ago with their WTO practices, do you think China will stay the same for another 17 years? Will the United States give China another 17 years?

Fourthly, when President Xi Jinping goes back to China after the G20 summit and put his deal with Donald Trump into practice, I mean the deal on the table not under the table: in three months, no added tariffs, China buying more of US agricultural products, energy resources like gas, petrol, protection of intellectual rights, stopping hacker attacks, etc. (And many others under the table which we can't see.), do you think President Xi can keep his promises?

Fifth, if President Xi succeeds in fulfilling the deal, who will be the biggest winners? It's Miles Kwok and all the Chinese people. This is the same as Emperor Song Taizu's "removal of military power by means of cups of wine". That's China's surrendering to the United States, "Friend! Put down your arms, and let's drink the cups of wine."

If that is the case, President Xi will be a great man who makes history. Those people at the G20 summit will all become great historical figures, including the ridiculous Foreign Ministry Spokesman Lu Kang. I would like to pay him a visit from time to time if that was the case. And I am sure Ms. Yang Lan would also “come to his office to look for keys” – (funny proverb meaning having a sexual intercourse).

Sixth, if President Xi fails to keep his promises, who will be the biggest losers or winners? The same, all the Chinese people and Miles Kwok will be the winners. Why? Do you think the United States would say YES to their inaction?

Seventh and last question, dear friends, is 3 months a long period of time? We have waited for 70 years; 3 months is easy waiting for us. What will happen in three months, do you know? Remember my 3 questions here.

Where did Donald Trump go before the G20 summit? Whom did he meet? Check the US newspaper of those days, in the west, California, the Malibu fire. President Trump is extremely smart when it comes to dealing with China in trade and other issues. I think, he must be the winner in this respect. This is my first question.

My second question – Peter Navarro, one of Trump’s most trusted advisers – Did you see him two weeks before the G20 summit? Where’s he been and what has he been doing?

Thirdly, I am telling you that, look, what actions the United States will take with its military and other policies in the issues of Taiwan and Hong Kong, intellectual property rights, monetary policies?

I can tell you responsibly that this G20 summit is the greatest gift to us from the heavens. Last night I told some of my fund managers that I would like to bet with US$ 5 billion, with the earnings to be donated to the Rule of Law Fund.

I told them that an agreement would be reached at the G20 meetings, after which the stock markets will go higher. Then after some problems in the US are solved with that, the markets will go down to a level beyond anyone’s expectations, like the machine guns shooting 5000 bullets per minute. No managers dare to join my gambling.

About China A-stocks or H-stocks, to Chinese investors, if you can win something when the market goes up for a while, grasp it and run fast. After three months, you will have no opportunity to get away from it.

I have warned my funds’ managers with similar words.

Days ago in Washington, a friend of mine asked how I think of the G20 meetings. I told him my viewpoint, same as above.

This friend gave me a very important point, saying, all the problems in China and US relations in the past decade arose from CCP’s money laundering as well as dissemination of its vicious ideology by people like Li Shenzhi, a left Maoist from Chinese Academy of Social Sciences, Hu

Xijin, chief editor of Global Times, and especially Meng Jianzhu, secretary of the CCP Political and Legal Committee, and Wang Qishan, secretary of Central Discipline Inspection Commission.

“Wang has his influence in Wall Street New York and London, besides Hong Kong”, he said, “Wang has his special abilities in finance. The United States has felt the threats from him.”

I told him: Bo Xilai had underestimated the cruelty of these people like Wang, and their practice of Thick Black Theory, which resulted in his catastrophe. The same was with Ling Jihua who naively ignored their conspiracy and overseas influence.

Whatever happens, we shall bring an end to CCP’s rule and its officials as state traitors in China by 2020. They have kidnapped the Chinese for too long.

By then, we shall look again into the case of Bo Xilai, the death of Ling Gu (son of Ling Jihua) in the traffic accident, the case of Zhou Yongkang, besides others, and we will trace the whereabouts of the tens of millions or billions of dollars confiscated with these cases.

This friend of mine, who has just met with a subordinate of Jack Ma, asked what really has happened to Jack Ma.

I told him: to speak the truth, Jack Ma has been forced to hand over everything. I am not going into details of what it means by “everything”. They announced that Jack Ma is a communist party member, leaving him no way out for escape. As I have said earlier, his family members, the same as families of other entrepreneurs in China, have been confined from leaving the country. Or they cannot leave the country together with their families for a tour overseas.

With the case of Jack Ma, the Ministry of State Security has its arrangement, and that includes how the government will manage his money. Jack Ma is not free to just give out his money and leave. He is forced to manage the money by himself and make more money out of that. This is no better than raping him.

“Yes! I have raped you. But you must keep your manners, and do your makeup. Next time when I am to rape you, you need to look more beautiful. This is the fate of Chinese entrepreneurs: raped, but forced to speak out their sexual pleasures.”

I am telling you, Jack Ma, you have your South China Morning Post defaming me one day after another. You have spent lots of money, recruiting killers for my assassination. In the end, see what you have been up to, raped by CCP. You have raised your ass while looking for keys, but they raped you from behind. How deplorable you are!

Historically, Chinese people have looked down upon businessmen because they mostly put profits ahead of morality. That was a historical tragedy. But we see some reasoning from traditional thinking. Those deplorable people have their points to be deplorable.

In 2014, I have told about similar reasoning to my friends in London, when there was a book just out of print about Jack Ma, asking this question: "Is Jack Ma a genius or liar?"

My opinion was, "Jack Ma is a liar," and at the same time Jack Ma is a fluent genius in the hands of the CCP. He is a tragic liar.

Dear friends, please think, 70% of Chinese private enterprises or entrepreneurs have been socialized by the government, their wealth taken away. The numbers are frightening. Do you think that in three months with the G20 agreement, the CCP would return the money to those private businesses? Would the CCP return the money to Jack Ma, freedom to the arrested photographer Lu Guang in Xinjiang, and thousands who went missing under mysterious circumstances, as I have listed on the wall at the 11.20 Press Conference? That is impossible.

I give an example, the case of Wang Jian. I am telling you now, another time, that the truth behind the death of Wang Jian must be brought to light. Things can be easily done in four steps:

First, unearth the coffin and examine his body. We already have contacts with the US Customs, which you can check online, about his case. This is the key step, and we are doing this right now.

Second, an investigation by FBI – No one can stop this from happening. Today when I am saying this, we are not submitting a request; it is something that is underway.

Third, the morgue in France where they laid down Wang Jian's body and the two drivers involved in the transportation of his body, the three people at the scene of the incident – no one can change the facts. We have videos as firm evidence to tell the story.

Fourth, the money – the whereabouts of Wang Jian's wealth after his death, his Wechat messages for three weeks before his death.

When these four points are brought up together, they will become firm evidence to support the accusations, and the truth will be brought to light.

When we exclude the possibilities of death by aging, sickness, and suicide, the only possibility is murder. Who has murdered Wang Jian? Sun Jinghao? Pei Nannan? Tian Ding? Or Heous Hua Bin? – the CCP? The answer is clear, very clear.

When the truth is publicized, do you think Chinese entrepreneurs would have fears of their own fate?

Why the shares of Wang Jian have to return to HNA Group? Who are the real fathers and mothers of Guan Jun and Liu Chengjie?

I know that Mr. Wang Qishan, before my 11.20 Press Conference, made a phone call to ask the Chinese government to stop the conference, but failed in his attempt. The Chinese government rejected his request to stop or put pressure on my press conference in the name of the government or country. This is the first time I have revealed this, friends.

China's Foreign Ministry refused to put pressure on the US government to stop the press conference!

After the 11.20 press briefing, the uneasy Wang Qishan made a phone call personally to his Wall Street supporter, I am not going to name who, and with reference to the White House, expressing his fury in three areas:

First, Miles Kwok has posted a photo of my family onto the wall, and this severely violates our privacy. See, this man has killed millions, and he is not happy with my putting up his family photo there. People in the White House have laughed at Wang's complaint.

Second, Wang said, "I have to say something about Guan Jun, as many people have taken him as my illegitimate child." I did not say at the press briefing that Guan Jun is your illegitimate child, Mr. Wang, I only said "a mysterious figure". People in the White House only laughed at this too.

Third, Wang said, "some of the flight records put up there were false, some correct." Hey! Comrade Wang! Clap! Clap! You have helped me a lot! You only have to confirm the truth of one record!

Only one percent is evidently sufficient if it proves to be true, and you are doomed!

After Wang Qishan finished his phone call with Wall Street, he regretted.

I am saying to you, Mr. Wang. Do you think you are the only Chinese who has a friendly relation with Henry Kissinger? I have known Henry Kissinger for a long time. He was once on board my private jet; he visited my Pangu Hotel a couple of times; he lives just close by here in New York. Tell me, who you have known best in America does not have the acquaintance with me?

I have asked nearly all your acquaintances in the US, "Why do you like to have a relationship with Wang Qishan?" Their answer was straight and simple: "Because he can help us make more money in China or enter the Chinese market, that's it". Bloomberg is no exception, although he has praised you as the most powerful man in China.

When you, Wang Qishan, have become rubbish or a burden in the world, no westerners would come close to you any longer. They are so realistic, you know that.

What has struck me most – I have learned something from it -I remember years ago the three most influential foreign families in London: the families of Saddam Hussein, Muammar Al Gathafi, and Nicu Ceausescu.

When his son Uday Saddam Hussien made his appearance on London streets, he seemed to be the king of London. At Hilton hotel or Parkland Hotel, all his own properties, at Cambridge, Oxford, he was the center of public attention.

Days before the demise of Saddam Hussein, Oxford was the first to keep a distance from his family, asking them to take the money and leave. In the end, all their assets in Britain were confiscated.

That was when I first saw the cold-bloodedness of the western world, but at the same time, justice was with them.

The second family Gathafi from Libya -Oh, my God! -At that time Britain, France and the whole of Europe had treated Gathafi almost as God. Compared to them, I was just a person of less importance. The night before my meeting with the Rothschild family, I was almost sleepless. He had invited me for breakfast, after which we became good friends.

I also witnessed Gathafi's collapse in Europe. When he was in trouble, all his family assets in Europe vanished without a trace.

And third, Ceausescu, how influential he was in Europe at his prime! His lovers in London could tell people around. You all know how he has come to his ending.

Mr. Wang Qishan, you are too naive. You are powerful in China, fooling people around with Meng Jianzhu because you have guns and cannons. If you gave a bit of your power to me, I would have been much powerful than you, millions of times more powerful!

A US official said to me recently, "Wang Qishan is a very smart person." I told this official, "I don't think so, not because he is my enemy. Let me tell you, a smart person will not accumulate so much money for his kids. If he was smart, he would not have let Bloomberg say in Singapore that he is the most powerful man in China and in the world. A smart person won't make so much money for his own subordinates like Tian Guoli, Tian Huiyu, Zhou Liang, Kang Diao, and his family members like Guan Jun, Liu Chengjie, in addition to HNA Group, and so apparently. He created Bohai Leasing Company Ltd and HNA Group. Do you think he is smart with that? A man of great wisdom looks slow-witted. Wang Qishan has his little cleverness, but he is both stupid and corrupt. A man without humane beliefs or respect to heavens can never be categorized as a man of wisdom." This official agrees.

And I continued, "Wang does have his small cleverness. This life he has many women and none of them have betrayed him. Wasn't that remarkable? I agree. He is never tight with money. When these women asked for a million, he gave away ten million. And he does maintain a good relationship with all of them."

"Like Ms. Gao Yanyan and Ms. Yang Lan – please come bring about court charges against me, mistress! When Gao's husband comes, Wang leaves; when Gao's husband leaves, Wang comes. He treats all these women well. All his secretaries and subordinates have been promoted to important positions and made lots of money. He has treated them in brotherhood. None of them has betrayed him. So I said he is remarkable.”

Wang Qishan follows his own rules, but they have nothing to do with the rules of justice. He has played low. A man at his position shall have some historical viewpoints; he shall not be content with brotherhood and good relationship with women. Does he have a great wisdom? Or is he a smart person? NO!

When Wang Qishan made the personal phone call to Wall Street, my idea is that this man is getting old, and his prime time is over. He has problems with his brains now, if not cancer.

And with the brains of Meng Jianzhu, he is also mentally ill. What he has done in Malaysia and the Philippines, the Laos, and Burma, with Operation Mekong, his speeches in the Middle East, his arrogance in Turkey Europe – he is nothing but a gangster.

Meng once said, “Jho Low, under my protection in Shanghai – no one could even touch him! My armed police – special police unit will provide protection. Wherever he goes, he shall be treated as a state leader. He can open special accounts in the banks. His safety relates to state security. No one shall ever touch him!”

You see, he truly acts like a gangster in my country town, talking big and bullying people in my name.

Meng does not have to talk things big this way. Why? He also plays low, without lofty goals in life or respect to god.

Jho Low will be Meng’s disaster. Everyone seems to have a sure and disastrous enemy in life. In the case of Bo Xilai, his disastrous enemy is Wang Lijun. In the case of Zhou Yongkang, his disastrous enemy is Meng Jianzhu, and Wu Zheng, Yang Lan, too.

Meng must die in the hands of Jho Low.

In relation to Malaysia, could Jho Low be caught and brought to justice in the US?

Let’s wait and see.

Dear companions!

Don’t worry! Those who have done evil must be penalized. Over the past year, we have seen so many of them, either imprisoned or arrested. Please look back 10 years, those holding high official positions in China’s political scene in 2008 – how many of them are still in power today? Those Chinese government officials in 2006 – how many of them are still alive?

When I first started my whistle blows two years ago, several high ranking officials questioned me,

“Hey! Miles, are you sure you are going down that way? ” I said to them, “I know the possible consequences: either murdered by them, poisoned to death, or just die for it.” “Is it worth?” they asked, “If my death can bring about freedom and democracy to the Chinese people, I am willing to risk my life! Absolutely! I have been waiting too long for this.”

And I have prepared to wait for another 10 years. How old is Wang Qishan? How old is Xi Jinping? Do you think CCP still has its life in 2035? No 2035 for them, not even 2025!

Friends! Victory shall belong to us! For sure! It’s only what price we have to pay, in what form, and when. But victory will surely come; it must come before 2020.

I once talked about the year 2020 in Washington D.C., and people there laughed at me. Two years ago, they said they don’t believe. But today when I am telling them the same thing, these US officials all agree, “We all believe in you, Miles!”

I have to hide something from you, but you will see them later. G20 is an arrangement by God; 11.20 press briefing is help from God. All our companions today are shouldered with a mission from god. All of you, friends, form the most important part of our efforts towards that victory. We deserve this victory.

The doom of Jho Low, Fu Zhenghua, Meng Jianzhu, Sun Lijun, and Wang Qishan, is all the same an arrangement by God.

Just think, in the era of President Hu Jintao, even if Hu Jintao or Premier Wen Jiabao was caught and put in prison, what would happen to China? Not much change, I guess. There might only be some turmoil within the party.

Only now is the time. On the very first day when I started my whistle blow, I have said that in today’s China, only these 5-6 persons or less than 10 persons have kidnapped the 1.4 billion people.

According to statistics by the US government, my whistle blows in the past two years accumulates to 560 gigabytes of data, including files with Youtube and Twitter. The US government has downloaded, studied in full and carefully every detail of my whistle blows.

As I have said, problems in China are mostly caused or controlled by these 5-6 individuals. If these individuals are eliminated, China will be liberated and go onto the road by the rule of law, and the Chinese people will have freedom, democracy and the rule of law. All US experts in this field who I have met agree to what I have said.

This is an arrangement by god. By eliminating a few individuals, China is liberated, a vicious system is eliminated, and the whole world is saved. This is the best opportunity gifted by God.

Go and ask – how much Chinese hate the Chinese government? 99% of Chinese like to see its downfall. Historically, we have never seen such a phenomenon. 99% people in Hong Kong and Taiwan have fears.

I have said in my whistle blows that the fear created by CCP is our opportunity. Now I want to add, the fear created by CCP is a gift from God. Every single resident of Xinjiang's 50 million population wants to see their collapse; every single resident of Tibet's tens of millions wants to see their demise. Even 99% CCP members want to see the collapse of CCP.

Recently I heard about Cui Tiankai, Chinese ambassador to the US, who accused the US government of "calling overseas Chinese students as spies". Of course, those are false and absurd accusations.

Cui Tiankai is not a bad person. He has to say those words as he has worked for the vicious government. He is a leftist, but having worked in the west for a long time, he has a correct understanding of what is going on in this world. I have never criticized him, different from the Foreign Ministry spokesman Lu Kang and the Foreign Minister Wang Yi, who are both bastards.

Like Cui Tiankai, Yang Jiechi also has a clear mind of what's going on in this world.

I have told the Americans: Please don't say "anti-Chinese or anti-China". Chinese are good people with a great civilization. Two days ago, three Americans came here for a visit, including Steven Bannon. Two times I saw Bannon drop tears over the persecution of Chinese.

Bannon visited China and Hong Kong when he was a youngster. He learned about the goodness of the Chinese people but felt sad for their suffering.

At that time, Ronald Reagan was advised that the Soviet Union's collapse needs a process of at least 40 years. Reagan said, "I only have eight years". In the end, he succeeded in nine years to bring down the Soviet Union.

At that time, the population under the rule of Soviet Union was about 1.4 billion, the same as China's population today. Regan did not realize that another 1.4 billion also needs to be liberated. These American friends all felt very sad for the suffering of the Chinese people.

I was deeply moved to see Bannon's teardrops. I could see he was trying hard to hold his tears. Another time he dropped tears the same day was when he saw the little child falling down onto the floor from her mother's shoulder after being struck by Chinese police. He was so struck that he suddenly burst into tears with the horrible scene.

They now understand my saying "don't say anti-China or anti-Chinese, but anti-CCP." And President Donald Trump understands and makes his change too. We all love Chinese and Chinese culture. We stand up against the Communist Party, its reckless and vicious government. There is now a consensus here.

Never say that all overseas Chinese students in the US are spies; it is impossible. Many Chinese have worked hard for generations, with a purpose to send their children to the US for education. They have run out of China for sunlight in the US. They have come for freedom. No one wants to work for the CCP. They want to stay in the US and never go back there. They are not spies.

A US intelligence official said, "Miles, what you have said today is very important to us. We will take notes of every word of yours. We will report this to the government and will have a policy on this issue."

I said to these officials, "Friends, I beg you for these kids while facing the US national emblem with that eagle. My companions have sent me messages to express their worries and protests. I am telling you today to stop calling these kids spies. Let me come to the words of Cui Tiankai again. CCP hopes very much that the US government would say such words, calling all Chinese students spies. No Chinese students shall dare to come. Who do you think will they hate? The US government! America!"

"CCP has been the best player in setting people at loggerheads. That is a devil party good at making misbelief between people, and stirring up confrontations. You shall not be going into their traps. If you check these kids' identification, with doubts that they might be spies, these kids will plant hatred in their guts. They will dislike Americans."

With this, I have gained their applauds. And I have received more positive feedback from these US officials. In reality, most Americans like the Chinese, and are very friendly; they shall never label all Chinese students as spies.

The day before yesterday, I had dinner with Paul Jenson (this name might be wrong), a Cabinet secretary under Tony Blair, in charge of UK intelligence. He has maintained a friendly relation with the Chinese government in liaison with anti-terrorism and North Korea issue. I first met him in 2007.

He has an elder brother Charles (needs verification), also a Cabinet secretary under Margaret Thatcher. Their father served a similar post in Winston Churchill's office. They have a family history to hold positions of state secretaries.

Charles was the godfather of Bo Guagua, the son of former Politburo member Bo Xilai and his wife Gu Kailai. It was Charles who introduced the British businessman Neil Heywood to Bo's family.

Before Paul went for tours to China and North Korea, he often came to me for advice. He said I am 100% correct on issues about China and North Korea. I used to tell him stories about the families of Jiang Zemin, Zeng Qinghong, Zhu Rongji, Bo Xilai, Wen Jiabao, Xi Jinping, and Li Keqiang.

Paul told me that he just returned from a trip to China. He said he saw photos of Xi Jinping posted all over on street walls, big or small. Everyone lives with fear. All officials refuse to talk about Wang Qishan. He said that fear was frightening.

Paul and his brother Charles were all members of the UK delegation during the handover of Hong Kong's sovereignty to China. They played a very important role in related dialogues. I have blamed them for causing disasters in Hong Kong. Although he felt sad every time with these words of mine, I continuously blame them for the wrongdoings.

I will talk about the details in the future. Some of the so-called facts look ridiculously funny.

According to Paul, China is going under some dramatic change. He said he loves China, and westerners like him already have a 180-degree turn-over view about the CCP government. In the past, it was a relationship by competition and threats. Now it is a relation between enemies.

He agrees to what I said that CCP has become the public enemy of humanity.

It was this friend Paul who introduced me to Dalai Lama for a meeting, together with a very beautiful lady from the UK military intelligence agency and others from the US intelligence department.

I told Dalai Lama, "Please don't touch my head. If you are a god, please do something with your magic power and eliminate CCP in Tibet. Let's forget those supernatural things and sit down to talk business of common concern: how you can go back to China, liberate Tibet and be a religious leader there."

The world is changing fast, friends. As Steven Bannon is coming soon for a discussion on our Rule of Law Fund, its constitution and strategy, I am going to say goodbye now. I am telling you that our legal team is working hard to take actions against those overseas traitors who have worked for CCP.

Dear friends, you are the source of my power and courage; you are my goal; you are my family.

Forget about G20, but remember our 11.20 press briefing and Wang Jian. Together, we shall prevail.

Dear friends, let me tell you a story today.

Every year on the fifth day of Lunar New Year, I used to pay a visit to a Taoist priest in a remote mountain. I have not seen him for years now.

Last time my tour to meet him was with a leader from the Chinese Communist Party (CCP) Central Commission for Discipline Inspection on a fighter jet. That was a small fighter jet hired from the military as my private jet was a bit too big for the small landing ground in the mountains. The leader's family was also with us on the trip.

After the visit with the Taoist priest, this CCP leader was promoted and his forty-year-old wife was pregnant, which we thought was quite magical.

Every time I went to see him, this Taoist priest was very pleased to tell my fortune and curious about me too. I actually introduced him to many CCP leaders.

One thing I think quite agreeable for this Taoist priest is that he never asked me for money. And he did not have many visitors to his residence in the remote mountains.

Then I was such a silly young man that I just bowed to any gods or spirits. Once I followed Lin Qiang, a CCP director from the Ministry of State Security, to meet in mountainous Yunnan province a fortune teller Wang Lin who fooled me around for seven million yuan. I transferred 7 million to his bank account the same day we met him. Wang Lin bought a luxurious car with the money.

In those days, I often traveled to remote mountains in Chengdu and Chongqing and other southwest mountainous areas to meet similar “masters with superstitious powers”.

From this experience, I made the statement that “politics and religions must be separated; religious figures or organizations must be denied from finance”. Otherwise, the world could be in chaos.

When I went to visit Wang Lin, I saw on the walls of his residence many photos of himself with nearly all CCP leaders, live or dead. I saw photos of all the celebrities and family members of those CCP leaders. When I sat together with him, he often made phone calls directly to provincial governors or CCP secretaries, talking about huge trade deals of train-load of coal or petrol.

Wang Lin finally went to his doom of destruction, naturally as a result of his frauds. He often called himself an impersonator of certain Buddhisavas or spirits, telling about his dreams of enthronement in the name of those spirits.

Let me come back to this Taoist priest. He was a lot different from Wang Lin. He never talked high of himself or claimed to have magic powers. Still, I gave him five million US dollars. That was in 2002 or 2003. I had a whole truck loaded with the 5 million in cash which he accepted with pleasure.

This Taoist priest was right in some of his predictions but not all. For example, he was wrong in predicting the results of CCP’s 17th Congress. He was mostly wrong in his words about President Hu Jintao except that “President Hu might be safe into the 18th Congress, but he won’t survive the 19th Congress.”

When I asked him about the situations during the 18th Congress, he predicted, “Monsters and evildoers will be dancing around. President Hu will be in danger after stepping down.” He advised me to keep away from the “monsters and evildoers” as far as possible.

It seems he was right to tell about the appearance of monsters and evildoers in the country. We have seen after President Xi Jinping came to power at the 18th Congress, the country has been kidnapped by evildoers.

I was told that Zhou Yongkang (former general secretary of the CCP's Central Political and Legal Commission) met this Taoist priest once. He gave Zhou three characters 命、欺、杀 which means “doom, lies, murder”. I think he was right in telling about the fate of Zhou.

I asked him, “When will the CCP be ended?” He stared at me with a strange look, closed his eyes for a moment, nodded but gave no answer.

I asked him, “Why Wang Qishan hates me so much? Zodiacally, he is a rat; President Xi is a snake.” I also mentioned Qu Long who was also a rat. He told me, “This Qu Long is a villain; you must be careful with his person and keep away from him. But he will end in disaster.” He continued with Wang Qishan, “This person is a demon, a demon in hell.”

I said to him that President Xi and Wang Qishan have kept a good relationship. But this veteran Taoist priest said, “NO! NO! No! They will fxxxk, fxxxk, fxxxk each other!” He also told about Sun Zhengcai in a similar fight. That's why I have kept a distance with Sun.

Please! I am telling you, friends! Yesterday I talked again with this Taoist priest by phone.

Every time I met him before, he asked me to talk first, as much in detail as I could.

Yesterday I told him, “In the past days and months, the rivers and lakes are getting warmer and warmer. Domestically and internationally many important events occurred. Venezuela has come to its doom...”

As I have seen, whenever similar things happen, the Chinese Foreign Ministry will stand out to warn the United States and its western allies of interference in others' internal affairs. When the Chinese government says such these words as ‘interference in other's internal affairs’, this country must soon come to its end. The same is with Iraq, Libya, Yugoslavia, next Cuba, and then North Korea.

We will soon see the rise of South East Asian countries, like Vietnam, India, Pakistan, Burma, and Cambodia. Those who have been persecuted by red communism will soon rise up.

Economically, we see after the China-US trade talks, before the deal is confirmed, the stock markets in Shanghai went up somewhat crazily. But the fact is, all major shareholders have fled the country. Private entrepreneurs are all trying to leave the country. All across China, demons and evildoers are dancing in craziness.

I am going to tell you, friends, 80% of my audience, people who watch my whistle blows since the Lunar New Year, have expressed their dissatisfaction in my performances. They disagree with my notion of “no fight against President Xi Jinping”, thinking that as an unpractical thing.

They all have said that CCP is coming to destruction and Miles Kwok has made history to send the CCP to hell. But they are not happy at all when I say “no fight against President Xi”. They said I must act against Xi. They all support me to get rid of Xi Jinping.

After the establishment of our Rule of Law Fund, most veteran CCP leaders who kept their communication with me raised their disagreement, together with other CCP members. Especially many retired generals from the military were not happy with my “no fight against President Xi”. They are the strongest force to support me in eliminating Xi Jinping.

I told the Taoist priest yesterday, “I have stick to my Seven Principles for some time; maybe it’s now time to make some changes. As to the reactions of those overseas democratic leaders, I don’t care too much about them. The CCP has seized 30 billion US dollars of my assets, detained 270 of my employees and arrested 18 of my family members and relatives....I am the number ONE enemy of the CCP. What I care most are the reactions from within China. We cannot rely on the US or outside forces to give the CCP the final blow. We must take the main responsibilities in fighting and eliminating the CCP. To take down the CCP, we must first rely on our 90 million CCP members and our warrior friends within the country”.

I asked this veteran Taoist priest yesterday, “What do you think shall be my next strategy? What do you think of the relation between Xi Jinping and Wang Qishan? Another question: will CCP survive 2020?”

This old master gave me a shocking answer. He said to me, “Wengui, do you know that people in these mountainous temples all watch your videos or read your stuff? Some people have printed out your remarks and distribute them among the mountains. They all watch Lude and Sara talks about Wengui and those many brothers too.” I was deeply moved.

The master continued, “You have seized the hearts of the people. And people are on your side now. Do you still remember the three paper boxes with tips I gave you last time? When you need help, go and open one!”

Thus I went to look for the paper boxes that this master had given me before the CCP’s 18th Congress. This shocked me more, friends! When I opened the first box, the tip reads, “Xi Wang Qishan(习亡岐山)”, which means “Xi Jinping kills Wang Qishan” or “Xi is killed by Qishan. And there is a hexagram “X” after that.

The hexagram tells that the hearts of the Chinese people favor Miles Kwok and President Xi Jinping will put Wang Qishan to death.

Chapter 9

Know Miles Kwok, know China, Know the world

Keywords: Rule of law, Steve Bannon, Vatican, Catholic Church, China censorship, Religious Persecution

Miles Kwok: Dear friends, I am having an interview with Steven Bannon, chairman of our Rule of Law Foundation, who is now in the Vatican, Rome of Italy, standing on a balcony.

Today we are going to talk about the Vatican that is welcoming the visit of a very important guest, President Xi Jinping of China. On September 28, 2018, the Vatican signed a historic agreement with China, an MOU on China's underground churches. Later in December, they had a revised version of the agreement; after that, China started a widespread crackdown on the country's Christians, Catholics, and underground churches. Since then, tens of thousands of Catholics and Christians have been arrested, threatened, and persecuted; nearly a hundred churches were demolished. Only in the south of Fujian Province, many bishops were dismissed from their posts or downgraded from bishops to assistant bishops.

The signing of the agreement between the Vatican and the Communist government of China has severe impacts on religious followers across the world, and thus caught widespread attention.

As we all know, Mr. Steven Bannon is a devoted Catholic, and all his family members too. He cares very much about the issue as it relates closely to his faith. I have deep discussions with Mr. Bannon on the issue and Mr. Bannon questions the Vatican-China agreement in many respects.

Today we'd like to ask how Steven Bannon thinks about the issue.

Steven Bannon: Thank you, Miles. First I want to thank the Guo.media and his professional team for having this broadcast live today from the Vatican. We are here on the roof of the Convent of the Sister of Mary, the Mother of Jesus the Holy Child...right across the street here on St. Peter's Square. Today it's a great compliment to have CBS and the Guo.media team broadcasting here.

By people here in the Vatican, this is the first time for a live broadcast into China, for the Chinese underground church, and for all the citizens of China to be able to see something dreadful from the Vatican.

One of the reasons we are here is that there is a very important four-day summit that has been called by the Pope to bring the heads of bishops from all over the world together to deal with the crisis in the Catholic Church. There's been a crisis of sexual abuse of minors. They've called all the heads of the Catholic churches here under the Pope's guidance for four days. We have been here monitoring that for a couple of days.

The reason we have come here during the summit when the whole world is focusing on the Pope and how the Pope is interacting with bishops is particular this deal that was signed by the Vatican with the CCP. It was announced about a month ago.

It is very important for people throughout the world to understand what this agreement is actually discussed and what this agreement means to the people of China, and particularly what I call the saints of the underground church have been persecuted for so many years by the radical faction of the CCP.

One thing I want to make sure people are standing here actually in the Vatican itself, which is the first time to be allowed to be broadcast inside the ground of the Vatican. The reason this is important is that this deal with the Chinese Communist Party is one of the most controversial deals that the Catholic Church has ever entered into. The Hong Kong Cardinal Joseph Zen has come out totally against this deal.

Anyone that can see this broadcast from China, particularly those living saints of underground churches...they should understand and remember that people here in the Catholic church in Rome in the Vatican are very concerned about this deal, particularly the fact that this deal is secret; this deal has not been exposed to the public; it's a secret transaction between the Pope in the Vatican and the Chinese Communist Party. It is in violation frankly of the Treaty signed between the people from the People's Republic of China and the United Nations. All treaties must be publicized. This is a clear violation of the Holiness Treaty.

People should understand that Cardinal Zen is universally considered one of the world's holiest men on the level of the Dalai Lama as far as his holiness and his goodness goes. Cardinal Zen has come out and said this is a "sell-out"; this is a complete betray of the underground church. And I think as Miles said from the very beginning immediately after the deal was signed in secret, you saw the destruction of churches, you saw the destruction of convenes; you saw removal of bishops. And so, we are here in Rome today actually in the Vatican City, trying to get answers.

I think what has outraged people in the Catholic Church who have offered their support to the brothers and sisters in the underground churches in China. And Cardinal Zen said what Pope Francis and the hierarchy of the Vatican did was to allow the CCP, to allow this radical faction of Wang Qishan and President Xi to actually be able to select and approve bishops, which is really the central piece of the power of the church, allowing them to have the power for selection of bishops. Two of the most important bishops of the underground church were removed from office after signing of this document.

I think many Catholics throughout the world think it is unacceptable, agreeing with Cardinal Zen that this is the sell-out of the Chinese people; this is the sell-out of the living saints of the Chinese underground church. Some of the devoted Catholics of the world think that this is the sell-out of the dedicated and profound Christians and Catholics in China.

That's why we are here at the Vatican, to start the process of demanding that the secret deal signed between the Vatican and the CCP be opened up so that everybody can review it, and particularly the people in the underground churches in China can see exactly what the deal is between the Chinese Communist Party and the Vatican.

Miles Kwok: Mr. Bannon, please allow me to give a brief report on the history of Christianity, Catholics, and other religions, and their relations with the CCP. I want to give some evidence of facts and the logic behind these events and relationships.

In 1934, Fang Zhimin from the CCP's Red Army kidnapped the US archbishop John Stam and his wife on his mission in China and asked for ransom. The couple was murdered after torture by the communist red soldiers.

In 1935, the CCP's red army kidnapped another British missionary of Christianity Rudolf Bosshardt Piaget and asked for ransom. He was also murdered.

In 1922, the CCP fore-runners organized a "No Jesus Movement" in Peking University, Li Dazhao, Hushi, Cai Yuanpei, and Chen Duxiu. Their crackdown on Christianity in China was unprecedented, more devastating than the elimination of Buddhism by four emperors in ancient Chinese history. The impact is profound and long-lasting.

And in recent years in Hong Kong, the Cardinal Joseph Zen was threatened with assassinations. After he was finally removed from office, a retired bishop John Tong Hon selected by the CCP was put onto the top job of Eminence Cardinal. This is the biggest joke in Hong Kong's religious circles.

These are some major events in the history of Christianity and Catholicism in China under CCP persecution.

Dear friends!

Today is only a free talk, nothing very urgent. If you don't like it, just go to sleep.

Yesterday Lude had a very successful interview with Steven Bannon. You have seen that Bannon is very serious about his work.

Steven Bannon is seriously careful with the Rule of Law Fund. Ever since its establishment on November 20th last year, nearly a million people have expressed their willingness to donate, mostly in the US, and South East Asia. The responses are overwhelming. One American came to contact Steven Bannon one day after the press conference, hoping to donate one billion US dollars.

Bannon is very serious in planning how to help Chinese under CCP persecution, including ordinary citizens, private entrepreneurs, and religious practitioners. He has a plan to unite thousands of religious organizations, especially the Catholics and Christians in the world, in protest against CCP persecution, and even against the Vatican's collaboration with Beijing regime. I have asked him not to target the Vatican for the moment.

Now the Trump Administration is very clear about what Wang Qishan, Meng Jianzhu, and other CCP officials are doing or going to do. The trade war talks are just part of the game. They all know about it. And Wang Qishan is sending out the weak and warm-hearted Liu He to the US, but Wang is surely the most powerful person behind the scene.

We know that China's economy is in big trouble, will go all the way down. China's GDP figure is fake. Don't believe in those figures. They just fool people around.

In recent weeks, the religious circles in the west are expressing their anger, asking me "Miles! What happened? What happened?"

Of the Ten Commandments of Christianity, the CCP has ordered to take down the first one, the most important one. What do they want to do?

Of the Ten Commandments of Christianity, "You shall have no other Gods but me" cannot or shall not be challenged. But Wang Qishan and other CCP officials have become so reckless that they stand up against the Mighty God. President Xi is made the only God now in China. This has greatly offended western believers. We can't have Xi Jinping as our God.

This evil thing is mainly the work of Meng Jianzhu, surely with Wang Qishan's support. Years ago, they had the South Putuo Mountain Conspiracy, in which they planned for Xi Jinping to be at the top job for one term of five years, to be the "man-made God" for China. After five years, they planned to replace President Xi with another insider. They did not think that President Xi would make changes to the Constitution so that he could stay at the top job as long as he likes. With the South Putuo Plan, Meng Jianzhu is the supervisor, Sun Lijun the operator, with full support from Jiang Zemin's family behind the scene.

With the South Putuo Plan, they would allow only one God, one religion and one party in China; that is President Xi, communism and the communist party. All other religious faiths would be eliminated.

Yesterday, together with Bannon in my house, we have three former US generals, all in a discussion of the Rule of Law Fund and about China.

Two generals pointed at my nose and asked, "Miles, you fear President Xi or you don't want to act against him?" I said both, but that doesn't mean I would always be like this. I still keep my Seven Principles now, including non-confrontation with President Xi. There is a possibility that in future I will act against him. But my message is simple clear: China needs peace; the CCP must be eliminated, and China's wealth must be returned to its people. To add, most CCP members are good people.

There is no doubt that President Xi wants to put Wang Qishan to death, and vice versa. But I agree with Bloomberg that Wang is the most powerful man in China and even the whole of Wall Street listens to Wang. That's why we see the world's mainstream media seldom criticized Wang Qishan in the past but carried lots of negative reports on President Xi.

But the world media have the attention on Jho Low, and how he is related to Meng Jianzhu and the CCP. And another figure for media attention is the notorious Bruno Wu. I have asked Steven Bannon to tell about how he first met Bruno Wu and how Bruno Wu had tried to persuade him and the Trump administration to extradite Miles Kwok with a fake letter from President Xi. Steven Bannon has agreed to tell the stories during our whistle blow on the eve of the Chinese Spring Festival in February. The world would like to see these two evil persons put to justice.

The CCP has taken down several vice-chairmen of the Central Military Commission in its anti-corruption campaign; the world wants to know why they work the best to protect such an ugly young man and criminal as Jho Low.

Next, Wang Qishan and the Jiang family will find a thousand reasons to press President Xi in taking actions against Taiwan or on the South China Sea. They would lift President high up the sky and then throw him hard onto the floor. Wang Qishan is a demon, and both Meng Jianzhu and Sun Lijun are mentally ill, as the generals have joined me in a consensus that they are the very few who have become the real threat of the west.

These US officials from the military asked my advice on how to get rid of the CCP top military personnel. I have told that not all of them are bad people. Only a few are bad people. The US does not have to target them all. The communist system is an evil one, but the people working for the system might not be. Most of the 90 million CCP members are ordinary good people. They just keep the job to live and raise a family; few people want to associate with those evils. Corruption is just a way of life for them to survive within the system.

In Bannon's public speeches, he has told the American people not to take the Chinese or China as the enemy. Most students and scholars in US universities are good ordinary people. Chinese and American people shall maintain a friendly relationship. That's why the Rule of Law Fund is so important. It has become a bridge linking the friendship of the two peoples.

The Rule of Law Fund helps to tell the truth about China to the world; it unites religious groups in many different countries. It lets the whole world come to a consensus that we shall counter the CCP, not China or the Chinese people. This is a great significance of our revolutionary whistle blows.

Now a fire has been ignited, it turns into a volcano eruption. Wang Qishan and other corrupt CCP officials are no longer capable of covering it up with a basin. And they dare not either.

The silence of "Little Brother Talks About Politics" by the CCP and threats to his family members in China have been made known to the US government, in addition to spreading to countless discussion groups. This is a typical example of the recklessness of the CCP with its so-called rule of law. And the threats are clear evidence for the US to take legal actions in the next step.

Additionally today, I want to tell you that the French government is getting serious with the death of HNA Chairman Wang Jian in France. We must reveal to the world the truth of his death; otherwise, all our efforts in our whistle blows will be in vain.

I want to stress four things again for your attention: first the case of Jho Low, second the case of HNA, third the death of Wang Jian, and fourth the case of Bruno Wu. With all of these, we have opened a little bit of the Pandora Box.

Now let's pray together for world peace and the well-being of the Chinese people.

Everything is just beginning!

Dear friends!

About one month ago, I mentioned Roger Stone, saying that he must be arrested. As you have seen from the news, the arrest has happened on Friday. It tells the greatness of the US with its rule of law.

This is a significant event in the process of our revolutionary whistle blows. It sends a clear message to the CCP and its representatives here in the United States with their BGY schemes, especially the notorious Bruno Wu. When it's time to come, it comes.

Steven Bannon requested over and over that I should have compromised with Roger Stone, but I refused. I agreed to conciliation with him with the condition that he must apologize and tell the truth of Bruno Wu who was the source of his defamation. But he tells only part of the truth; that's why he has been charged with obstruction, false statements, and witness tampering.

The arrest of Roger Stone will soon lead to the arrest of Bruno Wu, I can assure you. Behind Bruno Wu are Mingjing News, Chen Jun, Yuan Jianbin, Guo Baosheng, and other CCP representatives.

Next, we are going to see who is giving financial support to these CCP representatives. We shall have the smaller fish to fish the bigger fish; we are going to beat both the flies and tigers. This is our strategy. We must bring them to justice.

We did see Roger Stone apologize and publicize his letter of apology in all mainstream media. I have accepted his apology without asking for compensation, for which he was much thankful.

My intelligence just told me that Bruno Wu is now in Japan with his wife Lan Yang. They will soon be brought to justice, together with others.

Dear friends! In the world, true is true, fake is fake. The US justice system must not allow these fake democratic personnel to deceive the American people and do harm to overseas Chinese here.

And to the event in Venezuela, my intelligence person has almost lost contact with me there. I asked about the situations there. He said this time it must be a success. People in the Consulate General of China have taken all the important files away. This means the CCP government in Beijing also thinks that the Maduro regime is coming to an end.

After Venezuela, the next country should be Malaysia that must stand up against the BGY by Meng Jianzhu, Sun Lijun, Wang Qishan and Jiang's family in Shanghai. They have the money laundering base there. This base will be the first to be demolished. Unexpected things will soon happen in Malaysia.

Things there will link back to Venezuela and other parts of South America, where Brazil acts as the Big Brother. The new president in Brazil and his family are all our friends, having a good relation with Steven Bannon and the United States. This first thing they did after coming to power was to promote the process of democracy in Venezuela. With this success, the United States will have no significant opponents in South America.

Next is Angola in Africa. 80% of China's petrol imports come from Venezuela, Angola and the Middle East. Malacca and Hormuz Straits are important waterways that must be controlled by the US. After the collapse of Angola, the CCP regime in China will be completely isolated.

Russia looks at both sides or either side, sometimes closer to the west, sometimes closer to CCP China. Putin does not bet on Beijing.

After Roger Stone, we shall shift our attention to Jho Low. The case of Jho Low will soon have practical progress. With the scandals of Jho Low under investigation, Meng Jianzhu, Sun Lijun and Jiang's family in Shanghai will pay heavy prices; the Hong Kong government will also pay their prices. Related things will happen very soon. Please just wait and see!

The US Department of State Affairs, the Pentagon and the White House are taking the case of Jho Low very serious, making it a semi-war against the forces behind this scandalous young man.

Yesterday we saw the remarks of George Soros at Davos against President Xi Jinping. Soros is a key shareholder of HNA Group. He supported my whistle blows but I refused the cooperation with him. Soros openly claimed at Davos Forum that Xi is the greatest opponent of western civilization and the west should support the overthrow of his governance in China. This is rare since 2012. Wang Qishan is behind his remarks. Neither Bloomberg nor Soros has ever said anything bad about Wang Qishan.

In my opinion, Xi and Wang must have a fight. The result: one or both of them will be eliminated. We will see this happen soon.

The changing attitude of Bloomberg and George Soros is also a significant event in the west. As they both represent strong forces in the west, in strong support of Wang Qishan, we will see widespread attacks at President Xi from the mainstream media in the coming months.

But I will stand firm to act against Wang Qishan. Although many western billionaires have asked me to give up my fight at Wang by donating to the Rule of Law Fund, I have refused to do so. Miles Kwok's Seven Principles are still valid today. Tactically I still have hope for President Xi.

President Xi is not responsible for the Cultural Revolution or the June Fourth Massacre. Surely he has crimes in the persecution of Xinjiang Muslims and human rights activists. If he could stop doing evil and lead the Chinese onto the road of freedom and democracy, he could be forgiven.

But Wang Qishan cannot be pardoned, same with Meng Jianzhu, Sun Lijun and others. He talks about development and he claims to have the solutions. But that's the development of his own businesses; it has nothing to do with the Chinese people. What the Chinese have are poisonous foods, high inflation, fake health care, restriction of movement, housing bubble, high petrol prices ... no ordinary people have equal rights for development in China.

Whatever actions the CCP leaders will take in the future, they will be losers. And we will be the winners.

Both our Rule of Law Fund and the coming whistle blows on the eve of Chinese Spring Festival have attracted world attention, and everyone wants to be part of that. We will give Steven Bannon more time to tell more about China and related topics.

Registration of the Rule of Law Fund was finalized yesterday and immediately we received twelve deposits as donations in big numbers. One of the donors was George Soros. We can feel the enthusiasm of many westerners to hope for the collapse of the CCP government in China and the return of freedom and democracy to the country.

This is truly a great era in history. It relates to every one of us.

Please join me to pray for the good of the Chinese.

Everything is just beginning.

Friends! To bring down the former Soviet Union, the Americans mainly took actions in three areas: economic sanctions and technological blockage, stopping Europe to do business with the Russians, monitoring every transaction of Soviet businessmen in the west; second, the US and its allies had a talent plan to help lots of scientists out of the Soviet Union and gave them passports to reside in western countries; the third is changes in the religious circles.

During the collapse of the Soviet Union, lots of Russians were starving when I visited the bordering cities next to Heihe in Heilongjiang province, and actually had goods-to-goods trade with them. Once I had 18 jeans in exchange for a Lada car from a local resident. Some Chinese Communist Party (CCP) officials from state-owned enterprises were so vicious that they often bought Soviet virgin girls from their local schools for a very cheap price. Many Chinese entered the Soviet villages to lie, cheat, steal or rob, doing lots of evil to local Soviet residents.

US retirement funds, education funds, and social security funds have invested heavily in over 700 Chinese companies listed in US stock exchanges. If China collapses and these Chinese companies refuse to pay back the investment, American people will suffer great losses and many will starve. The consequences will be more severe than being hit by several nuclear bombs. This is terrifying.\

It is even more frighteningly that the New York Securities Regulatory Committee, the US Finance Supervision authorities, and US Monetary Supervision Committee have never audited these 700 Chinese listed companies in respect of their financial accounts, their shareholders and documents of their business transactions starting from the time of their IPOs. Now, with the case of Huawei, related investigations have started.

Last year alone, the CCP government of China borrowed 700 billion US dollars, according to official data; actually, these borrowings amounted to 1.2 trillion. The figures have shocked the world. Again, the money they have given away with the belt and road initiative has also frightened the world. The western world has truly felt the threats. Those CCP officials or traitors are very smart in money laundering. They avoided transactions in US dollars and bought in lots of Japanese Yen, Swiss Franc, Pound Sterling, Hong Kong dollar and Taiwan currency. These currencies will have lots of trouble.

Let me tell you a piece of good news. Jho Low is in trouble in Japan, caught the night before in a fight with Mafia in Tokyo for prostitution. Remember my words today, Jho low must serve his prison terms in the United States. He is the forerunner of CCP who finds his way into hell.

Please check, in just one year, the number of personal funds in Hong Kong increased five times. In Switzerland and Germany, countries of non-US dollar assets, the number of personal or family trusts increased over 100 times. Behind them are the CCP leaders as state traitors from China. They have kidnapped the 1.4 billion Chinese who are still working hard daily in stupidity.

On the one hand, they borrow a huge amount of money; on the other hand, they launder similar amount out, with no difference in private or state ownership. While the Americans, shocked with the facts, care about the well-being of the Chinese, these ill-informed Chinese laborers are raising their red banners high in protest against the US. We have to admit that the CCP is truly smart and powerful; they have captured the bloodline of US society. This is non-reciprocal unrestricted warfare.

The information war in the US is out of everyone's expectations. A normal Chinese employee working in a Boeing Factory stole the secrets of fight jet F-35 and UAV technology. There are numerous examples like this, not just Boeing, but Airbus, not just the US, but all of Europe. A CCP official asked one of my friends to install monitoring equipment in all the Airbus flights he was to assemble in Tianjin. He told me the story in Hong Kong. The CCP is so vile that there is no evil they won't do in this world.

CCP has been crazy with their hackers, and overseas propaganda campaigns. One Belt one Road, Made in China 2025/2050, RMB globalization, African Strategy, and Sino-Africa Forum, all serve the same purposes. CCP controlled overseas organizations and media are shameless. They have a full-page article in protest of the local government in Australia.

With the Rule of Law Foundation, we have received too many donations from the US, Europe, Japan, besides mainland China. I truly regretted setting up such a rule of law fund. That means huge pressure and responsibilities to be put onto my own shoulders. I must ensure that every single cent of the fund is used for the said purposes. I am telling you that before July first, not a single cent will be spent and all expenditure must be publicized for the right cause. Every single cent of the money must be used for the goodness of the Chinese people, for the great cause of overthrowing the CCP government.

According to my intelligence, Kim Jong-un of North Korea will go to China again these days before he is to meet Donald Trump in Vietnam. Every time he is going to negotiate with the US, ordinary Chinese people are going to pay for their bill. This is just outrageously ridiculous. Those CCP leaders are so stupid to feed the fat young man of North Korea while so many Chinese are starving. I can assure you today that the CCP has zero influence in North Korea; the US is only fooled around by the CCP who has shown the world that it can lead Kim Jong-un along by the nose. With that, the US has again helped the CCP to fool the Chinese people around. It makes no sense at all, friends. This is a tragedy of the Chinese. I am going to make another video to warn Kim Jong-un of this.

As the world bishops are heading to the Vatican (for the Sex Abuse Summit), the church head in the US is to lose his job. And we know CCP is going to meet with the Vatican next month. As we have seen from history, at time of global changes, two things must happen before that, and one is a movement in the Vatican, or the religious circles. In 2000 years of history, all popes of Vatican passed on their thrones only after their deaths. There is one exception – the last Pope Paul who resigned while alive. I am telling you today- that was the work of the CCP.

My friends in the US military told that they shall never allow the CCP to step into the territory of Taiwan and Hong Kong must have its "one country two systems" in practice. This is not only in the interest of the US, but the interest of the whole of humanity.

The trade talks between China and the US are only of minor importance. If the Great Firewall is not taken down, all other terms are just meaningless. The CCP insists that the Firewall could be open for the Americans, but not for ordinary Chinese. This is totally a disgrace for China and a shame for Chinese. If the Great Firewall is broken, the CCP government will collapse in no more than six months! I am sure God is helping us!

Everything is just the beginning.

From March 8 to yesterday, totally 21 days, I have stayed at home mourning for my mother according to Chinese tradition and Buddhist practice. I did not work, did not update Guo.media tweets, and did not have contacts with any warrior friend.

Things happening in these 21 days show the increasing strength of united forces among the new and old warrior friends to fight the evil CCP and the fake overseas democratic activists.

Friends from Voice of Guo.media, Ludepress, Kalixi from Mulan Talks, Little Brother of Xisijikong, have enriched the battleground fighting against the CCP. Brother David, Phoenix at the Ninth Heavens, Beijing Sisters, Zhuang Liehong and other warrior friends have all demonstrated their courage and strength on social media confronting the CCP.

This is the unique difference between our warrior friends and those fake democratic activists. We are not fighting for our own profits or private interests; we have demonstrated one of the greatest qualities of the Chinese nation: United for the same mission. We have shown the world as well as the Chinese state traitors our abilities in fighting.

In these 21 days, I read a few books, like going back to school again. I have a deep reflection on our whistle blows in the past two years. I have thought over all the important events in the past two years.

In these 21 days, I had a feeling that human life is weak and easy to break. Most people live on greed, anger, ignorance, arrogance, and doubts, as Buddhism has said, to satisfy their own desires. Many people envy the CCP's corrupt coffin culture. As I have said before, they are coffin makers. They made many coffins for others, but in the end, they use these coffins for themselves.

In the past 21 days, many things happened, making headlines internationally, in addition to our fight against the CCP. Before March 8, I predicted many important events to take place in the following weeks. They have a profound impact on international relations. One of the most important events was the charges against US President Donald Trump and the release of the Mueller Report.

Before March 8, we already had intelligence about related investigations. Intelligence from some of our business partners told about the possible outcome, same as what we have seen today.

What's the relation with our whistle blows? I want to tell you, friends, months ago, I have predicted that the China-US trade negotiations would end in a funny and ridiculous way. Later you have seen the changes on March the first, the humiliating meeting of Liu He like a criminal at Trump's office, his soybean purchase promise, and the embarrassed trade negotiators from both sides at different rounds of talks.

You have also seen the reports from the world's mainstream media, whether on the soybeans or other things. I am telling you that the world's main media are controlled by the CCP. Now you may have a clear idea of why the trade talks needed another 100 days.

The silent forces in the United States under CCP's BGY influence, controlled by the traitors, gave Wang Qishan a clear and decisive judgment that Donald Trump would have big troubles. According to my intelligence, Wall Street bankers sent their representatives weekly to Beijing to meet with Wang Qishan during those days, briefing him on updates about New York and Washington. Wang's political alliance in Washington keeps their communications secretly but directly with Wang about Washington's policies on trade talks. Other sources of those silent forces also sent out their intelligence.

As a result, before the G20 meeting, Beijing made the conclusion that President Donald Trump would face a series of problems politically; that Trump would be impeached amid the confrontations between the two parties and he might end up in prison.

In early March, there was a book called Kushner, Inc. Greed, Ambition. Corruption: The Extraordinary Story of Jared Kushner and Ivanka Trump. Months ago, I briefly told about this book in private talks. During the same period, some weird things happened in Europe. Behind them, we see the evil hands of the CCP. That's why there was an extension of 90 days at the G20 summit.

That was an arrow shooting at Donald Trump. It was predicted that the Mueller investigations would definitely cause an earthquake in US politics. Under pressure, President Trump might take the trade talks lightly, urging his administration to reach a deal as soon as possible. That's why we have seen the media coverage on the Mueller report, the trade talks, Build the Walls, and possible impeachment against Donald Trump.

The CCP has made good use of the Mueller investigations in the trade talks.

In one of the Politburo meetings of the CCP Central Committee last year, the CCP cabinet pledged: If Donald Trump wins the midterm elections, we will lose one hundred years; if he loses, we will win one hundred years.

And we saw the propaganda attacks from the CCP afterward. Among many cases of dissemination, they had a giant four-full-page advertisement in a US newspaper in Iowa. As a result, Trump suffered great setbacks in the midterm elections, causing him lots of troubles. The US government was shut down for months.

Happy with their judgment and this success with their propaganda control, the CCP is more convinced that having a hand in US politics and the legal system is an effective way to influence US politics, to impeach Donald Trump and to cause damages to his family.

If you are careful with Trump's tweets in early March, you must have seen Trump's warning that some forces in the US want to defame Ivanka and Kushner. The book I mentioned above is damaging, able to cut through their throats. It has also made headlines at nearly the same time with the Mueller investigations.

But the final result is out of your expectations. Wang Qishan and other state traitors are all wrong with their judgment. As I have said before, the Mueller report has failed to impeach Donald Trump. He will not be charged with any violations. In 2020, Trump will be elected a second time.

From that moment on, Steven Bannon, other US politicians, officials in Japan and Europe shared the similar view: that was a slap on the face of many US politicians, as well as the CCP officials. The conspiracies of Wang Qishan and his supporters in the US are fully exposed to the world audience. The US political circle has been greatly shocked by the details. People began to have a deeper understanding of the threats by CCP's BGY scheme.

Dear friends! This is not an isolated case. It is not rumor talk. Because of this case, President Trump has become more decisive in his determination to take down CCP communism and to change socialism in the world. President Trump has a sense of hesitation with his personality; but after fully understanding the dissemination and invasion from communist China, he will become more decisive in this respect. In face of the fact that Wang Qishan and other CCP officials have used all efforts to influence the people around him, have mobilized all means to put him in prison and destroy his family, have done their utmost to add fire to the contradiction and confrontation between the two parties of the US, Donald Trump will become more decisive.

As a matter of fact, the stupidity and arrogance of the CCP are our weapons. They are the most important weapons for us to start the battleground in the US and other western countries against CCP and its overseas supporters. Dear friends, our ability is not enough to make these weapons; they are the gifts sent by God from the heavens. We do not have to exaggerate.

They seem to be independent cases, but we must see through the connections. So the delay in China-US trade talks is aimed at one thing: to bring down Donald Trump. CCP traitors have won many battles in the past 70 years with similar strategies in dealing with the west. They have been successful over and over again with their silent supporters in the west, including Wall Street bankers, politicians in the Democratic Party, intelligence agents in the US, and others.

But this time, they are doomed to fail. They will fail hard, tragically.

Next, the United States will start their fights against CCP's Belt and Road Initiative, Space Mission, export of revolution to Africa, the Middle East, South East Asia, Eastern Europe, and other socialist countries, export of poverty, export of excess production, Renminbi globalization, and expansion of its energy strategy. The US will confront CCP's invasions and ambitions. All these are connected together.

I have said before, the Americans might react at a slow pace; but no one can stop its fights when they come to sense. In my opinion, the strength of the US is not enough. We hope South America, Europe, Eastern Europe, South East Asia, Japan, India, and other countries will join hands. We should have a clear mind on CCP's belt and road initiative, its currency globalization, military expansion, space ambitions, amendment of the Constitution, privatization of state power, and socialization of private property. We should understand why the CCP government is sending millions of Uyghurs into re-education camps, eager to open the northern channels to Tajikistan, Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan, Russia, and their ambitions in Malacca and the Middle East along the Belt and Road routes.

Why the CCP wants to empty the territory of Xinjiang and keep nearly two million people under arrest? Why the CCP refuses to open the Internet and take down the Great Firewall? Why the CCP exercises full control of the media and makes no concession in that regard? Why the CCP leadership made amendments to their tenure in the Constitution, to keep themselves always in power?

These are some of the key issues that need our deeper understanding. And we shall look deeper into the facts.

Everything is just beginning!

In recent days, we started to learn about the Committee on the Present Danger: China, initiated by Steve Bannon and Frank Gaffney. The first day I met with Steve Bannon at a Washington hotel, we had talked about this project. You know last year I went to a remote mountain for a meeting; it was partly about this committee.

The Committee on the Present Danger is an American foreign policy interest group. Decades ago, it helped to overthrow the Soviet Union. We must be clear about the shortcomings of the Committee in its history. I know many people care about the founding members of this committee. Please pay attention to the most important part of the committee: its confidential commission and the executive commission. You never know who the members are. In front of these members, even Steve Bannon would pay his highest respect.

These secret members are the owners and key decision makers of the world's major wealth, including the US dollar and the major financial institutions. They were the founding members of the Bretton Woods System. They have the final control on the world's economy. Few people learn about their names. But without their support, the Committee of the Present Danger has no value at all. The key is money. As far as I know, these people have not made their final decision yet.

These secret members are the real shareholders of the Committee, and they are mostly my friends. Today, after this video broadcast, I will fly to California to meet one of them who is coming from Europe. He will wait for me at his home in California.

We were supposed to meet on the 9th of March with several of his friends to discuss the Rule of Law Fund and media coverage on some important issues, including issues related to this Committee. But other founding members took the lead to make the announcement about the establishment of the Committee. Because of insufficient preparation, only South China Morning Post, the Voice of America (and Followcn.com) reported briefly on the establishment. It was a total failure with the media release as it has attracted very limited attention. I can say that the establishment has not won the support of all major financiers.

So next week I am going to visit some of them to discuss issues about the Rule of Law Fund and our cooperation with the executives of other major funds.

What are the key issues with the Executive Commission? Only two things: money and intelligence. Without money and intelligence, how can the Committee on the Present Danger confront the CCP regime? Only with sufficient intelligence and other resources, together with countless sources of cash, can the Committee on the Present Danger play its role in the fights. It is these two commissions who have both the money and the intelligence resource in their hands.

One of the founding members, Mr. Brain Kennedy, whom I met last year in Washington, is chairman of the National Foundation who manages the two Trillion dollar Treasury Securities indebted with the Chinese government from 1949-2019. Many people have learned about this gentleman as chairman of the Committee with the media release. But I am telling you that the decision makers are with the confidential commission and executive commission, who coordinate with governments of sovereign countries in the west as equals.

Representatives from the former Soviet Union were excluded from these decision making commissions. Even Miles Kwok himself does not qualify for membership.

Founding members of the Committee on the Present Danger might also leave the committee. After the collapse of the former Soviet Union, many members were arrested or even killed. Within the organization, members are fighting each other. In the United States, you can easily find members fighting each other within any organization, the same as the CCP.

The only difference of the confrontations in the US is everything is under control with the rule of law. Within the organization of the CCP, the fights can be fatal as those with power like Wang Qishan would send its armed police to arrest and persecute their competitors.

That's why in China there was the Cultural Revolution or the so-called anti-corruption campaign when people fought each other: people killing their parents, relatives killing each other, soldiers killing their colleagues.

We will also see more fights within the Committee of the Present Danger in the US. Wherever there are money and fame, there is a struggle. I have learned about fights among the members in recent days. That's why their media release this time was a total failure. I have exchanged views with Steve Bannon in this regard.

In Japan and Europe, the Rule of Law Fund has a much better reputation. In the future, the role the Rule of Law Fund plays to deal with the CCP will be more important than the Committee of the Present Danger.

We can see there are some connections between the Committee, the Mueller report, and the on-going trade negotiations. These happenings also have some connection with our whistle blows in the past two years. But we shall not be misled by the fake democratic activists. We have the loftiest mission – take down the CCP and give Chinese people a better future.

I strongly oppose the idea of the “Committee on the Present Danger: China”. It should be “Committee on the Present Danger: CCP”.

We must not act against China or the Chinese people. Our target is the CCP, not China or the Chinese people. Many ordinary Chinese have donated their money to us after selling their cattle. We won’t allow anyone to use this money to act against them.

In our constitution, we must clearly state “We shall fight the Communist Party of China”. Our target is the CCP and a few traitors. 99% of CCP members are good people; they are not our enemies. We will only eliminate CCP’s evil system and establish a constitutional democracy for all Chinese. We will have a new system with judicial independence, the rule of law, freedom of speech and media supervision, votes by the people, religious freedom, and equal rights for all. The new government only acts as executives.

China shall have a long-standing constitution. Today, China’s Constitution has been kidnapped; the whole nation has been kidnapped by the traitors; the country is now ruled by evil gangsters.

After we take down the CCP, we must return the money to the Chinese people. We shall never sacrifice the interests of the Chinese people to satisfy the desires of the fake democratic activists. We must guarantee the “bread” for the Chinese people.

The CCP officials have claimed themselves to be shepherds. They are the sheep keepers while the Chinese people are their sheep. We won’t agree. All Chinese are citizens; they are equals.

In recent days, I heard about the sad story of Professor Xu Zhangrun from Tsinghua University and read some of his articles. He has lots of readers in the west. In our organization or the Committee of the Present Danger, we must have a voice for Chinese intellectuals. Western countries shall issue special visas to these intellectuals and their family members, and give them proper protection.

Communism is dying and the days of the CCP are numbered. This is a historical trend. No one can stop it from happening. What I worry most is not the CCP, but the fate of the Chinese people.

In my private jet, I thought of what will happen to our fellow Chinese after the west has taken serious measures against China. They will hurt our people. I was very sad thinking of this.

The purpose of my trip in the afternoon to California to meet those friends is this: I must make it clear to them that we should only act against the CCP, not China or the Chinese people. I will discuss the details with them.

We need to wake up the majority of CCP members. We must reunite the majority of Chinese people and join hands with them to overthrow the CCP regime.

These are my main plans.

I want to say something exciting today, especially to my Japanese friends!

Let me first ask you a question. Do you know China's GDP at the time of WTO entrance in 2001? 1.4 trillion US dollars. Japan had 4.8 trillion.

The last year 2018, Japan had only 4.7 trillion, while China grew up to 14 trillion. Do you see the difference?

Second, do you know the number of Chinese tourists to Japan in 2001? About 2 million. What about 2018? Over 7 million.

Third, do you know how many Chinese companies invested in Japan in 2001? Very few, none of the listed companies. What about today? Over 8 thousand Chinese companies have come to Japan for business.

Twenty years ago, Japanese made about 800 thousand visits to China annually, Chinese half that number. Today for Chinese, the figure amounts to tens of millions. And the amount of Chinese currency used in these travels and bilateral relations is one thousand times that of twenty years ago. This can be astonishing to many! China has turned the ball all over.

In the coming years, some people say that Japan may become a province of China. They are wrong. And I am telling you: Japan will only be a night club in China.

This sounds insulting, but that is a fact. See what millions of Chinese do in Japan? Four things: prostitution, eating, shopping and sightseeing – leave, like visiting a night club or brothel! Right?

Japan has an aging population. Japanese men are becoming female-like. In the past five years, Japanese men spent more money in personal make-up than women. They have a slow birth rate. They can no longer compete with China.

I say the only way out for Japan is to be friendly with Chinese people while countering the Communist government of China. Anti-CCP is their only way out. If Japan does not protect itself from communist ideology, it will always be a night club for the Chinese. Forget history, and build a future by friendship with ordinary Chinese.

My Japanese friends asked me how to stand up against the CCP? I have told them, the difference in your political system is the best tool to resist the CCP. Every visitor who has come to Japan would talk good about Japan. In the past, CCP stirred up the hatred among Chinese against Japanese invasion. That was an evil game played by the CCP. We should encourage mutual exchanges between the two peoples. As more Chinese are visiting Japan or doing business with Japan, they will form a different view of Japan, a much better view about Japan. CCP's so-called patriotic propaganda will lose its supporters.

Culturally and economically, the Japanese should keep a close relation with ordinary Chinese as they share common grounds. Politically and in the area of security, Japanese should rely on the Americans for protection. Ideologically, the Japanese should act against CCP and never come into alliance with the communist government.

My Japanese friend told me that he had an investigation in the public opinion of Americans towards Japanese and Chinese. He said two years ago, very few Americans felt the threat of the Communist government of China. These two years, he said, many Americans changed their opinions: they felt that CCP's threats are real and increasing substantially. This Japanese friend will be one of the key leaders in the Japanese government who will play an important role in bilateral relations.

Next, what do you think the Americans will do with the trade war? My viewpoint can be a lot different from many.

In the past years, Japanese Prime Minister Abe has been humiliated by the communist government of China. At times of difficulties with the Sino-US trade war, the Chinese government, making use of its 40 anniversary of the signing of China-Japan Peace and Friendship Treaty by Deng Xiaoping, invited Abe for a visit to Beijing last year. Abe was given special treatment of the highest level. This is the nature of the CCP: when it needs your support, it shall do everything for you, even kissing your ass. But when it does not need you, it beats you hard, spits at you, and throws you away.

Japan wants six things from China: first, the resistance of missile threats from North Korea; second, four northern islands from Russia; third, support in permanent UN membership; fourth, market open for agricultural produce; fifth, support for Abe's economic plan; sixth, more tourists from China.

CCP also wants six things from Japan: first, support for belt and road initiative; second, joining the Asia Investment Bank; third, open Japan's technology market for Huawei; fourth, free exchange of currencies; fifth, exploration of petrol in the East China Sea; Six, support in the South China Sea.

If the Japanese government agrees to the terms of the CCP, any of the above six conditions would bring Japan into disasters. But if the CCP supports Japan with its requests, none of the six things would hurt the CCP a bit.

The Japanese are very much afraid that the trade deal between the US and China can be finalized. Their hands are shaking that China and the US would come to a deal. But I've told them not to have fears about that. They asked me why?

I told them, China and the US will not have a real deal. Any real deal would rewrite history.

With a real deal, the terms and conditions shall be reciprocal. Dear Robert Lighthizer! I beg you shall never resign! I am afraid this gentleman would resign under pressure from both the US government and the CCP's BGY.

With reciprocity, China's Great Firewall will be taken down and the internet open. If that was the case, the CCP government will come to its end within six months. CCP would never agree to this term. They agree to open the internet for Americans, not for Chinese. This is a total disgrace! -These mentally ill CCP leaders!

The biggest problem is finance. If American banks are allowed to open branches in China, say, if Citibank opens a branch on the same street opposite China's Construction Bank, for instance, what do you think Chinese people would send their savings to? Chinese banks will all go bankrupt immediately.

Thirdly with the reciprocity, American agricultural products will all come to China markets. Do you think Chinese people would choose to eat American beef/pork, or Russian/African toxic meats?

So if China's door is truly open, do you think it can be closed again? No! The Chinese people won't allow that to happen!

Dear friends! Things happening these days in the world are enough to change my life and yours.

Donald Trump tweeted yesterday, "China must immediately open its market for American agricultural products, including beef and pork". He is holding a gun at the gate of China! This is not just retaliation for his disgrace in Vietnam!

These two days, I have been so excited that I smoked two cigars daily: I have never felt so valuable of myself in my whole life, because my revolutionary whistle blows have helped provide the best intelligence for the American government.

Officials from the US government are all hungry for my intelligence and whistle-blowing reports. Translations of these whistle blows are downloaded or copied or printed tens of millions of times for distribution across China. Millions of Chinese entrepreneurs and CCP members are our readers. The influence is remarkably, amazingly, profoundly widespread and long-lasting.

These several days, reactions from both parties in the US government are extraordinary! Dear Kim Jony-Un! Thank you very much! You have given us the greatest gift!

The Venezuela crisis is now only a matter of minor importance. Communist China is the next target. Acting against CCP officials, some people say, the US government will seal off or freeze their assets, and expel their illegitimate children. No! Not just that! Their days will end in a much more tragic way. They are now the meats on the chopping board; the US government is thinking of ways of how to chop them into pieces. To the dictators in Venezuela, the Americans only beat them with whips; to the CCP dictators, the Americans will chop them into a paste with sharp knives!

One day, when we wake up, we will suddenly see: the world has changed! All of a sudden, out of everyone's expectations, the Communist government has been overthrown and CCP has been eliminated. Let's just wait and see.

Everything is just beginning!

Chapter 10

New hope for China's freedom and democracy

In the year of 2018, the Chinese god of war Miles Kwok has continued to make headlines with his whistle blows accusing CCP officials of corruption and other scandals. On November 20, former Trump strategist Steven Bannon joined Miles Kwok to host the Press Briefing on the death of Wang Jian and the Truth behind HNA Group. At the press event, Miles and Bannon announced a Rule of the Law Fund to fight the communist regime in China and help victims under CCP persecution.

As Miles Kwok's Pandora Box is opened in the coming months, more and more people are convinced that the death of former HNA Chairman is a political murder by a scheme of a few corrupt CCP officials. The Rule of Law Fund chaired by Steve Bannon will cooperate with the US government and world human rights organizations to end CCP's religious and political persecution across China, especially in Xinjiang and Tibet. Miles Kwok and his companions will be working to form a transitional government overseas called the Himalayas and lay down fundamental principles for future democracy in China.

One billion Chinese are happy to say: Thank you, the United States of America

Whether the US decides to go along with the new tariffs on US$ 200 billion worth of Chinese goods later today, the majority Chinese population would hail Donald Trump for his relentless wrestling against the Communist regime.

President Donald Trump told reporters on Air Force One Friday that he was "ready to go" on tariffs for another $267 billion in Chinese goods "if he wants," which would come on top of the $200 billion in goods already targeted, according to Bloomberg and Reuters.

Donald Trump said, "I like China", not only once. And he meant it.

Donald Trump puts America first and he loves the American people. Most Chinese netizens think that if he has the mind to love his own people and do good to them, he probably will have the power to like people in other parts of the world and do good to them.

They would rather trust Trump than President Xi and other CCP leaders who "love" only the African people while doing so much evil to their fellow citizens.

"I wish Trump was President of China too!" "Trump has the courage to face the facts and tell the truth. Trump is nothing but logic and common sense." "I like Mr. Trump, his speech on China always cracks me up!" "I'm not from the USA but that I truly like Trump. See how biased our media is and the lies we get on a daily basis. God bless America!" "Kill the CCP with the trade war!"

China's censors are busy scrambling to control the narrative and comments about the trade war with the US, ridiculing "the wise build bridges, the fool build walls" and once even blocked the number "US$ 600" on Baidu search.

"I'm not doing this for politics – I'm doing this to do the right thing for our country," Trump said at one time. "We have been ripped off by China for a long time." Strangely enough, as Chinese, I find myself fully agreeing with President Trump. The world is in need of a wakeup call. The world needs a strong USA.

Chinese exiled billionaire Miles Kwok said in his whistle blow, "Chinese need to have a festival called 'Thank you! USA.'" Exiled Chinese political activist Mr. Yang Jianli was happy to lead a campaign for a thanksgiving day in the US. And the populace of overseas Chinese applauded, including the 3.8 million in America.

In history, the US has done too much good for the Chinese people and they never forget their gratitude. On the contrary, the ungrateful CCP government has screwed Americans for years.

Starting in the 1870s, American missionaries began developing educational institutions in China. They discovered the demand for Western education was much stronger, and much more elite, than the demand for Christianity. Programs were set up to fund Chinese students in American colleges.

In 1899, when the Boxer Rebellion was overrun by Qing troops with support from the Eight-Nation Alliance, Chinese paid indemnities to France, Germany, Austria-Hungary, Italy, Japan, Russia, and Britain.

The US used its $11 million shares to promote cultural and educational exchanges and help China modernize. A number of schools were established in China, such as Tsinghua College in Peking.

In 1931, Japan invaded and occupied Manchuria. The United States along with other countries condemned the action and supported China in its war with Japan after 1937.

We are quite familiar with the Flying Tigers, the American Volunteer Air Units organized by the US government to aid the Nationalist government of China against Japan in the Second World War. Combat groups equipped with American aircraft and staffed by aviators and technicians were recruited from the U.S. Army, Navy and Marine Corps for service in China.

In 1979, the US changed its diplomatic recognition of China from Taipei to Beijing. In the Three Communiqués, the US acknowledges that all Chinese on either side of the Taiwan Strait maintain there is but one China and that Taiwan is a part of China.

The US government supported Deng Xiaoping's economic reform and later China's entry into the WTO; it has helped train millions of young Chinese in its universities and scientific institutions, who later become the backbone of Chinese modernization.

The US has done this with the hope that Communist China would gradually go onto the road of freedom and democracy, and join the western civilization.

But the CCP regime has been unthankful.

After the Tiananmen Massacre, Sino-US relations deteriorated sharply, with Beijing accusing the US of “a decades-long conspiracy to subvert Chinese socialism”.

Although some Americans have advocated for the annexation of Taiwan from China, the US has been very friendly with the Chinese people, in that it gives refuge to victims of Communist suppression, protects its dissidents, and has always stood up for human rights in the beautiful country of China.

Unlike the Soviet Union who has invaded and occupied over a million square kilometers of China’s territory, unlike the Japanese who has invaded China causing disasters, unlike the British who sold opium to downgrade the Chinese populationthe Americans have treated China mostly fair and humanely.

This economic war with China started by Donald Trump has “taught the Chinese a lesson”, letting them know more clear than ever how vicious the CCP is, and how it has used innocent Chinese as captives and shields.

The Chinese have no reason not to say “thank you” to the United States of America.

Miles Kwok talks about the impact of US midterm election results

During these midterm elections, candidates who have been friendly with the Communist government of China were all disposed of by the voters, like Scott Walker who loses to Tony Evers in the State of Wisconsin where Terry Gou has his investment.

From the results, all the states that the CCP of China has helped a lot to win have lost in the elections. We can see that the CCP interference in US midterm elections has brought about anger from both parties, a problem that both the Senate and House of Representatives will still have to address seriously in the future.

Why do I say that both the American people and Chinese people have won in this election? To speak my mind, when two lawyers in my team asked me yesterday which side shall win in my favor, I would like Donald Trump to win, to make another miracle. But when I think deeper, the best result is a balance that in the long run serves the interests of both nations.

That may not be in the best interest of either party, or in the best interest of Donald Trump, but the essence of democracy is a balance. If this balance is broken, it may not be in the best interests of either the American people or Chinese people.

Let's say, for instance, someday, Donald Trump, not in good mood, throws his toilet rubbish away recklessly. We would be pleased to see if his rubbish hits the CCP or Zhongnanhai (its official residence), but if it hits China, the ordinary Chinese will be hurt, and the American people too.

Historically, the American people and Chinese people bear no hatred for each other. Many Americans told me that they like Chinese more than Japanese, saying they are good neighbors, friends, with a sense of humor, and more talkative. Especially, officials of both the Senate and House of Representatives who I have met - they have a problem: they have not differentiated the ordinary Chinese from the CCP government. CCP cannot represent China.

I have told them that the CCP is an alien in China, its government a vicious regime, and a regime of robbers. These robbers hijacked our country 70 years ago; they have raped and seized our nation for 70 years. They are not worthy of ruling the country or representing its people.

I have advised Donald Trump and other US officials to change their anti-China policies into anti-CCP policies. Steven Bannon said at a Bloomberg Forum, "We are working to overthrow its system, change the system of the CCP, and give back freedom, democracy, and the rule of law to the Chinese people." Now Donald Trump is doing the same: differentiate China from CCP. This standpoint will be the consensus of the Senate and House of Representatives in politics and will be standardized by them as well.

Therefore a balance between the House and the Senate will set an example for the Chinese to keep away from being implicated or persecuted as a result of extreme policies. That is why I say it is a victory for the Chinese, in addition to the Americans.

The Americans have not been disappointed with their democracy and rule of law. They have in the House of Representatives Nancy Pelosi who can play a good role in US relations with Taiwan and Hong Kong. The House and Donald Trump would have total consensus on the question of Taiwan and Hong Kong, 100% anti-CCP. It is totally good news for our whistle-blowing revolution.

In some sense, Donald Trump is also a winner. He has created miracles. Look at the enthusiasm in the US society, so many people come out to vote, people across the globe pay their attention. Look at the strength in Trump administration. This is populism, the power in the hands of the people. Everyone has his voice; no one is above the law. This reflects the fundamental values in a democracy.

That's why I say it is a victory for the American people. There will not be any state policies of extremism, especially against new immigrants. This is good news. Now the Democrats and Republicans must try to work together. They must work together to counter the CCP. In the past year, both parties have reached complete agreement in fighting communism.

I was very excited yesterday to say those CCP friendly candidates leaving the stage of history. I was deeply moved to see many candidates who have supported Taiwan and Hong Kong got elected. I have great hope and expectations for them.

So yesterday we have come to a grand classroom for a lesson of freedom and democracy. It was the best make of heavens. What has happened has the natural reasoning behind it. God has made his best arrangements. This election will have a great positive impact on our whistle-blowing revolution.

What follows in our plan with full efforts is the press conference on the 19th of this month in the hotel next to my residence. The press conference to reveal the truth of Wang Jian's death is our goal. God has opened the door of hope for us, one after another.

The midterm elections yesterday have given me more confidence that this world will not just end like this. This world will not end in extremism. This world will no longer be controlled by the CCP. Our revolution will not be influenced by any party, group of interests or regime of extremism lured by the CCP in vicious collaboration.

We will work harder for a better dream and brighter future in real life, for a better world where the populace has their say in society. Dear friends, think of the prisoners in China, the death of Wang Jian, the entrepreneurs like Anbang's chairman, the re-education camps in Xinjiang, those who burnt themselves in Tibet, those officials jailed in the so-called anti-corruption campaign and their family members, we shall be grateful for what has happened yesterday.

Let's pray for peace and future happiness of the 1.4 billion Chinese, the world's population, and for the success of our whistle-blowing revolution!

Miles Kwok's words to the CCP: evil shall be rewarded with evil

China has a bad system, but the Chinese are good people, hard-working, with wisdom and good ways of doing things.

In 2019, the Chinese economy will collapse, and no one can save it from going down, not even the heavens. Real estate has a huge bubble, 4-5 times of GDP value. Its currency cannot be freely exchanged. The country is heavily in debt. The government is printing more and more paper money. The economy relies on foreign trade. China is a copycat, not productive for over two hundred years; its main technologies including quantum computing and 5G are all copying others. With the Huawei case, China is under siege globally.

China and US trade confrontation will finally lead to ideological confrontation. 48 hours ago, President Donald Trump has called for religious freedom in China. He is not going to make concessions on the issue.

As far as I know, the US will do more in this respect. The Trump Administration is not only going to arrange a meeting with his Holiness Dalai Lama, but the US government will press China to give Dalai Lama an option to choose and to recognize the reincarnation by Dalai Lama. He is not going to be the last birth of Dalai Lama.

We have all witnessed the confrontation between China and the west, setbacks of the Belt and Road Initiative, economic problems within the country, and fears of its private entrepreneurs. I have given an example. With a gunshot in the forest, all birds flew away in panic, and I was the lucky one to run away to the United States.

The running away of private entrepreneurs tells that they have no confidence in the communist system or they are not satisfied with the system. The so-called reform and opening up for 40 years never touches the political system. The CCP officials have never responded to the voices of the people; even worse, they refuse to change and set themselves against the people. With this, the economy will definitely go downwards.

In 2019, the Chinese currency Renminbi will lose its value dramatically. Hong Kong dollar will be under severe pressure for existence. More private entrepreneurs will run away overseas; no one would come back to the country. The wealth accumulated in over 40 years will vanish.

This is a punishment from the heavens. In 70 years, the Chinese people have tolerated the cruelty and crimes of the Communist Party who have caused tens of millions of deaths in various political movements, especially the Cultural Revolution and June Fourth Massacre. This is the retribution inflicted on the 1.4 billion Chinese people for their polluting the air, the water, and the soil, for their moral deterioration, evil minds, and selfishness.

The Chinese have been printing too much money and showed the world that they have created great wealth. But as a matter of fact, that was fake money. Many Chinese have the world's best Boeing 787, most luxurious private jets and yachts, drink the best wines from France, and smoke the best cigars. They live the best lives in history. They bought the best houses in Manhattan New York, all close to Central Park. I am one of them and I feel what they feel. We must be punished by heavens.

What contributions have we Chinese made to the world's civilization? It is a disgrace for the CCP to say that its greatest contribution to the world is to feed the mouths of 1.3 billion people. It is shameful for CCP to blow it up on CCTV, taking its own ignorance as an achievement.

I am going to say that in 2019, the Chinese economy will collapse. The Chinese economy will lose blood and suffer losses, being one of the worst in performance in the world's reshuffle. Shanghai A stocks will lose ground; Hong Kong stocks will run like roller coasters with money laundering. Properties bought by Chinese households will become their burden; they will lose money in the stock markets; their cash in banks or social security accounts will lose value; more will find themselves in debt. More and more people will not afford their medical bills or even a graveyard in a cemetery. Some people won't even have the right to choose how to die.

In 2019, China will experience great difficulties, severe social instability, and challenges in social unrest, living environment, economic and trade conflicts, and even a possible war. I am not going to wish you wealthy; I only pray for the health and safety of 1.4 billion Chinese. I only wish you can live well.

The collapse of China's Qing Dynasty came after the persecution of Christianity in 1890 by the Boxer Rebellion forces. In 1927, revolutionary scholars in Peking University like Hu Shih, Cai Yuanpei and Chen Duxiu stood up against Christianity. Under those circumstances, communism was introduced to China. It is a shame that we see today the Communist Party of Chinese act against Christianity.

In Chinese history, when a dynasty started to persecute religions, whether Christianity, Taoism or Buddhism, it was almost time that dynasty was coming to an end.

Resentment or dissatisfaction among people needs a way out in any society. People will seek spiritual refuge when facing worldly disasters. When they have lost faith in material things in their living environment, they start to look for supernatural solutions, like seeking help from God, the Buddha or other spirits. Today we are celebrating the New Year day as it was the birth time of Jesus Christ. This is a time for salvation.

And in another situation, when people become wealthy with prosperity, and they do not have to worry about daily living, they start to pursue spiritual beliefs. This is another extremity.

The widespread beliefs in gods and spirits come along with the collapse or destruction of dynasties and governments. The revised Regulation on Religious Affairs passed by CCP Congress recently is a sign that the CCP regime is to collapse, like the last years of the Qing Dynasty when the Boxer Rebellion persecuted Chinese Christians.

With the persecution of Christianity in China and disappearance of other faiths, an evil sector or the most vicious cult in human history – Communism – came to power and rule over the country after 1949 with the establishment of the People's Republic of China.

Communism has brought about numerous disasters in China. Today, we often see monks dance in colorful clothes, holding the red flags or paying respect to Chairman Mao Zedong. We see Xi Jinping's books about communism in Buddhist temples. Wang Qishan said as the Buddhist temples are the safest in the country, with best privacy protection, without video cameras monitoring people's activities, the Discipline Inspection Commission of the CCP Central Committee shall come to temples more often for meetings on legal cases. Wang Qishan even told his prosecutors to stay in temples from time to time.

That's why I have said demons are dancing in China. CCP's hands are everywhere. If you go overseas, they can also come for your arrest with Interpol's "red notice". They don't care if you are Meng Hongwei (former Interpol President) or not. If you stay in Buddhist temples, they can also come for your arrest. Under CCP rule, no one has the right to religious belief.

CCP is so reckless that they would destroy all gods and spirits in your mind. They would take away your hiding place for the soul as well as the hiding place for your body. They force all people to believe in CCP's communism alone. This is their aim, but it's also the reason for their destruction.

The Buddha has said, evil will be rewarded with evil. The recklessness and craziness of the CCP would finally cause its own destruction.

Cao Changqing: Miles Kwok and Steven Bannon are telling the truth

The 11.20 Press Conference has an important significance.

Steven Bannon is not an ordinary person. He was the top strategist of US President Donald Trump; he acted as the main adviser to Donald Trump during his presidential campaign; and at the most difficult times of Donald Trump, when many people had thought of no hope for Donald Trump to be elected as president, it was Steven Bannon who had given the greatest support to him. So, Bannon has been one of Trump's best friends with similar viewpoints of the world.

Recently Bannon has been working to unite the conservative forces in Europe to counter the leftists. Bannon, in particular, has a deep understanding of the nature of the Communist Party of China. His remarks as we have seen above show his insights about the nature of communism in China since Mao's time. His appearance to host Miles Kwok's press conference is very much meaningful. Because of his participation, more international media have come to attend this press conference, which has been very successful.

This is also a very important turning point in the process of Miles Kwok's whistle-blows. Because during this press conference, Bannon remarks what Miles Kwok has revealed in his whistle-blows proves to be true on the corruption of Chinese government officials, the relationships among important officials of the Chinese government, and the financial operations of HNA Group in the world.

As Steven Bannon also has a deep understanding of what is happening in China, especially when he was the top strategist of Donald Trump in the White House, he has the opportunity to learn about intelligence provided by the US Intelligence Agency, the FBI. He has good knowledge about the CCP and the HNA Group. In my opinion, with Bannon to host this press conference and to confirm the truth of Miles Kwok's revelations, the event is historical and important.

At the press conference, Miles Kwok spent most of his time to tell about the truth behind the death of former HNA Chairman Wang Jian. Before this, Miles has sent out his legal teams six times for investigations into the case at the scene of Wang Jian's death in France, his team members including former New York City policemen. His conclusion is that Wang Jian has been murdered.

At this press conference, he showed us many photos of the progress of his investigations. So many details as you can see from his disclosed materials that can be found now on the internet. And I am not going into detail here.

At the same time, Miles Kwok has documented these files into CDs or USBs and distributed them to the attendees and journalists at the press conference. In my past video shows, I have expressed my view that Wang Jian would not have died accidentally. That was a short wall; he would not have climbed up there to take photos. And he knew it was deep under.

At this press conference, Miles has provided new evidence: the owner of a local restaurant run to the scene of the incident and found that Wang Jian was still alive. As a needle was found next to where he was lying, this tells that he had an injection.

Strangely enough, who can prove that Wang Jian had died of fall? No hospital in France has provided such a conclusion with evidence. And strangely, Wang Jian was transported to a morgue two-hour drive from the church.

Anyone with common sense would think that Wang Jian should be taken to hospital for emergency treatment, and a death certificate should be issued by a medical specialist of that hospital, to prove its authenticity.

But Wang Jian was not taken to any hospital- only that his followers have claimed he had died of fall. Was that convincing? Chen Feng, the co-founder of HNA Group, said during an interview days ago told lightly of Wang Jian's death. His words showed no signs of goodness. Was that normal according to common sense?

Chen Feng said, "Wang Jian likes to take risks; he likes taking photos. Thus he fell of the wall and died there." That simple! To a business partner who has been working together with him for over twenty years, he showed no sign of sadness. His tone was out of common sense.

And the Interpol president Meng Hongwei, also vice-minister of China's Ministry of Public Security, just went missing. If his wife had not reported this to the French police, no one would learn about his where-about. One day, there might be an announcement by the CCP that Meng Hongwei had died of heart attack or other diseases, or died of fall from a prison wall. That is possible, as the reckless CCP could do anything that is evil.

If Wang Jian had truly died accidentally of fall at the church, his followers could hold a press conference right at the scene, telling the 1.4 billion Chinese and the international community what had happened, how they had witnessed the accident, and how they had discovered his death. Why? Why there was not such a press conference?

The "great" People's Republic of China has complete disregard for human life, am I right? Wang Jian was the chairman of HNA Group, a business giant with an asset of nearly 200 billion US dollars. Was his life worth nothing?

In my opinion, the logic within Miles' revelation at the press conference is very convincing and trust-worthy. Of course, Miles Kwok is not a prosecutor. He has not given any DNA evidence; he does not have the authority to do so. But his logic, his reasoning, was convincing.

In my opinion, too, Wang Jian must have been murdered by the CCP. I agree with Mile's conclusion. If Miles' revelations prove to be wrong, or if Steven Bannon's remarks prove to be wrong, why the CCP is so terrified?

One day before this press conference on November 20th, a Hong Kong court announced to freeze Mile's HK$8.7 billion there, according to Hong Kong media. Why? Miles Kwok has told about Wang Qishan as the "white glove" behind HNA Group, the key controller of HNA ownership.

Before Miles's interview with VOA last year, the former Interpol president Meng Hongwei, with an order from the CCP or Wang Qishan, issued a "red notice" for his arrest. Was that the same reasoning behind this?

And one day before this press conference, the Hong Kong court confiscated Miles' assets. The connection and similarity in the reasoning of issuing the "red notice" for his arrest is nothing but to tell the world that the CCP is very frightened.

If what Miles Kwok has said is not the truth, if Steven Bannon's endorsement is not powerful, why the so-called great People's Republic of China, the second biggest economy in the world and one of the five permanent members of the United Nations, such a powerful government, is so scared of Miles Kwok's whistle blows? Why this government has taken so many measures against him?

If his revelations lack the truth of facts, you have nothing to be afraid of. In this information age of the internet, no one is a fool. Every person can use his common sense to judge what is right or wrong.

CCP, you are scared! You have fears! Why? Because what Miles Kwok has said is true, is powerful, is shocking! He tells the ordinary Chinese people the truth.

On the internet, the Chinese government has built a wall for censorship, to cover up the truth. On the day of this press conference, this wall was partly opened, showing the whole world countless comments by the Fifty Cents hired by the Chinese government to attack and defame Miles Kwok. The Chinese government also wrote lots of articles to counter Miles Kwok in a siege. Why they are so scared of Miles Kwok?

I have always supported Miles Kwok, thinking that his revelations help us to fight the CCP, protect democratic Taiwan and the US. He has told the Taiwanese and Americans about the dissemination of CCP in the west and in Taiwan by way of Blue-Gold-Yellow (BGY).

These days, countless Fifty Cents, like bunches of grapes, have come to my Twitter account to scold, attack and defame me. CCP! If you think truth and justice are in your hands, why are you so scared of Miles Kwok? Why are you so scared of my Twitter account? This only adds to the fact that everything Miles Kwok has said is true. This only tells what Steven Bannon has said is logical.

Bannon has said, "Miles' revelations of the corruption of CCP officials and of HNA Group prove to be true."

Miles Kwok is coming back for the fight today

After 21 days mourning for the death of his dearest and greatest mother, our revolutionary whistle blower Mr. Miles Kwok will come back to us later today, come back to the front to fight the Communist Party of China (CCP) and its evil elites group.

Miles Kwok tweeted 24 hours earlier on Guo.media, "For 21 days, I have not walked downstairs; nor have I contacted with any warrior friends! Today I already had my iphone back from the hands of my team and I have come back to the office for work! I am ready to start our live-streaming whistle blow tomorrow morning at 9:30! I am very grateful for all your support and your never-ending fights against the state traitors! I have been doing well. I have no reason not to be good! Because we need to fight to the end...until the elimination of the CCP....until the realization of the Himalayas! See you tomorrow, dear friends! Everything is just beginning!"

In the past ten hours or so, with fears and anxiety, the state traitors have once again mobilized all their evil forces to hack down all the communication equipment and live-streaming platforms on the net! But they have never been successful to stop Miles Kwok and his team from speaking out! Their fears are our weapons, and our victory!

In the past 21 days, besides mourning for the great mother of Miles Kwok and continuing to speak out for what is right and just, tens of thousands of warrior friends both from mainland China and overseas have expressed their support by donating to the Rule of Law Fund.

One of the busiest warrior friends is Mr. Steven Bonnon, who has been really busy engaging with supporters in Japan and a greater audience in Europe, especially in Italy where he confronted directly the Chinese President Xi Jinping who was visiting there.

Lots of other friends have voiced their whole-hearted support for Miles Kwok and his team members who have been busy maintaining Guo.media and the communications during Miles' silence period. They truly deserve the gratitude and honor from those who are still suffering under CCP persecution in China, and beyond.

One of the warrior friends sent his message along with the donation to the Rule of Law Fund, "I am an ordinary teacher from within the wall. Since my first day in society as a teacher, I have felt the abnormality of all things around me when I was told to follow the so-called 'rules' in everything. People with thoughts and faith find no place for survival. Therefore I hate this evil system. I have naively thought of gradually changing the abnormality by being the first to do good; in the end, I was laughed at by others, always. I live like an alien, although I seem to like being that way. Until one day- the Seventh Brother descended from Heavens like a celestial god! He let me see the light. Without hesitation, I stood up in support of Miles Kwok. Maybe I cannot do anything practical, but I will pray daily for the Seventh Brother, for all warrior friends, for what is right and just, for all who are pursuing brightness!”

Another warrior friend tweeted, “When I first saw Mr. Guo on the net in 2017, I did not pay much attention. I was busy with my work at that time, working hard, without time to care too much about him. By the end of last year when I had my baby born, I had more leisure time and thus started to pay more attention. My little baby has a tiny dimple in his face, somewhat similar than what the god of warriors Mr. Guo has on the same side of his face. I hope one day they would have a photo together. My family lives in China while I myself live in a democratic country. I feel the life in the mainland is getting tougher and tougher; still, I wish them well there, even better and better! The same wish to our great fighter too!”

One donor has also sent a message along with her contribution to the Rule of Law Fund, “Seventh Uncle! I feel very lucky that heavens have sent you to us. I want to thank you in the name of my daughter. In 15 days, she will be two and a half. Every time she has her vaccine injection, we have our worries but we cannot do anything to help. We have fear buying China-made infant formulas for her. After work, we want to accompany our daughter for some sort of cartoon films, but most of the time CCTV News occupies our TV screens. As a matter of fact, I have always wanted to tell my little kid that far away in the United States there is one person -I shall call him Seventh Uncle and you shall call him Seventh Grandpa -he is alone, running at the front, fighting the state traitors! He is there, doing a great thing for us Chinese people! After 2020, when you watch TV, you do not have to watch CCTV and your mother and father shall no longer worry about the fake vaccines or fake milk powder. I’d like to thank the Seventh Uncle, thank Sara, thank Lude, thank Steven Bannon, and thank all warrior friends who have given their support to Seventh Uncle! It’s time we win. I wish Seventh Uncle success with his live broadcasting tonight!”

Another message reads, “May peace be with the great mother of Guo! She has created a legend that will last for a thousand years and spread to ten thousand miles. After three weeks of mourning for the kind mother who was hard-working, humble with her fine virtues and honorable qualities, our Seventh Brother has finally come back to us. On the last day of the mourning period, I once again made a donation to the Rule of Law Fund, as my gratitude to the kind-hearted mother who had given birth to a great man, an angel, and a miracle! She is also the mother of each of us, the warrior friends of Miles Kwok. We shall never forget her! Dear Seventh Brother! We have been expecting your come-back! We miss you so much! We can’t live any longer without YOU!”

After separation for about a month, Steven Bannon and Miles Kwok sat together again early today (6 April 2019) to clarify things about the Committee on the Present Danger: China (CPD) and share their views on the on-going China-US trade talks.

In the past month or so, Steven Bannon has been busy spreading his messages in Japan and Europe, particularly in the Vatican and Italy where the CCP signed the secret deals. He has talked to local politicians and a wider audience in the religious and cultural circles, winning a lot of support for the Rule of Law Fund.

While Steven Bannon tells about the history and role of the CPD in bringing down the former Soviet Union, Miles Kwok stresses that the CPD must make clear never to target China or the Chinese people in its new mission against the Communist regime.

Mr. Bannon explained that the CPD is an independent, private, and non-profit organization with nothing to do in their relations with the US government. Although it does make recommendations to the government and the president, it acts on its own terms to fight communism by educating the public to be aware of the present danger and threats posed by the Communist Party of China (CCP). He said as he is currently liable for many obligations with the Rule of Law Fund, he will only take up more responsibilities later in the CPD.

Mr. Bannon said the principal focus is to let the world know that they have a group of radicals running the CCP right now which is suppressing and enslaving the Chinese people. The main purpose of the Committee is to let the world know and hopefully take action to really stop the radical CCP from further suppressing the Chinese people and causing much suffering throughout the world.

Miles said, "We solemnly and officially declare that we shall never cooperate with any organization or share intelligence with them if they act against China or the Chinese people. The aim of the CPD is to demolish the evil group of the CCP and bring the state traitors to justice. We are not going to do any harm to the ordinary Chinese people."

Steven Bannon agreed with Miles that the common Chinese people are hard-working and kind-hearted people; they are the victims of CCP persecution. China and its common people shall never become our enemies, he said, the present danger of the world is a small radical group of the corrupt CCP leadership, numbering less than one thousand individuals.

"One of the central things for the Committee on the Present Danger about China is to have sophisticated individuals who are able to lead teams that will do a very detailed analysis of not just the radical CCP group that has controlled the assets in China, but also actually who is working with them throughout the world," said Bannon.

Miles said that in the last week or so, he has met with five important financiers, also key members of the CPD in California and other states, and at least four of them have made it clear to Miles Kwok that they share Miles' views in fighting the communist dictatorship and would propose changing the Constitution of the CPD.

Miles said that God has given us the best opportunity in history to bring down communism. "Besides the efforts of Steven Bannon and these world-class financiers, we have President Donald Trump and his aides like Vice President Mike Pence, Mike Pompeo, John Bolton, Robert Lighthizer, and Peter Navarro who are all tough in dealing with communist China,” Miles said. During his trip to California, Miles said he had the impression that most people there who used to criticize Donald Trump and Steven Bannon are now expressing their greatest support in a 180-degree change. “These are facts, not just blows”, Miles added.

Referring to the China-US trade talks in Washington and Vice Premier Liu He’s meeting with Donald Trump in the oval office earlier this week, both Steven Bannon and Miles Kwok laughed that both sides were playing games and seating arrangement for the Vice Premier by the side of Donald Trump was only a piece of joke.

With intelligence support from Miles Kwok in addition to joint efforts from others, the US government will impose sanctions against China’s state-owned enterprises in the coming weeks as well as those CCP officials involved in the persecution of Xinjiang Uyghurs. There is also hope that Donald Trump will take concrete actions to seize the traitors’ wealth in the US and bring down China’s Great Firewall. That will be the best news for Chinese people.

Miles Kwok is now furnishing a seven-story office building in New York which he calls the Embassy of the Himalayas or the Headquarters of Whistle Blows. He said the office will soon be open for all warrior friends across the world.

Chinese people will soon see the rise of freedom and democracy in the beautiful land of the Middle Kingdom.

Chinese Spring Festival in the heart of every Chinese individual

The way home is too far and difficult

The annual Spring Festival migration is simply staggering as more than 400 million Chinese people are expected to leave the major cities to visit their families in rural parts of the country during the Lunar New Year.

According to China’s state-run media, 2.46 billion trips will be made by road, 413 million by train, 73 million by air, and 43 million by boat during this year of the pig. Some estimates say half the country is on the move.

Although conditions for transportation have improved a lot in recent years, the experience is always a difficult one for most people making the trip, with airports, roads, and trains overcrowded and uncomfortable.

The most important part of the Chinese New Year is the family reunion. Everyone should come back home for the New Year’s Eve dinner.

The Spring Festival is not only a time for family reunions, but it is also a golden period for both domestic and international travels. China’s 1.7 billion people will make 3 billion trips around the Chinese New Year on February 5 alone, according to government figures.

According to Ctrip, Thailand, Japan and Indonesia will be the most popular overseas destinations for China's tourists this New Year. The U.S. ranks number seven on that list, the same place it held in 2017.

But at this festive time, millions of overseas Chinese cannot go home or dare not go home because they have been blacklisted by the communist government or they fear blockage or detention only because they have criticized the communist party or government who has committed lots of crimes against its people.

Many individuals who were forced to leave their homeland have different sad stories to tell. For them, the way home is too far and difficult.

The traditions of a spring festival have never changed

The Spring Festival was originally a ceremonial day to pray to gods and spirits for good harvest.

The lunar calendar is still really important in China, even though it has officially changed to the Gregorian calendar like the rest of the world.

The festival has a long history. According to legend, there was a monster named Nian. It would come about every New Year's Eve. When most people would hide in their homes, one boy was brave enough to fight the monster off using firecrackers. The next day, people celebrated their survival by setting off even more firecrackers. And that practice became a crucial part of the festival.

There is a day about a week before the Spring Festival dedicated to cleaning. This day is to sweep the bad luck away and make room for the good. Parents would tell the kids that sweeping and throwing out the garbage isn't allowed before the 5th. This is to make sure you don't wash away the good luck!

Chinese families will decorate everything red for the Lunar New Year. There are the red lanterns, the red couplets, the red clothing, and the little red envelope with lucky money to kids.

The New Year greeting in Chinese is "xin nian kuai le" or "Happy New Year", and "gong hei fat choy" in Cantonese or "gong xi fa cai" in Mandarin. That means "congratulations on the fortune."

All across the world, there are lion dances among the Chinese communities to celebrate the Spring Festival.

These traditions have developed for thousands of years but the idea has never changed.

Be positive and happy in a difficult year

As millions make their way home in the country to celebrate the Lunar New Year, news about big companies' layoffs, the slowing economy and the rising cost of goods has added more uncertainty at a time that is typically marked by festivity.

Last year, China's economy grew at its slowest rate in 28 years and some employers are warning of "tough times" and talking about "surviving" at year-end banquets. On top of that, the U.S.-China trade dispute and tariffs have added to the downward pressure on the economy.

For the local governments, this year is shaping up as the most difficult in a long time for China to ensure employment stability.

But the Chinese people have the fine qualities to deal with difficult situations. No matter how hard life is, family members would encourage and help with each other out of hardships.

Chinese people seldom blame the government as most believe in fate. As the New Year is a time for positivity, people would avoid getting into arguments with people, or even their foes.

This year is the year of the pig. Legend has it that the pig is the last animal in the cycle of the 12 zodiac signs. Many people like the year of the pig because the pig represents prosperity and good fortune.

Although last year Peppa Pig – the happy cartoon character was banned by the ruling Communist Party for negative influence on President Xi Jinping, people give it more blessing in shopping malls, grocery stores, and restaurants across the country with the image "Peppa Pig Celebrates Chinese New Year".

When we spend time with our families at the festival, we shall not forget those many Muslim families in "Xinjiang re-education camps" or those families of activists wrongly detained in prisons.

We hope that with the downfall of the CCP soon in the land of the Middle Kingdom, Chinese people will no longer live as pigs under the cruelty of communist dictatorship.

With this, the whole Chinese population would remember their gratitude to Miles Kwok and look forward to his whistle blows on the eve of the Chinese Spring Festival.

Miles said the Communist Party must be taken down by 2020. And we hope for the good of all Chinese in the coming year of 2019-2020!

Everything is just beginning!
